

Local and Personal Happenings

Forty-one Blooms

This beautiful amaryllis Sproxtion of Gormley, produced a record 41 blooms this fall. It marked the first time shown such colourful development in fifteen years that it has.

—Staff Photo

WEDDINGS OF INTEREST

PAYNE — SLEIGH

A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in the St. John's United Church, Brougham, on Saturday, Oct. 8th at 4 p.m. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers.

Rev. Cresswell had the pleasure of uniting in marriage Mr. Clifford Gerald Payne (brother of Mrs. E. Lindo of Locust Hill R.R. 1) and Myrtle Christina Sleigh, both of Toronto.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, wearing a lovely ivory princess style bengaline gown trimmed with rhinestones and seed pearls. Her headress was a pearl tiara with waist length veil and she carried red roses.

The maid of honour, Mrs. E. Lindo in autumn blue silk organza with headdress to match, carried pink carnations and wore silver shoes. Miss Nancy Sleigh, bridesmaid, wore autumn yellow silk organza and carried mauve carnations, and Mrs. Lillian Sewell wore autumn mauve silk organza and carried yellow carnations. The groom, best man and ushers wore white flannel jackets and black trousers.

Mrs. Howard Plaxton, organist, presided during the ceremony and soloist Miss Gail White sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindo. At seven o'clock the ladies of Brougham W.M.S. served a delicious Thanksgiving Dinner in Brougham Town Hall, and dancing followed. The out-of-town guests were from New Brunswick, Ottawa, Preston, Orono, Hamilton and Toronto.

MEDOWELL — LEWIS

Christ Church, Anglican, in Stouffville, was decorated with white gladioli and white mums for the wedding of Carole Dolores Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Lewis and the late Donald B. Lewis and John Balles McDowell, son of Mrs. McDowell and the late Thomas Howard McDowell of Oshawa, on Sept. 24, at 11 a.m.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Donald W. Lewis, wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie with a V-neckline with lace applique and a chapel train. Her shoulder length veil hung from a lace tiara and she carried white gardenias and white delphinium. The matron of honour, her sister, Mrs. Murray Redshaw and bridesmaid Miss Ruth Leitch of Toronto were dressed alike in avocado green silk peau de soie and wore feather hats and carried white roses. Misses Cathy and Susan Carole Barkey were flower girls for their aunt, dressed alike in apple green silk peau de soie and carried nosegays of flowers.

Rev. J. O. Tiller and Rev. Clinton Cross were the officiating ministers and Mrs. Frank Bramham was the organist.

Mr. Peter Mason of Toronto was the best man, with Mr. Tom McDowell and Mr. Murray Redshaw as ushers, and Master James Lewis was a Junior usher.

The wedding reception took place at the Legion Hall where the Bride's mother received her guests wearing a mauve printed silk shantung dress with purple accessories and a corsage of white spray orchids, and the groom's mother wore a beige chiffon dress with brown accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

For a honeymoon spent at Terra Cotta, Ont., the bride wore a blue suit with blue and navy accessories and a white gardenia corsage. They will make their home in Stouffville.

Lions Club To Provide Courtesy Benches

Stouffville Lions Club is going to provide the town with a number of courtesy benches for Main St. The municipal council gave permission on Thursday night for seven benches to be placed along Main St. at sites to be agreed upon by the Club and the town.

In addition, the Lions will provide hockey cushions and equipment this winter for two open-air rinks in town, the one to be located at West Lawn Cres. and Rupert Ave., and the other in Memorial Park. Council agreed to service the rinks as to flooding and cleaning. Both rinks will provide an area for pleasure skating around the outside of the hockey cushion.

In speaking on the rinks, dep-

Girl Injured By Garbage Truck

A 2½ year old Markham Village girl was rushed to the Scarborough General Hospital by Police Chief Fred White on Thursday after she was run over by a garbage truck near her home. Marlene Speckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Speckert, Honeybourne Cres., was unconscious when admitted but was reported much improved on Friday. Her tricycle was smashed beyond repair.

Mr. Roy Foote, a helper on the rear of the truck, summoned the driver to stop when he heard the impact. The vehicle was driven by Donald Lehman of Markham.

