VICTORIA SQUARE

Mrs. W. Sandle
WEDDING
NICHOLS - WILSON

On Friday, September 16th, in the Magistrate's Court, Willowdale, Ontario, at 9:30 a.m. Barbara Joan Wilson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Sabinsville, Pennsylvania, became the bride of Franklin Louis Alexander Nichols, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols of Victoria Square.

The bride was lovely in a peacock blue organza dress over matching taffeta. The fitted cummerbund bodice featured a wide bertha collar covering the tiny sleeves. The full bouffant skirt was in the new shorter length and her shoes matched her dress. Her headpiece was of white feathers. She carried a nosegay of baby mums and bridal roses. Miss Betty Jane Barnhart of Timmins was her only attendant. She wore a fitted torso dress with a narrow rolled collar, short sleeves and a short bouffant skirt of deep rose peau de soie. Her headpiece too was of white feathers and she carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations and roses.

Mr. Phillip Hill of Gormley was best man. A family reception followed at the Yangtze Pagoda, Richmond Hill. The groom's mother received her guests in a printed blue sheer dress with matching velvet hat. Her corsage was red roses. The bride party left immediately after for Sabinsville, where a small family reception was held at the bride's parental home. Mrs. Wilson received in an informal blue dress and wore a corsage of red roses.

On their return the happy couple took up residence at their apartment on Fulton Ave., Toronto.

Jr. Choir Party
On September 20, the members of the Jr. Choir and several of their mothers gathered at the home of the leader, Mrs. Allan Orr. Mr. Orr took them on a hay-ride back over the farm. Following the ride which was enjoyed by all, they were treated to a corn roast followed by toasted marshmallows.

CEDAR GROVE

(Sept. 22)

Cedar Grove is a very pretty village. Praise is loud and strong for the fine farms and abundant crops in our area but there is much to be said for the gardens, the hedges and the trees that make our village a delight to the tourist and give those of us who live in Cedar Grove a justifiable pride. On the townline the Little willow trees form a beautiful frame for a farmhouse and the Dares' window boxes and the Shouley's new trees are worth a long look as you drive by.

Once past the corn that is as high as an elephant's eye, the gardens around the Sim Reesor's house sing brightly of careful attention to their well-being. On the crest of the hills the Milroy farms look like the neat and green cardboard farms we bought in boxes when we were children. The Petrie's long stretch of lawn and the Whittaker's gate and Mrs. Walter Burkholder's magnificent begonias make the drive to the tenth level, indeed.

The school holds its own flanked by tall maple trees, and the Dimmas corner looks like an advertisement for a seed catalogue. Each year since they were built, we have watched the gardens grow around Cornelius' and Bob Lapp's and they grow brighter with every season and who would want to miss a glimpse of the Aubrey Lapp's lilies when they are in bloom? Lloyd Clendennan's trimmed cedars almost hiding a burst of Salvia and Mrs. Lapp's soft lawn carpet and the Robb's pretty blooms and Gordon Dimma's colourful array give the thirty-mile-limit stretch a good reason for being. It goes on and on to the Gastons and Jean Miller's and up to the gorgeous golds and yellows that surround the Booth's greenhouses. What a sight that is!

But that isn't all. If the Sunday drivers who peruse our village enjoyed the privilege of turning up each long lane, they would find surprises without number. Ruby Reesor's sweet peas and Mrs. Ryan's numerous gardens, they might be lucky enough to see the Whittaker's apple tree in bloom against the house or the very English garden the Ritchies have in the valley. The list is endless — there are hundreds of green thumbs all around us. Yes, ours is a very pretty village. (Continued on next column)

Brown's Corners.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nichols who on Sept. 19 celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary; to Mr. and Mrs. John McCague who on Sept. 25 celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary; to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steckley who on Oct. 1 will celebrate their eleventh wedding anniversary; to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Runney who on Oct. 4 will celebrate their eighth wedding anniversary. Mrs. Wilbur Brumwell and baby son Mark Stephen arrived home from hospital Saturday. Misses Anne Buchanan, Margaret Smith, Messrs. Art Story, Allan Binnington, Tom Stephenson and Donald Nichols attended the fall weekend camp of the York Presbytery Young People held at Camp Ashlunbyoung, Lake Simcoe. The guest speaker was Mr. Garry McEachern. They report having a wonderful time.

RINGWOOD

Large donations of vegetables, fruit and flowers were brought to the church on Saturday afternoon, making it possible to depict a bounteous harvest scene, which many thought impossible because of delayed seed time. God is still true to His promise of seedtime and harvest. We enjoyed both morning and evening services on Sunday. Mr. R. Gibson spoke at both services. Mrs. Alma Oldham sang at the morning service and the Altona Ladies trio, Mrs. Fred Byer, Mrs. M. Reesor and Miss Grace Lehman at the evening service.

On Thursday evening as scheduled, the Peach's Ladies Group were guests of the "Excelsior Class". The meeting was held in the church. The program supplied by the visitors was good to hear and the fellowship shared was also good.

The F. Atkinsons and E. Brownsbergers have the unique experience of eating ripe strawberries last week, and this scribe picked several ripe raspberries, which is not as unusual as late strawberries, at this time of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cockwell returned home after a three week trip to the western provinces and spent Tuesday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Atkinson.

- Notes About Neighbours—
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Whittaker were feted last week when some of their neighbours surprised them with a party to honour their 25 years of married life.
Bea Petrie won her usual array of prizes at this year's Ex. and congratulations are in order.
What happened to Art Gaston? He is walking these days, unable to drive because of a broken arm.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Armstrong welcomed a baby girl to their family of boys this week.
The threatened rain had the decency to hold off on Saturday so the wedding of Caroline Little to Don Hoshel could be enjoyed in the sunshine. Our warmest good wishes for a very happy life together.
