SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(Lesson for October 1)
HOW JESUS GREW
Deut. 6:1-9; Luke 2:39-52
GOLDEN TEXT — And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him. — Luke 2:40

THE LESSON AS A WHOLE
In the days of Moses, what divine provision was made for the religious education of children? Certainly there were no formal schools. How then were the boys and girls indoctrinated? The answer is supplied in the emphatic instruction of God through Moses to the parents. These parents were responsible to impart the cherished truths to their young people. They themselves were to receive and to obey God's commandments. They were to love their Lord with all their heart, putting

Him in the place of unchallenged supremacy. Then they were to instruct their children diligently in these things, talking of them constantly.

It is clear that religious training was not departmentalized. There was no artificial distinction between sacred and secular. Everything was sacred. Divine things were never to be secondary or incidental; they were primary and vital. Parents, therefore, were obligated to instill into their young ones the Word of Jehovah, and to protect their spiritual well-being as carefully as they would their physical health.

Our Lord was reared in this atmosphere in His Nazareth home.

The Heart of the Lesson
Our Lord was not only "made of a woman" but was also made "under the law" (Galatians 4:4).

at Baysville.

Mr. David Aitchison, who passed away in his eightieth year, at the Mount Albert Nursing Home, was laid to rest in the family plot in the local cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

Corn roasts, fall fairs and plowing matches are seasonal events. A Moyer reunion at the Warren Moyer home included Mr. Lloyd Moyer and Dorothy, Mr. Alex Logan and sons of Stouffville; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Raymer and the Don Moyer family of Toronto; the Roy Moyer families, also Mrs. Burn Preston, Doris and Ivan of Bethesda. The embers from the corn roast kept the group cozy while they viewed slides showing places and people of interest, taken by Clarence McDowell on his trip to Alberta.

A number of recent graduates of East General Hospital, with their colleague Miss Maude Graves, and their boy friends spent a joyous evening in the country. The corn roast at the Walker farm was followed by a hay ride conducted by Robert.

Later musical numbers, vocal and instrumental, filled the community with sounds of gaiety.

The Women's Missionary Societies, with Mrs. Alex Jones and Mrs. Mallett as Presidents, commenced activity after a recess during July and August. The combined devotional and work periods are greatly enjoyed by country women and provide assistance to the Menonite Central Committee, through which our groups function.

Youths Fined $40 On Liquor Charge

Two Stouffville youths and a Scarborough resident were fined a total of $40 and costs of $45 in Magistrate's Court, Newmarket this week on charges of having liquor in a place other than their residence. Glenn Pennanen and Eddie Bishop, both of Stouffville, were fined $15 each and costs of $18 apiece. They were stopped on conc. 9, north by P.C. Dennis Davies of the Stouffville Police Department.

John E. Brown of Scarborough was served with a bench warrant when he failed to appear in court on Monday on a similar charge. P.C. Davies found one bottle of whiskey on the front seat of his car parked in a Stouffville subdivision at 1:15 a.m. on Aug. 19th. Brown was fined $50 and costs of $19.

Autumn should be a welcome season in many homes. By that time June brides will have learned the elements of cooking.

The old home town is fortunate. Its downtown area was never developed to the point where it might go into decline and need redevelopment.

Very early Jesus would be taught the precepts of the Law. Joseph and Mary doubtless carried out the divinely required obligations that rested upon parents, instructing their child in the will and ways of Jehovah. This involved daily teaching in the knowledge of God. The Law would be recited, memorized, and explained. And their response to these holy demands was evidenced in their circumcision of the child, and their regular attendance at the Nazareth synagogue as well as at the annual feast in Jerusalem.

In our zeal for the maintaining of our Lord's deity we must not forget that He was also perfectly human. And yet His was a unique humanity in that He was completely sinless and holy. He was humanly perfect, possessing a perfect spirit, soul and body.

Each of these component parts of the Son of man developed completely, attaining full maturity at every stage. No sinful thought ever entered His holy mind; no unworthy word ever escaped His lips; no evil deed was ever committed by His hand. His will was at all times submissive to the Father's. And involved in that divine will was obedience to His earthly parents, and hence Jesus was subject to them for the whole period of those hidden years in Nazareth.
