Doreen Murray of Canadian National Telegraphs displays a drawing transmitted over Canada's first public facsimile service. Known as Wirefax, the service has been opened initially between Toronto and Montreal and provides instant transmission of drawings, letters, sketches and documents. Wirefax is operated by Canadian National-Canadian Pacific Tele-Communications, who expect to extend it to other centres as demand for the service increases.

Dairy President Ex-Reeve Dies

John Drinkwater Sibbald, 69, of Jackson's Point, Lake Simcoe, a member of a pioneer family that settled in the Lake Simcoe area, died Thursday.

Mr. Sibbald, a dairyman, was a former reeve of Georgina Twp. A native of Regina, he was chairman of Sibbald Estates Limited, operators of the Briars Golf and Country Club, president of Briars Dairy Limited, and president of J. D. Sibbald Agencies Limited, fuel oil and gasoline distributors.

Rapidly increasing the world over is the number of people who don't know what to do with themselves.
