CEDAR GROVE

CEDAR GROVE —

If there is one factor more important than any other to parents today, it surely is the education of the next generation.

If there is any way in which the future peoples of the world can live in harmony, it will come about through education.

We, like every parent all over the world, face this general problem but here in Cedar Grove, we have problems unique to this area. We are still a rural community but we are on the verge of vast urban development and this point is of primary importance to us when we think of the education and training.

Four of the ladies attended the Oshawa Presbytery W.A. meeting at Ajax on Thursday. A number from here attended the anniversary service at Almonds church on Sunday evening.

"Cry Wolf" Youth Fined

A pre-Hallowe'en prank cost Paul Diamond and his buddy James Hall, both 17 and from Toronto, $63.50 each when Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake convicted them of causing a disturbance on October 23 at Lot 30, Concession 3, Markham Township. In a statement to police, Diamond said that at 5.35 a.m. he and Hall drove up to a house on the Don Mills Road, where they took turns banging on the door, yelling and cursing. Hall varied this performance by shouting "Help, help! They're going to shoot me!" just before the two hurled themselves into Diamond's car and roared away. They were stopped by police at Buttonville.

"They were crying Wolf," said the crown. "The silly act frightened the occupants of the house." Said the magistrate: "No one was being shot?" The crown replied, "No one." The magistrate said to the two accused: "Indeed it was a silly game you played, and exceedingly mischievous. I'm going to impose a fine of $50 and costs of $13.50 on each of you." The alternative to paying the fine, he said, would be seven days in jail. At this point court was told that Diamond's actions also made him guilty of breach of probation.

Guy Fournier of Thornhill was fined $19 and costs for driving a car at 48 miles per hour in a 30 mile zone. The car was paced from Tenth Street into the business section of town by P.C. Davies. Alden Dymant was fined $24 and costs for exceeding the speed limit in a restricted zone. He was required to pay an additional $10 fee since the infraction occurred in a school area.

Harry Burnett of Stouffville was fined $4.00 and costs for operating a car without proper headlights and tail lights. P.C. Harry Heatherington said that the driver had since disposed of the vehicle.

Nearly 800 churches of all denominations are co-operating with the anti-discrimination commission in its efforts to acquaint Ontario residents with the Human Rights Code, Labor Minister Daley announced recently.

Mr. Daley said in a statement scores of municipalities have passed resolutions endorsing the code and publicity called on their citizens to apply its principles in their community life.

Evergreens Need Winter Protection

Evergreens are not really the "iron men" of the home grounds — they need winter protection, just like many other less-hardy plantings.

Look out for drying winter winds as one of the main causes of winter injury. When there is little snow cover and the ground is frozen, the roots can't take up the water they lose. Where the ground has been blown clear of snow, injury may occur.

Bright, sunny weather often leads to winter injury. The protective snow cover will melt rapidly and the ground will dry out or freeze hard at night.

Sometimes small branches on white cedars suddenly turn brown and die in the spring. This can be caused by small breaks in the twigs, followed by drying out. These breaks may be the result of persons forcing their way through a hedge. Sleet storms may also cause small breaks.

Ontario Department of Agriculture specialists offer these suggestions:

Soak the soil around plantings just before freeze-up. This will help prevent drying out of the foliage.

Mulch with peat moss or straw manure. This is valuable in areas where there is little snow to act as an insulator.

Use snow fencing for protection against wind and sun. Evergreen branches and discarded Christmas trees may also be used. Large trees may need a frame support and burlap for protection. Be sure to erect the framework before the ground freezes.

For the discussion of this and other subjects pertinent to our needs, the Special Events Committee of the Community Club has planned a panel discussion on education to be held in the schoolhouse on November 14th. It is open to every parent who takes the future of their children seriously. The panel has been carefully chosen to cover as many aspects of education (in its general sense) as is possible in one evening. Questions from members of the audience will be welcome and it is hoped that some of the problems facing us today can be thoroughly discussed at this time, giving parents a groundwork for decisions they will have to make. Plan to attend the Educational evening on Monday, Nov. 14th at 8 p.m. and watch next week for details of panel members and topics to be discussed.

Load Scattered on Street Trucker Is Fined $20

When part of a gravel load spilled onto the Stouffville Main Street recently, it attracted the attention of P.C. Dennis Davies. To add further insult to injury, a rock toppled out of the box and struck the front of the police cruiser while the officer attempted to stop the vehicle.

Ontario Chirigoni was fined $20 and costs for carrying an overload of 2,100 pounds. The case was one of four, filed by the Stouffville Police Department and aired before Magistrate N. P. Kelley in Buttonville Traffic Court on Friday.

Harry Burnett of Stouffville was fined $4.00 and costs for operating a car without proper headlights and tail lights. P.C. Harry Heatherington said that the driver had since disposed of the vehicle.

Newmarket and Sutton School Area Divided

The Minister of Education has approved a bylaw passed by York County dividing the Newmarket-Sutton High School area. As of Jan. 1st, Newmarket area will comprise Newmarket, East Gwillimbury Twp. and part of Whitechurch. Sutton school will take in Sutton, North Gwillimbury Twp. and part of Georgina.

Sutton will assume all debt charges on the Sutton school and Newmarket will take over all debentures on their own school.

New school boards will be appointed in December and both will be faced immediately with additions to each school.

Petition Against Industry

Eight residents of Untonville presented a signed petition to Markham Twp. council on Monday evening, asking that action be taken regarding the Raymond Pile Company.

The company is using equipment which makes so much noise that children could not be put on the verandah to sleep. The petition also stated that odors drifting into the residential area were offensive.

Reeve Clark stated that the area was industrial along the railway. However, he suggested that a tree line for a buffer might be established. The matter was referred to the Property Committee who will report back to council.

Apples Every Day, Served In Every Way

One of the best known and most popular among the many varieties of apples is the versatile McIntosh, which is good either raw or cooked. Apples are never better than in the fall, when they come fresh from the orchards, although we are indeed fortunate in having them available practically the year round.

For dessert use and eating out of hand, select firm, well shaped apples, to avoid over-ripeness and to increase eye appeal, suggests the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Apples with bruises or punctures need not be wasted, however, since they may be trimmed and used for cooking purposes.

Apple wedges are attractive served with nut bread or crackers and cheese. To prevent browning, dip the cut apple in lemon, orange or pineapple juice.

Small amounts of apples may be stored in the refrigerator. They will keep well and many people particularly enjoy a cold, juicy apple. Larger quantities of apples may safely be stored in a cool, damp, well ventilated place, though it is wise to sort them occasionally and remove for immediate use any which are becoming over-ripe.

A crisp, firm apple helps to keep teeth and gums in good condition and makes an excellent snack-time choice. Since one medium-sized apple furnishes approximately seventy-five calories, weight-watchers are wise to choose an apple for dessert.

Apples at mealtime go well with many main course dishes and in salads, muffins, griddle-cakes, cakes and cookies as well as desserts, not the least of which is apple pie.