Mrs. Ida Cook of Weston is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Forsyth, O'Brien Ave., while she is renewing acquaintances with other friends and relatives.

Quite a number of local plowmen have left for Springfield, near London, to take part in the International Plowing Match being held there this week.

Miss Esther Davis and Mrs. Ross Davis accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis and Carol on a Thanksgiving weekend trip to Ottawa by way of the St. Lawrence Seaway and returning through Algonquin Park.

uty-reeve Wagg and councillor Laushway both pointed out that Stouffville ratepayers "get off very lightly" in the matter of providing recreational facilities. Most of the fine park facilities have been donated to the town, and the arena in addition to providing a fine indoor sports centre, is one of the town's largest taxpayers.

Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erle Lehman on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickinson and Mrs. Lorne and Mr. and Mrs. Norm. Dickinson, Sandra, Bernice and Helen of Goodwood, and Mrs. Ormsby Lehman, Church St. It was also the occasion of Brian's 1st birthday.

Mr. Bob Hassard, Lloyd Ave., was the fortunate holder of one ticket to the Pittsburgh - New York World Series game in Pittsburgh on Wednesday. He left by car on Tuesday afternoon.

W. A. Meeting Oct. 17—

The W.A. of the United Church will meet in the Church Parlor on Monday evening, Oct. 17th, at 8 o'clock. The Milliken Federation will be our guests and provide the program. All ladies are invited to this meeting.

Miss Mildred Barkey, Main St., reports having Oriental Poppies coming into bloom and out at Altona. Mrs. Fletcher Goudie picked 2 Easter Lily flowers which had come into bloom. This is quite unusual for this time of year.

W. I. Meeting Oct. 20—

Regular meeting of the W.I. will be held in the W.I. Hall, Library Building, Thursday Oct. 20th, 2:15 p.m. Program convenor Mrs. T. Baxter; Current Events, Mrs. P. Barrie. Roll Call—wear your oldest hat or pay 25c. Hostesses, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Badgero and Mrs. Sanderson. Please note change of date.

Following the baptism in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Markham, on Sunday, of Susan Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas, Rupert Ave., they had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Thomas and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tapscott and John, all of Markham, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pascoe and Grant of Greenwood.

Mr. Charlie Vanzant, Church St., returned from the Hospital at Newmarket on Saturday, having spent the past 2 weeks there as the result of an accident at Ringwood Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomson and family of Camp Borden, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Thomson of Peterborough spent the Thanksgiving weekend at Sunset Trail Cottage at Weslemkoon Lake.

Holiday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Madill were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Poin- ton, David, Brian and Ricky, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Law, Cathy, and Timmy, and Mrs. Grant Baker. This was the first time in ten years that the three daughters of the Madills have been together.

Mr. Lou Slack is home again after ten days in the Uxbridge Cottage Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reid were Thanksgiving visitors at the home of Mrs. A. V. Nolan, Rupert St.

Miss Elizabeth Wideman of Church St. is taking an enforced holiday in bed, for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fleming of Unionville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Nigh, Edward St.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Colley and Ruth Marie of Pefferlaw spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pugh.

Miss Janet Hope of Kingston spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman O'Boyle spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. W. D. Wells of Islington.

Mrs. Will Birkett accompanied her brother, Mr. Evans Ward of Claremont to his cottage at Fenelon Falls on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Good and son, of Port Hope spent the holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Brown.

Mr. Ferg. Connon of Willowdale was a recent visitor in Stouffville, stopping off at the home of his father, Mr. Peter Connon, Bethesda.

Mrs. Ella Thompson of Box Grove spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Fred Pugh. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reiser.

NOTICE

E. A. Grubin, R.O., Optometrist, will be in Stouffville at the James McCreight residence, 58 Main St. E., on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 17th and 18th.

Two local residents made guest appearances on channel 11, Hamilton recently including Mr. Norman Hendricks, a student at McMaster University and Mr. Grant Wells, a runner-up in the Canadian Ploving Championship contest, Quebec.

More than 200 children, accompanied by their mothers thronged into the premises of Storey's Drug Store on Friday afternoon and evening to take advantage of the coloured portrait offer. A professional photographer was on hand, and in spite of the overwhelming demand, he took care of each request.

