Emerson, son of Mrs. Arthur Emerson and the late Mr. Emerson, in a double ring ceremony performed in Stouffville United Church amid a setting of white and peach-toned gladioli, by Rev. D. Davis, Sept. 23, 1961.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor length gown of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace. A coronet of lace and peau de soie with seed pearls held her elbow length tulle veil. She carried American beauty roses and wore the groom's gift, a strand of pearls.

The attendants wore street-length dresses of peau-de-soie with matching bow headdresses. The gowns were fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Marie Smith attended her sister as maid of honor in chocolate brown peau de soie. Bridesmaids June Emmerson and Patricia Smith wore apricot peau de soie and moss green peau de soie. They carried crescents of white and yellow mums.

The flower girl, Phyllis McGovern, niece of the bride, wore a gown of soft yellow and carried a basket of yellow and white mums. Best man was Leonard Emmerson, and ushers were Jim Smith and Lorne Emmerson.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Smith received her guests wearing a jacketed sheath gown of emerald green with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother wore a jacket ensemble of caress crepe in soft rose with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

For a motor trip north, the bride chose a willow green wool crepe suit with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenia. On their return they will live at Ringwood. Teas and showers held in honor of the bride were given by Mrs. Vincent, Miss Woodward, Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Jex and Miss H. Jex, Ringwood, and neighbours and friends.
