Let's Look At Teen Town

The music of the Blue Bops was enjoyed by all at the last Teen Town, held January 27 at Stouffville High School. The Twist Time, a special feature of the dance, attracted many enthusiastic twisters. This was held previous to the live entertainment.

Teen Town will not be held this Saturday night, February 10, because of the High School Valentine Dance. Instead, Teen Town will return to the Masonic Hall for the 24th of February. Hit Parade music will be featured at this dance.

We hope many more will come out and support the Teen Town dances. They promise fun for everyone.
