Home & School

Gormley Home and School Association began its fall activities Monday evening, Sept. 26, with a large attendance. The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. J. Leitch, giving the Home and School Prayer.

Mr. A. Moorbey, the principal, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Hallman, public school inspector, who gave the graduates a very challenging message - stressing the fact that they must work hard in order to make the most out of school life. Mrs. E. Cochrane thanked the speaker.

Mr. Hallman presented graduation pins to the following pupils: Kenneth Quinn, Warren Quinn, Ronald McMullen, David Heise, Janet Varley, Janice Farquharson and John Reid. Miss Janet Varley gave the valedictory address.

Mr. Moorbey then presented the school letters to the following: Ronald McMullen, David Heise, John Reid, Errol Matsunaga, Carmon Henderson, Carol Moses, Judy Hart and Janice Farquharson.

Special gymnastic awards were presented to Ronald McMullen and Janet Varley by Mr. Moorbey. The meeting adjourned with the singing of God Save The Queen, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mona Armstrong, the music supervisor. Buffet lunch was served by the grade 1 mothers.

M & M Workshop

Mr. Percy Bennett attended the Toronto Conference M and M Workshop on Thursday, Sept. 30 at Woodgreen Community Centre, Toronto. Cochrane was the only Presbytery not represented.

The highlight of the session was a report from three Hamilton men: a medical doctor, a negro lawyer and the Rev. Carl Zeebrug, a United Church minister. These men, together with 16 others spent three months of last summer in Africa working and living with the natives.

After listening to the men, Mr. Bennett left with a feeling that our M and M sum total of $10,000,000 will be over the top before too long. Africa needs education, trained doctors and nurses, technicians, together with our prayers and goodwill to attain equality in this great world of ours; shall we be there? Church News.

Mr. Allen Tomlinson, B.A., who is beginning first year theology at Emmanuel College, Toronto took charge of the service at Victoria Square.

On Sunday, Oct. 9 at 11.30 a.m. holy communion will be held. The thought of Thanksgiving will be emphasized. It will be quite in order to have the church decorated to some extent for Harvest Home.

PARADING WITH PICK

F. J. "PICK" PICKING

Is the cost of High School books a burden for many families? Where can you go in York County to find Muskoka's "Cavalcade of Colour" surpassed? Are new German-Canadian citizens in this area making history repeat itself? Is local municipal government operating at the highest possible peak of efficiency and economy?

These and many other topical subjects are dealt with on Monday evenings at 6.30 by Col. F. J. Picking, veteran newspaperman and commentator.
