

WEDDINGS OF INTEREST

FINSTAD — HISEY
Baskets of white gladioli, yellow and rust mums, decorated the Second Markham Baptist Church on Saturday, Sept. 10, at 3 p.m. for the wedding of Helen Marie Hisey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hisey, Stouffville and Leonard D'Oreille, Alberta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Finstad, by Rev. Bruce Hisey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie featuring a fitted bodice, long sleeves, a round neckline appliqued with lace. A very full skirt appliqued with lace fell to a chapel train and was caught up with a small bow in front to show a lace insert. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught up by a tiaraf of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a yellow throned orchid surrounded by white baby mums, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Marian Gostick of Stouffville was Maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Anne Smith, Dawson Creek, B.C.; Mrs. Clayton Pearson (sister of the groom), Manyberries, Alta., will reside at Pendant D'Oreille, Alberta.

Guests were present from Dawson Creek, B.C., Calgary, Medicine Hat, Toronto, Hamilton, Vineland and Burlington.

Mr. Mervin Finstad of Pendant D'Oreille, Alberta, was best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Bruce Hisey (brother of the bride), Mr. Doug. Clarke and Mr. Len. Hadlow of Dawson Creek, B.C.

The organist was Mrs. Fred McLeary and Mr. McLeary was the soloist. The wedding reception was held at the Parkside Youth Centre where the bride's mother received her guests wearing a dusty rose crepe dress with beige accessories and wearing a pink corsage.

The groom's mother wore a Panama blue suit with beige accessories and a pink corsage. For a honeymoon in northern Ontario, the bride donned a green dress suit with beige and black accessories and wore a corsage of talisman roses They

BARKEY — PIPHER
Standards of pink and white gladioli formed the setting for the marriage of Jean Marie Pipher, daughter of Mr. Clifford and the late Mrs. Pipher, of Church Street, to Walter Howard Barkey, son of Mrs. Barkey, and the late Mr. George Barkey, Concession 7, Whitechurch. Rev. Dow Sargeant of Altona performed the ceremony in the United Church, Saturday, September 17th at 3 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white organza over peau de soie, slim bodice, bouffant skirt in short length. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid, stephanotis, and white heather from Scotland.

Miss June Haines of Newmarket was the bridesmaid and Janet Button and Karen Hamilton were junior bridesmaids. They wore turquoise organza over flowered peau de soie, bouffant skirts in short length and carried nosegays of baby mums, pink roses and delphinium.

Barbara Proud of Newmarket and Diane Haines of Kagawan, Manitoulin Island, were the flower girls, dressed alike in white nylon with bouffant skirts, carrying wee baskets of flowers.

"Blest be the Tie that Binds" was sung by the congregation, with Mrs. Charles Nolan at the organ.

Mr. Earl Cook of Lemonville was the best man, and the ushers were Ken Pipher of Peterborough, Walter Pipher, Stewart Stouffer and Belfry Hamilton.

At the reception which followed in the United Church Sunday School Room, Mrs. Earl Pipher of Newmarket received for her niece in an orchid costume with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a beige gown with brown accessories. They both wore corsages of pink sweetheart roses.

At the reception Mrs. Alma Oldham sang "I'll walk beside You" and "The Lord's Prayer". For their honeymoon to the Laurentians the bride donned a gray suit with a gray Persian lamb jacket with amethyst accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

On returning, they will reside at the groom's home, Concession 7, Whitechurch. Guests were present from Fort William, Parkhill, Toronto, Cannington, Newmarket, London, North Bay, Sarnia, Bowmanville and Peterborough.

HOSHIE — LITTLE
Zion United Church, Cedar Grove, was decorated with white and yellow gladioli and mauve and white mums, for the wedding on Saturday, Sept. 17th, of Carolyn Anne Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Little, to Donald George Hoshel, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hoshel, Stouffville R. R. 4. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Norman Pick.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white lace over taffeta with fitted bodice and full skirt, finger-tip veil of tulle illusion edged with lace and held by a petal cap of lace edged with pearls. Her flowers were a cascade of white and mauve mums. The bridesmaids wore Miss Carol Beare, of Scarborough, Miss Laurel Rowbotham, Cornwall and Miss Nancy Johnston of Willowdale. The matron-of-honour was Mrs. Eric Mitchell. The attendants wore lilac pseudo-sole made in princess style with small matching caps; head dresses were bands of matching flowers and pearls. Their flowers were cascades of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom was supported by Kenneth Hoshel, his brother. Mrs. Charles Whittaker played the wedding music and Mrs. Robert Anderson sang, "The Wedding Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You." The ushers were Mr. Robert Brimbecom, Mr. Richard VanNostrand and Mr. Barry Little.

At the wedding reception following the ceremony, the bride's mother received the guests at midnight blue lace with navy accessories and corsage of yellow mums. The groom's mother wore a beige brocade taffeta sheath dress with matching accessories and corsage of pink mums. The reception was held at the bride's home, Meadow Lawn Farm, Cedar Grove. For her wedding trip the bride wore a stroller suit of honey beige with tan accessories.

FRISBY — TAUN
A quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taun, R.R. 4, Stouffville, on Saturday, Sept. 24th at 2:30 p.m., when their daughter Lois Marguerite, became the bride of Richard Alvin Frisby, son of Mrs. Frisby and the late Alvin A. Frisby, of Victoria Square. The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white gladioli for the occasion.

The Rev. George Davison was the minister officiating at the ceremony when the bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Glen Taun. She wore a white floor length Princess style dress of rayon brocade with a crown of simulated pearls catching her fingertip veil and carrying red roses. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Mrs. William Walls, who wore a yellow street length dress of nylon chiffon over taffeta with matching feather headband and carried Johanna Hill Roses. Mr. William Walls was the best man.

After the reception at the bride's home, the happy couple left on a short honeymoon and on returning will make their home on the groom's farm at Victoria Square.
