GOODWOOD

(Mrs. H. Wagg)
 A picnic was held at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wagg, View Lake on Lake Scugog on Saturday, July 8, when forty-five descendants of Wm. Colman, Isaac and Nelson Wagg, attended from Midland, Napawan, London, Toronto, Oakwood, Oshawa, Mt. Albert, Uxbridge and Goodwood. After a bountiful supper was enjoyed, the business meeting was held and officers were reinstated for another year: Pres., Mr. Herb Wagg; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. H. Woodland; Sports, Mr. Ross Rodman, and lunch, Mrs. Yake. A pleasant time was enjoyed, and all were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wagg to return next year.
 The United Church Sunday School picnic is to be held at the "Maples" on Wednesday, July 26.
 On Thursday the W. A. met at the home of Mrs. Leslie Mitchell with twenty members present. A report was given of the Congregational meeting held in the Church on Tuesday last regarding the old Parsonage that has been sold to Ontario County to widen the corner for the highway. It was decided to build a new parsonage on a lot on the Tindall sub-division.
 The devotional topic was given by Mrs. Bacon of Stouffville: "What does our Church mean to our Community?" Yes, it should and does mean a great deal to everyone. The program was given by Mrs. Sheehy. A lovely lunch of ice-cream, strawberries and cake was served by Mrs. N. Wagg, and Mrs. Sheehy.
 A few from Goodwood are taking advantage of the swimming lessons given in Uxbridge this summer.
 Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cook and family are holidaying at North York Camp Ashunyoong for two weeks.
 In reporting the school promotions last week, the name of Linda Watson, promoted to Grade 6, was omitted.
 (Mrs. R. May)

 The Pugh Evans re-union met on Saturday at Greenwood Conservation Park.
 Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Forsythe motored to Sault Ste. Marie on the July 1st weekend. Bruce returned with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett for the summer.
 Mr. Larry Coates of Scarborough is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. John May. Mr. Campbell Stewart of Toronto is with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodland for the holidays. John Pilkey is spending his holiday with Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin.
 Sympathy is extended to Mrs. George Baldwin whose father, Mr. Elmer Ferguson passed away at the Uxbridge Hospital on Sunday.
 Sorry to learn that Keith James and Bruce Watson were both injured in a car collision at Ted Hall's corner on the 3rd on Sunday. It is hoped their injuries are not too extensive.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bert May, Lorna and Jim Rummie had Sunday supper with Mr. Percy Wright and his sister.
 Infinity: A kind of foreverness that begins when an after dinner speaker says, "and in conclusion."

