Youths Fined $30 On Liquor Charges

John Harold Stillwell, aged 21. of Eglinton Ave., Downsview. was fined $10 and costs, and his companion Lawrence M. Powell, aged 20, of Empress Ave., Willowdale, was fined $20 and costs in Newmarket Court last week. Charges were laid by Markham Township police on Nov. 26th. The two youths pleaded guilty to having possession of liquor in a place other than their residence. Constable John McCague of the Markham Township Police said he had seen Powell drinking from a bottle as he approached the car. He said the bottle was found under the front seat of the car on inspection. The two had been attending a dance at the Farmers Market at Thornhill .

RINGWOOD

We are holding the C.E. prayer meetings at the homes for the winter months, last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vague and this week at Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Grove's home.

Mrs. E. Brownsberger and Ri- 8 chard and Arlene Yakeley spent Saturday in Toronto.

This past week we had letters from Mrs. Earl Honsberger, Jos, Nigeria, Africa, and Mrs. Owen Witmer, Salem, Ohio. Both remarked how they enjoyed the local news in the Tribune. So, readers, please phone in your items to 5201.

Several of our local men have moved their fish huis to Lake Simcoe during the past week. A number from our community attended the funeral of Sgt.

Ernest F. Sherwood, with the Metropolitan Police Dept., at Newtonbrook United Church on Thursday. Mr. Sherwood died suddenly in his 34th year from a heart attack. His wife is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker who lived for many years in Gormley, but are now living in Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Byer of Stouffville visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Elias Elliott.

Baby Larry Wideman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wideman, had to return to Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, on Saturday night. His disease is a rare blood disease and Larry is again under observation.