Stouffville's senior citizens will be provided with a place this winter in which to play cards, checkers and congregate during the cold weather. Council agreed last week to make available the former office of the Public Utilities Commission for this purpose. The room is located on the second floor of the fire-hall building.

The "bag of bulbs" sale conducted last May by the H.C. Club of the United Church earned $175.00 that will be used for welfare work in conjunction with World Refugee Year. A cheque in this amount was submitted recently at a formal presentation.

Miss Eleanor Clare, a school teacher from Kapuskasing, who had been on the tour of the Continent this past summer with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spoford, flew down to spend the Thanksgiving weekend with them. She brought along her pictures of the trip. The Spofords had other friends in from Toronto to enjoy seeing their trip again with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Laushway motored to Niagara Falls during the holiday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brillinger and family, also Mrs. J. Gayman, all of Ridgeway, enjoyed Thanksgiving in Stouffville with Mr. and Mrs. H. Brillinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Arnold and Miss Dora Doan of Newmarket spent the Thanksgiving weekend in the Parry Sound-Huntsville and Dorset districts, enjoying the colourful scenery.

Two cars were involved in an accident on No. 7 Highway east of Locust Hill on Friday morning. The drivers were Messrs. Gerald Foley, Mill St., Stouffville, and Murray Timbers, RR 2, Dundalk. Neither party was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schneider of Moorefield spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les. Wideman. They also visited with other members of the family.

Three Injured — Three persons were hospitalized following an accident on No. 48 Highway near Ringwood on Tuesday, Oct. 4. Lewis Dennis of Ringwood, Doreen McCormick, Ajax, and Arthur Williamson of Goodwood, all required medical treatment. Two cars were involved in the collision.

Mrs. Chas. Robinson and Miss Isabella, Mrs. A. Reynolds, Miss E. Williamson, all of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson of Markham, were holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nolan.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ratcliff and family and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Brown and family of St. Marys spent Thanksgiving at Port Carling.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wagg, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wagg and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wagg were at Springwater Park at Midhurst on Sunday, where they also saw others from Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ratcliff and family and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Brown and family of St. Marys spent Thanksgiving at Port Carling.

Rev. Douglas Davis, who has been absent from his pulpit in Stouffville United Church for several Sundays through illness, assisted Rev. Fockler of Markham last Sunday and will continue to do so during his recuperation. Rev. Mr. Fockler has been serving the congregation during Rev. Mr. Davis' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Stouffer and family spent Monday at Twelve Mile Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ross of Waterloo were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keith, Main St. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wetheral and family of Islington, were visitors on Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Wetheral, Duchess St.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Smith of Lincolnville spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Boardway at Port Bolster.

Child Health Clinic—The Stouffville Child Health Clinic will be held at the Health Unit Office, 87 Main St. West, on Friday, Oct. 14, 1960, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Wagg, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wagg and boys and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Wagg were at Springwater Park at Midhurst on Sunday, where they also saw others from Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ratcliff and family and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Brown and family of St. Marys spent Thanksgiving at Port Carling.

Rev. Douglas Davis, who has been absent from his pulpit in Stouffville United Church for several Sundays through illness, assisted Rev. Fockler of Markham last Sunday and will continue to do so during his recuperation. Rev. Mr. Fockler has been serving the congregation during Rev. Mr. Davis' absence.

Mrs. Hammer of Toronto spent Sunday with Mrs. Ida Elson, Baker Ave.

