Editor's Mail

for our parade, and to the Provincial Police, the Police Force of the Village of Pickering, and the Police Force of the Township for the excellent job done in controlling traffic; and to the Boy Scouts who assisted in parking cars.

Mr. Editor, many others deserve mention, as a great many people assist in a celebration of this magnitude, and if I have missed thanking them specifically, it is through an oversight on my part, and not lack of appreciation of their assistance.

To you, Mr. Editor, a very special word of thanks for the excellent advance publicity our celebrations received in your paper. This publicity was in a large measure responsible for the good crowds and general success of the celebration.

Yours truly,
J. Sherman Scott,
