BUTTONVILLE HAPPENINGS

This Saturday afternoon, December 9, the Victoria Square and District Lions will hold a party for all the neighbourhood children at Buttonville W. I. Hall.

Friday, Dec. 8, at 8 p.m., the final game of the autumn Euchre series at the W. I. Hall.

Wednesday, Dec. 13 — Buttonville W. I. meets in the W.I. Hall, one week early. Please remember candy for Ont. Hospital patients.

Sunday, Dec. 17 — White Gift Service at Brown's Corners Church (combined with Sunday School.) Both Junior and Senior Choirs will sing.

7:30 p.m. The Candlelight Service for the Victoria Sq. charge will be held in Brown's Corners church this year.

Tuesday, Dec. 19 — Brown's Corners Church Christmas concert — songs, recitations and the Junior Choir.

Neighbourhood Notes — Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown and Kathy visited Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson and Larry at Orangeville, recently.

Margaret Patterson and Sharon Rumble were among Thornhill H. S. cheerleaders shown on T.V. last week when school events were featured.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkins were partying at the Boulevard Club on Friday evening.

Mr. Jack Gough and his daughter, Mrs. Ray Grant, sang a duet on Sunday morning at the United Church. Next Sunday the Junior Choir will sing.

Miss Della Stephenson and Mrs. Wm. McGimpsey have both been on the indisposed list, of date.

Fair Board Dinner — Buttonville W. I. members catered, Thursday evening, to the Markham and East York Agricultural Society at their annual banquet at the W. I. Hall.

Rev. Donald R. McKillop, B.A., B.D., Dean of Knox College and former Pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Markham who is well known in this neighbourhood, was the guest speaker.

Among local guests were — Reeve W. R. and Mrs. Dean, Mr.

and Mrs. Wm. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George Barker, Charles and Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bell; Mr. and Mrs. D. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Deacon, Ken Russell, Mrs. O. Brooke, Mrs. K. Stots and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hoshel.

School Parents' Club — Parents of Buttonville School children gathered at the school Wednesday evening to view the children's work and hold a club meeting. Principal Howard Atkinson introduced Mrs. Wilfred Turner who has joined the staff to replace Mrs. Helfenstein, now teaching Auxiliary work at S.S. No. 4. Past president Mrs. Bernard Venus gave a report of her visit to the School for Retarded Children. The men- and women of the Buttonville School Club will commence a craft program to create articles which will aid retarded children in learning simple procedures of ordinary life. Anyone interested in this project may contact Mr. Jack Stewart.

Two skating rinks will be made at Buttonville School this year — one for skating and one for hockey. The men of the parents' club will do the work and the school board has promised some financial assistance.

Bride-to-be Entertained — Miss Mary Arnold whose marriage to Leslie Rimmer took place in Woodgreen United Church on Saturday, Dec. 2, was entertained before her wedding. Mrs. Arnold Taylor, Sandringham Drive, gave a Kitchen Shower and miscellaneous showers were given by Mrs. B. Routisse, Mrs. John Anderson, a group from Woodgreen United Church and a group at Brown's Corners United Church.

Among guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. Jagers, Athens, Ohio; Mrs. Geo. Ramsey, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Russell Scott, Port Colborne; Mrs. W. Abbott, Lindsay, and others from Whitby, Pickering, Acton, and Toronto.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Mrs. W. Sandie

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. G. Campbell in the passing of her brother, Mr. Lepper. Mrs. Campbell is Mrs. Jack Rummy's mother, who is now making her home with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack

CEDAR GROVE

Christmas is a giving time and Cedar Grove is a giving community. On Dec. 17th, Zion church will have the annual White Gift Service at 7:30 p.m. and food and clothing will be sent to Victor Home while cash donations will go, as usual, to western missions. Dr. W. Hunsinger of the Fred Victor Mission will be the speaker on this occasion.

The Mother's Club are planning their Christmas meeting for December 14th. Please note this is one week earlier than usual in order to avoid the Christmas rush of activities. Members are asked to bring a wrapped gift for a mental patient and a real Christmas programme is planned.

The Mitten Tree which has become a traditional part of our Christmas giving in this village, will again be in the church this year. The Mother's Club plan to have it up about two weeks before Christmas and it will take mittens for children of all ages and sizes.

A black and white cat and a partly grown kitten have taken refuge under Blodwen Davies' hedge.

Sulletin — This should bring the final outcome of the case of Hilliard Beare and the Ontario Municipal Board but, unfortunately, it does not. The final judgement will come written from Alex Arrell later. The hearing on Monday was before over one hundred farmers, which should convince the powers that be that farmers