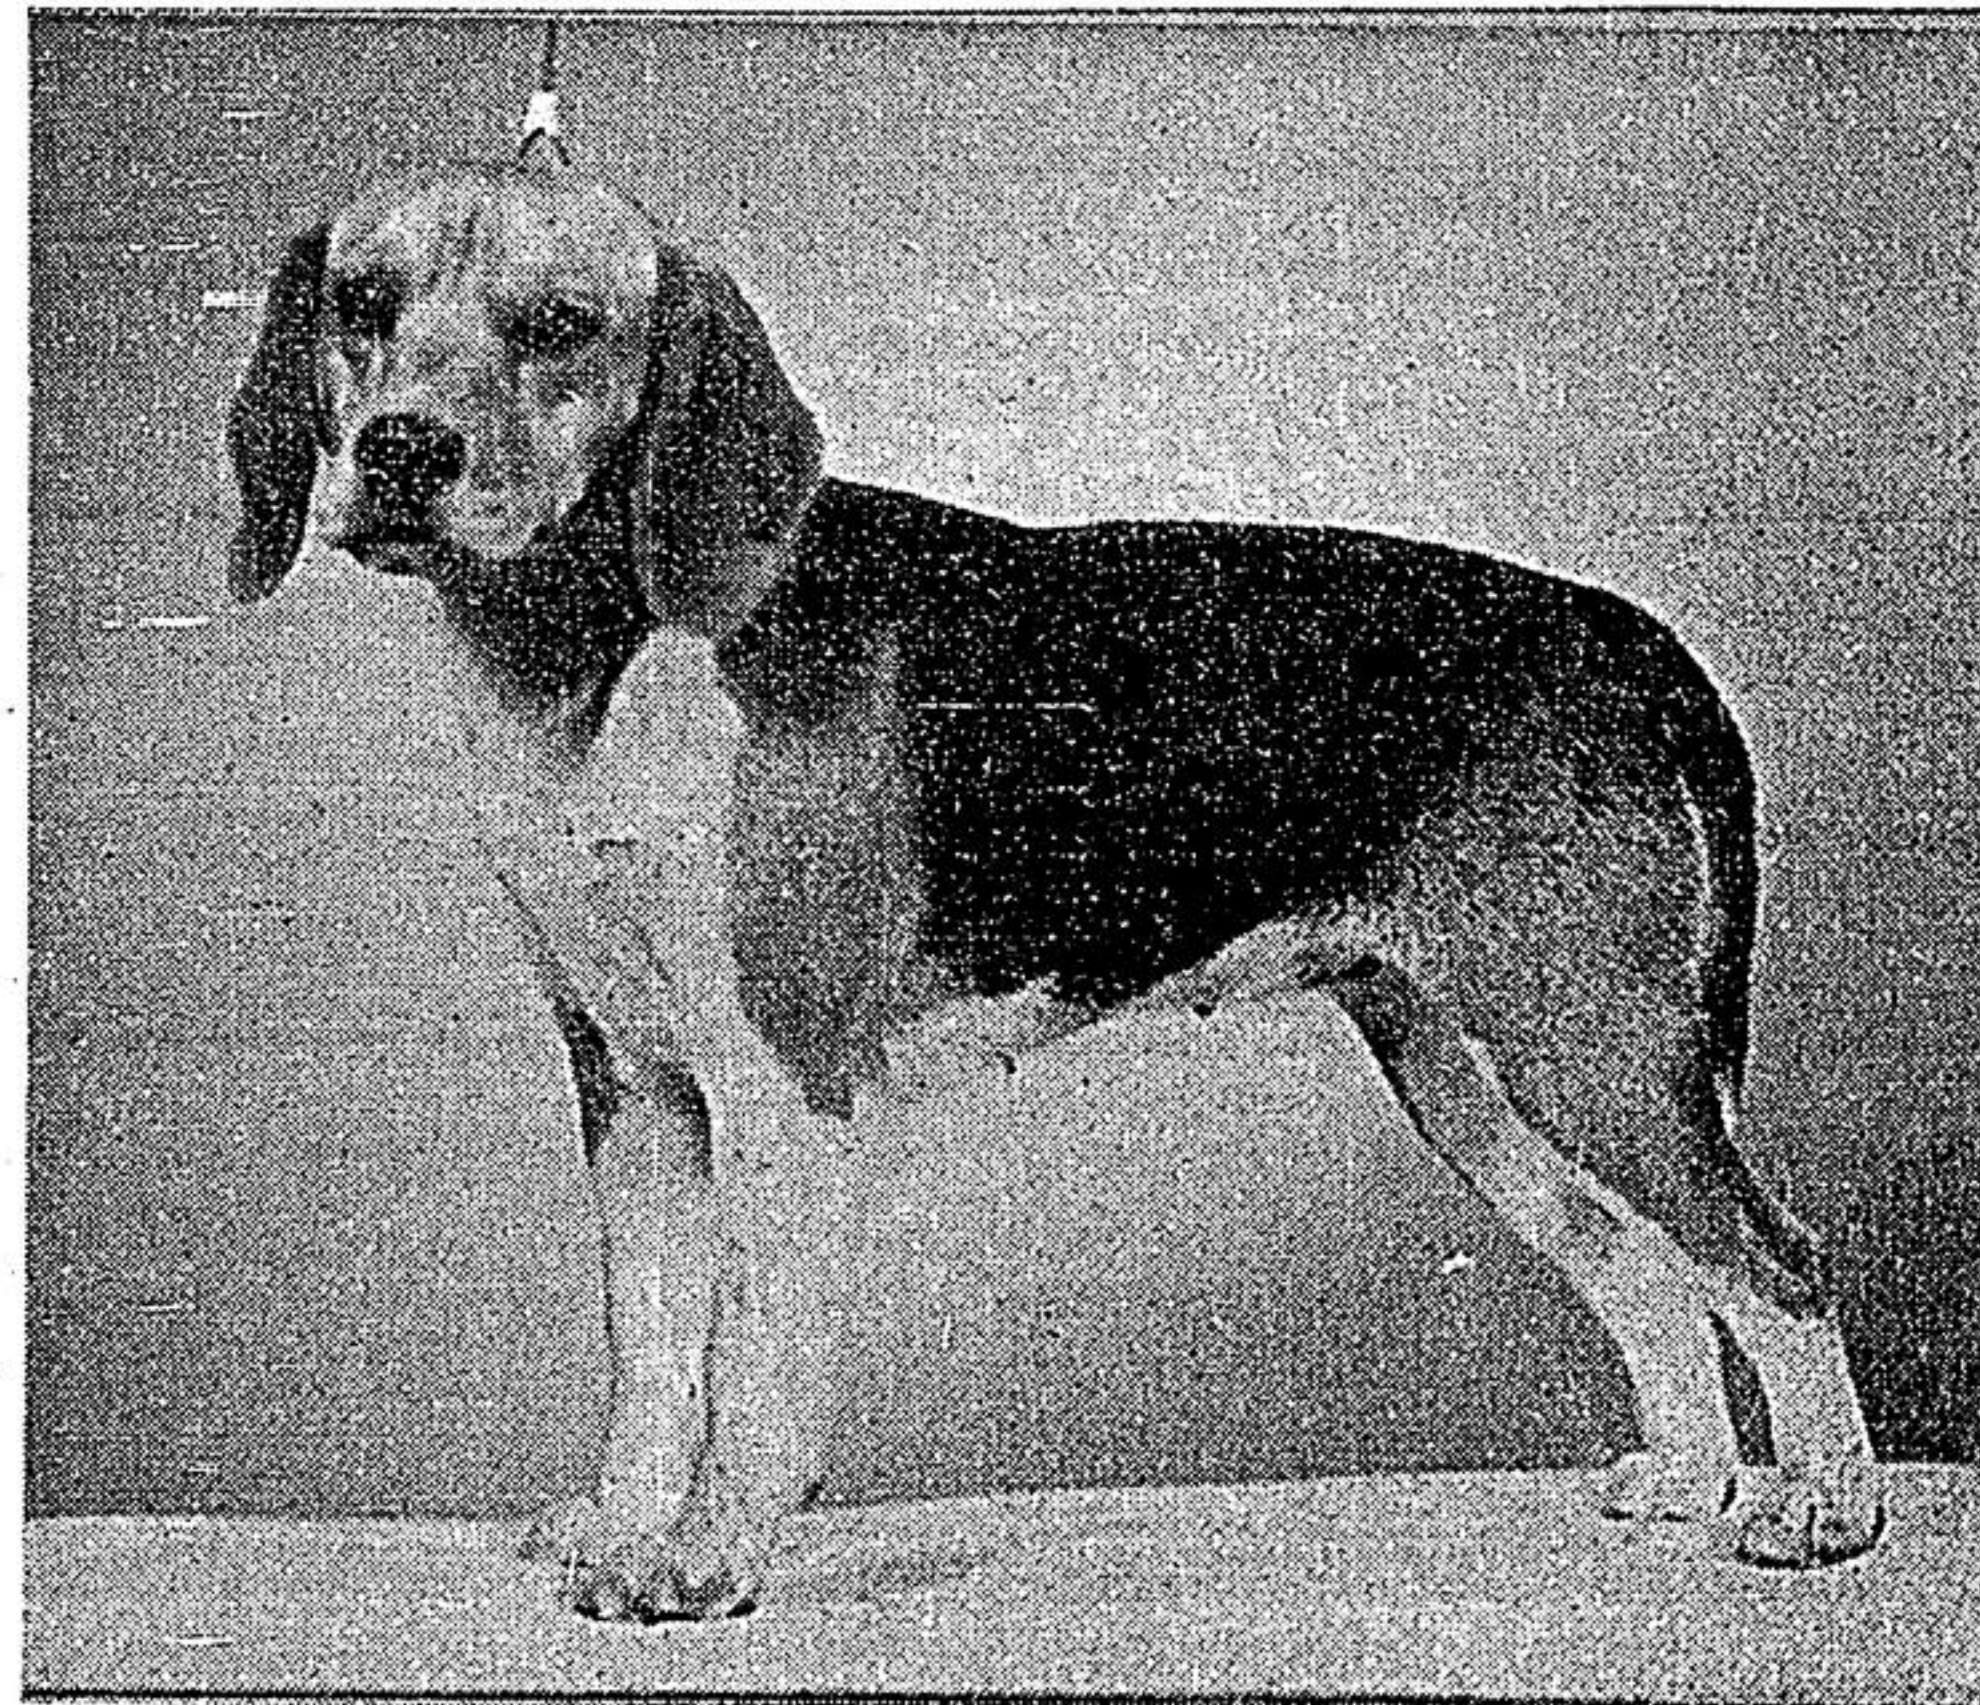

Miss Mary Curtis, who is a teacher at Lindsay, was home for the holiday weekend with her sister, Mrs. Alma Wetheral.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Newman and family of Brantford, Miss Nancy Harwood and Miss Anne Johnson of Burlington spent the weekend at Miner's Bay.

Miss Effie Pugh, sister of Mr. Fred Pugh, who has been spending the last two months with Mrs. W. H. Connor, while visiting other friends and relatives, left on Wednesday for her home in Wetaskiwin, Alberta.

Ratcliff's I.G.A. has opened a new parking lot to the rear of the Bank of Nova Scotia which adds greatly to the parking facilities on Main St. The new lot was well patronized on Friday evening. The town has assisted in the service by illuminating the lot.

