What did we ever do before advertising men got a hold or the English language? How did we know where to turn? What to buy? How to live "graciously" or with zest or be sociable? It must have been a hopelessly confusing world filled with lost souls buying and doing and living aimlessly. Now, however, with the help of Madison Ave. and all its branch offices there is no confusion whatsoever provided you don't think.

If you do, you're finished. On the way into Toronto there are many new developments springing up but one bears remember-Gate, A Prestige Development. The questiton is, do they gain the "prestige" by moving in-Miss Evelyn Reesor who is or must they have it in order to buy? How about this advertisement for socks, "Men who wear so-and-so socks marry the boss' daughter". If you dare to think about that one, you'll go crazy. How many daughters so-and-so socks already has a wife . . . Or the one that says "Why tell him it's make-uphe's convinced it's you! ### 17-YEAR-OLD GIRL CLAIMS ASSAULTED NEAR BOX GROVE

Markham Township Police are seeking the driver of a 1951-54 year old Scarboro girl near the hamlet of Box Grove on Friday

The girls told police that they accepted a ride on leaving their work at a super market. The man agreed to take them to a bus stop but instead, drove them into the country where the attack is reported to have occurred. They said that they screamed but no one responded. They said that they could not escape, since the incide handle of the car door was broken off. The driver then drove back to Scarboro and left the girls in a parking lot. They told their story to Metro Police and the case was later turned over to Sgt. Wm. Shearn and Sgt. Robert Hood of Markham. They were able to give the officers a good description of their assailant.