Geo. Clemens Speaker at Holstein Meet

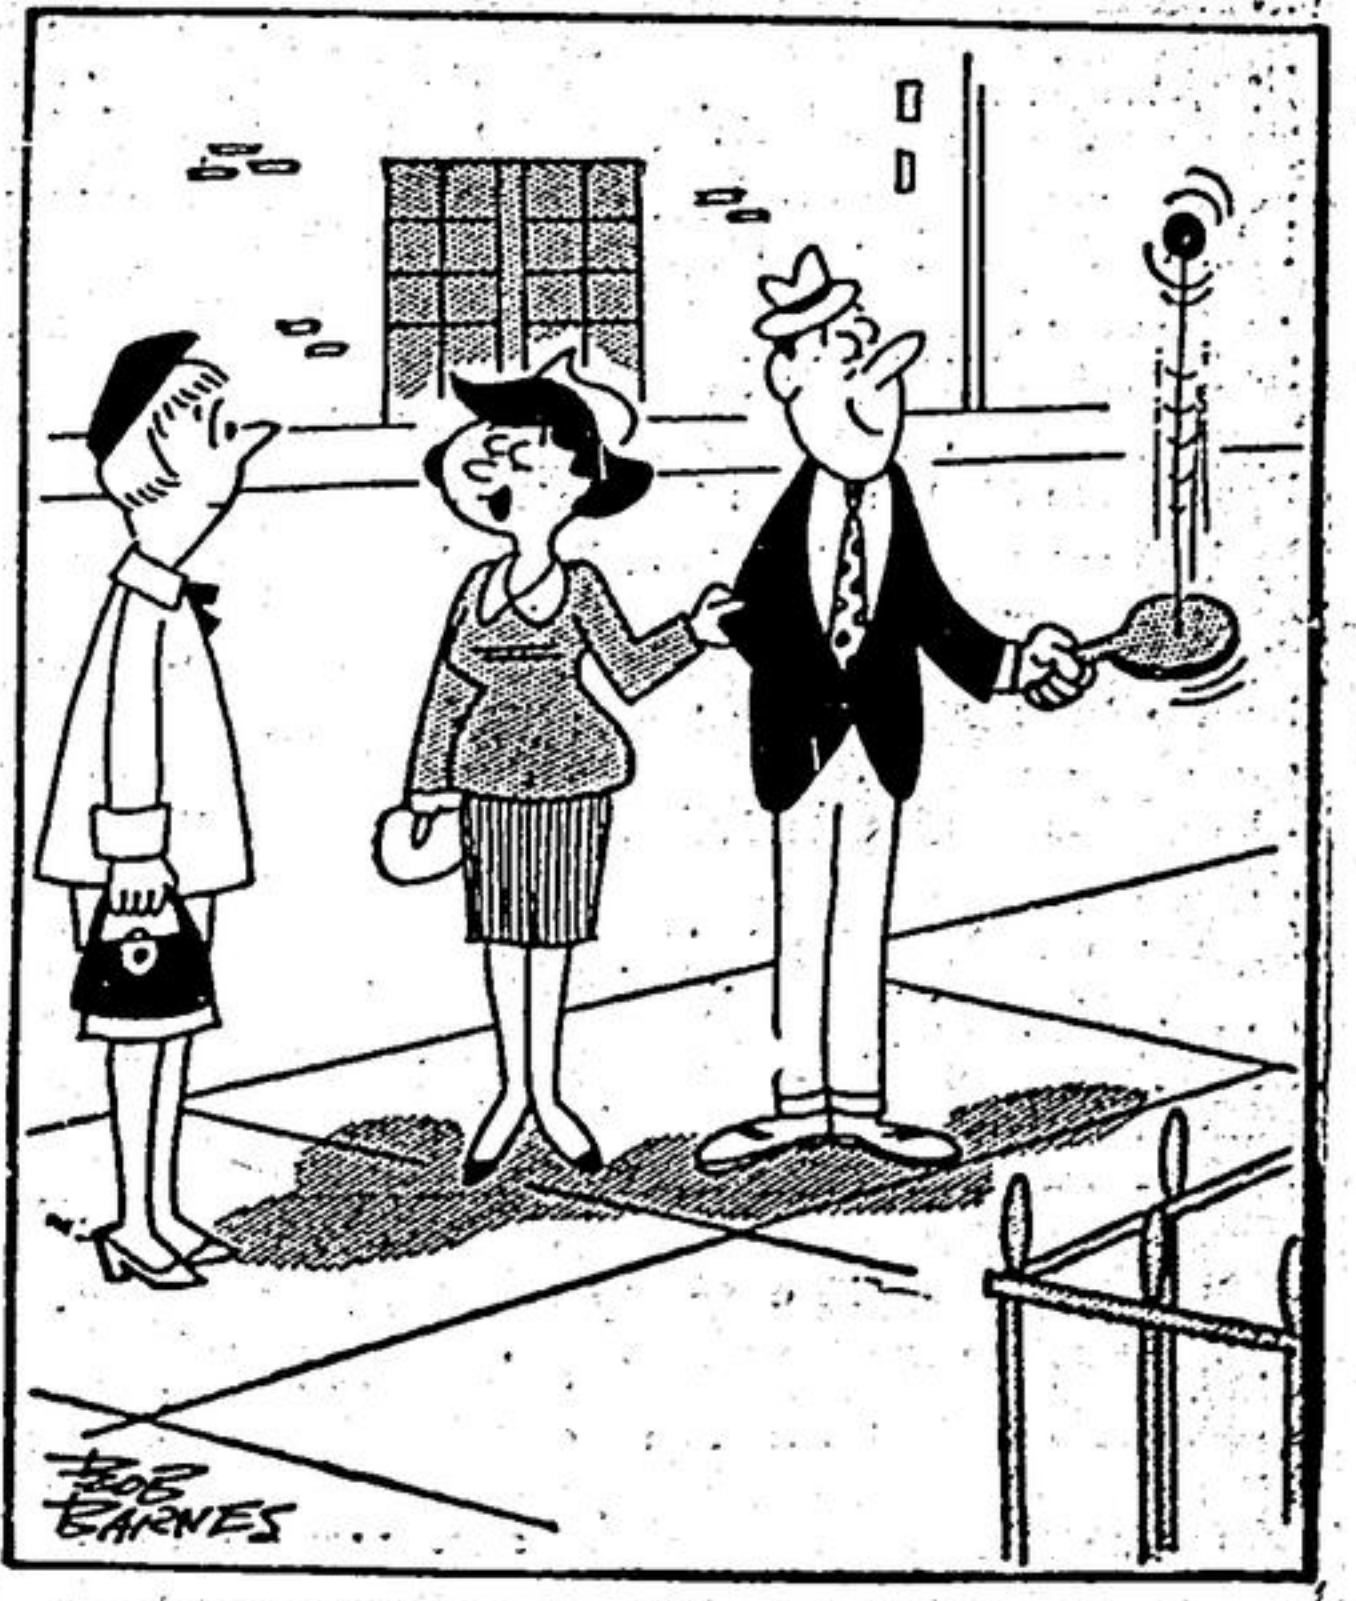

Mr. George Clemens, Secretary-Manager of the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada, was the guest speaker at the annual Ontario County Holstein Club Twilight Meeting, which was held on the farm of Mr. George McLaughlin, Beaverton, on Tuesday, June 27th.
 In his talk, Mr. Clemens gave a very fine description of his recent trip to Japan. He pointed out many of the differences that exist in farm life here and in that country. He also congratulated the Ontario County Holstein Breeders on their outstanding success at the local and major shows in the Province of Ontario.
 The evening programme began with the judging of two fine classes of Holstein cattle. Mr. G. Nelson, Holstein fieldman, was in charge of the judging competition. The official placings were made by a panel of three prominent Holstein Breeders in the area. Some 600 people took part in this part of the programme; there were over 90 Ontario County 4-H Club members taking part in the Junior Division of the competition.
 The various winners were: Junior Division—George Smith, Port Perry; Paul Harrison, Uxbridge; John Wilson, Claremont and John Forson, Claremont.
 Ladies' Division — Mrs. Ada Goodhand, Beaverton; Mrs. Marian Miller, Sunderland; Mrs. Betty Stone, Blackwater.
 Men's Div. — Mr. Hadden, Blackwater; Luther Luke, Uxbridge; William Stone, Blackwater.
 The Special Draw Prize, donated by Parks Drug Store, Beaverton, was won by Joanne Blake, Port Perry.
 The presentation of prizes to the winners was made by Mr. H. L. Fair, Agricultural Representative, assisted by Mr. Gerry Nelson.