Stouffville Main St. had a bumper crowd on Friday evening when the merchant-sponsored clown band paraded from store to store for the lucky turkey draws. Those winning a free Thanksgiving dinner were: Mrs. Geo. Fockler, Ringwood; Mrs. Allan Meyers, Claremont R.R.; Mrs. Douglas Bacon and Mrs. Harold Badgero, Stouffville; Mrs. Don Hargrave, Dickinson's Hill; Roy Curtis, Stouffville; Kenneth Nesbitt, Mrs. Fred Shelke, Mrs. Gordon Holden and Mrs. Marvin May, Goodwood.

Champion

Fordene's GiGi, a beagle owned by Mrs. Doug O'Neill, Fairview Avenue, completed her Canadian Championship petition was conducted at Agincourt on Sept. 25th.

—Staff Photo

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

— At —

Second Markham Baptist Church

— Next Lord's Day —

Morning Service

— 11 A.M. —

Soloist

Mr. B. Gilmour

Guest

Gospel Service

— 7:30 P.M. —

Male Quartette

Will Sing

Speaker

REV. ROY HISEY

We Invite You to Share The Blessings of Our Hundred and Twelfth Anniversary

Camera-eye View of North York Match

A wide-angle view of the North York Plowing Match as seen through the lens of the Tribune camera depicts a total of sixteen tractors in the heat of competition on the farm of Harry Walker, two miles east of Newmarket. Weather and land conditions were ideal for the match that attracted 32 individual entries.

—Staff Photo