Capacity Congregation Hears Noted Singer

Good home training is the most essential part of a boy's life, stated Reeve Timbers at the Father and Son night held in the Markham U.M. Church. He went on to remind the group of 100 that the future depends on the boy's of today. It was an interesting note that Reeve Timbers was one of the first students of the Mongolia Sunday School, Councillor Charles Hoover mentioned that he had no boy's of his own but he was proud to have brought along two for the father and son dinner. Mr. Hoover advised the boys that we will see the importance of how we live later on in life; a poor record is often a hindrance to employment.

Mr. Morry Worobyt, of the Christian Service Brigade, outlined the work of this organization, illustrating the program by coloured slides and a Bible message.

The first of five teacher training classes was held on Tuesday evening. Mrs. S. Wideman gave an excellent lecture on "Sunday School Procedures". Mr. Carl Grove, principal of the Ballantrae Public School will give a lecture on "methods". The Markham U.M. Church was packed to capacity, last Sunday evening, to hear the noted song writer and Gospel singer, Mr. Stuart Hamblen. Due to weather conditions Mr. Hamblen was almost one hour late for the service. The pastor, Rev. A. Rees, led the congregation in the singing of the great gospel hymns and preached a second sermon, in the present series, on the Golden Text of the Bible.
