Neighbourhood Notes—
On Thursday evening, following the Maw-Barton wedding rehearsal, Miss Donna Wakelin and her parents entertained at their Toronto home for members of the wedding party.

Death of Mrs. J. Fisher—
Friends in the neighbourhood were saddened on Thursday to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Joe Fisher, whose home is on the fifth concession of Markham, north of No. 7 Highway. Mrs. Fisher, the former Maude Burton, was making good progress following surgery at the Scarborough General Hospital when she was stricken. She is survived by her husband and several brothers and sisters. The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at the Pipher Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, with interment at Thornhill cemetery. Rev. Dr. A. F. Binnington officiated.

Mrs. Fisher attended Brown's Corners United Church and was active in W.M.S. and Harmony Club work.

There are several bereaved homes in the community this Christmas. The Alan D. Martin family attended the funeral of Mr. Martin's father, John Alfred Martin of Toronto on Thursday afternoon, and Mrs. Darling, who lived in the small cottage opposite Buttonville School, situated on the farm owned by her daughter, Mrs. Snowball, died suddenly early this month.

Mr. Frank MacPherney, who has been a member of the H. R. Paterson household for many years, was taken to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital early last week. Mr. George Arnold-Senior is another community member who will spend Christmas in Hospital.

This has been a week of family reunions for most people in the community. Mr. and Mrs. John Brown held a Christmas party for members of their family, with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood and other relatives present. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Digma, Cedar Grove on Sunday evening, and on Monday entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henry of Toronto, and others.

Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson there was a lively time with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson and Larry of Orangeville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stephenson and their children enjoying a Christmas dinner. On Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milner of Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Paterson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boudway at their family party on Monday, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller entertained at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waterson with grandchildren, nieces and nephews also present.

The Rodick family Christmas was celebrated at the farm on Tuesday of this week with Rev. and Mrs. Morrison Sellar of Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodick and Mrs. Wm. Rodick and Grace. Duties with the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force kept John busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Jones and their family held a family party at their home on Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. James McQuay, Don and Otto McQuay as guests; and at the S. R. Patterson home Mr. and Mrs. Harold Steffler, Gall, John and Paul were entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Crisp held Christmas dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crisp of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Hart Rowlands of Ajax and eight grandchildren; and Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Boyington were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Kelly Jr., Newmarket.

At the Storeys' the family celebrated Jack's birthday at noon on Christmas, with Mr. and Mrs. Stinchcombe as guests, and later the party moved on to Richmond Hill where they were entertained by relatives.

Mrs. Fred Leal and Lynda were members of a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Harding, Leaside, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper had their family around them — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robb, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brumwell, Mr. and Mrs. Teague, Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper and their grandchildren. For Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, one of the nicest Christmas gifts was the fact that their son Frank was able to be home after a long stay in hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown and Kathy were guests of Mr. Brown's sister and her family Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Renshaw of Toronto, and Alan spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. F. Maw and Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson were entertained at their son's home, Mr. and Mrs. Rae Donaldson, John and Mary Lynn, and Mr. and Mrs. George Oakes and Bob opened their Christmas parcels with Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Snider and Kathy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robinson, Thornhill, and Mr. and Mrs. Burr, Beverly and Sandra.

Mr. Newton Burr and Mrs. Cline Burr were at the Markham home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen.

There was a party of twenty at the Walter Brumwell home with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Denby and their family and Mrs. Edna Denby present.

Members of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark's family visited parents-in-law early in the day, but gathered at the Clark home for the evening, as did the members of the Hood family when Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hood, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hood and the children of the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Brumwell.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Binnington flew to New York on Christmas Eve to spend the holiday season with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hewitt and their two small sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Worsnop returned late this week from a flying visit to Pittsburgh, California, where they visited their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Malone at Christmas time. It was also their first opportunity to become acquainted with their new granddaughter, 9-month-old Dale, Malone.

Alan Binnington has joined the staff of the Crown Life until he can resume his law course.

There was a capacity audience when Brown's Corners Sunday School children and their parents met to greet Santa Claus. There were carols, led by Mrs. S. J. English and Mrs. George Hooper, to begin. Later the Jur for Choir delighted everyone with Christmas songs. MC Harold Wright called on several ones for recitations, and songs but only Kathy Brown was brave enough to perform, until Chris Hood decided he'd sing "Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer." He was joined by Brian Wilson, Kathy Stewart and Gerry Copp, all under the guidance of Gregg Hood, and the chorus was a rousing success.

There was a piano solo by six-year-old Melanie Watt, and Debbie Hood recited; then Allan Gall and Kenny Jones sang "Merry Christmas to You," while their mother, Mrs. Clayton Jones, accompanied on the piano. Later the Jones children joined in when their mother sang. The Nursery children presented a pageant, "Away in a Manger," assisted by leaders Mrs. Syl Savage, Mrs. Egan and Mrs. Silver, and a second pageant was presented by the older Sunday School children with Mrs. Willfred Turner and Mrs. Steffler directing.

Garnet Stewart and Charlie Turner looked after staging, assisted by Gordon Brown, Tom Arnold and Danny Wood.
