Uxbridge Netminder Stops 41 "Clipper" Shots

First-string netminder, Neil Wannamaker was back between the pipes in the Uxbridge cage on Friday night and his exhibition of puck-stopping skills enabled his team to grab the series lead over the Stouffville Clippers in the current group hockey finals. Uxbridge posted a hard-fought 5-3 victory before 365 fans.

Stouffville forwards "poured" the pucks at the Uxbridge netminder, but he would yield only two drives by Barry Gaston, Grant Foreman and Barry McLean. Garry Geer, Mike Gray, Garry Jackson, Jack Redshaw and Bill Clarke were the Uxbridge marksmen.

Stouffville's shots were many but they lacked the velocity packed by many Uxbridge sharpshooters. Glenn Jackson blocked 27. Wannamaker stopped 41. Jack Redshaw actually fired the "clincher". It came at the two minute mark of the final frame at a time when it appeared possible that Stouffville might rally and tie the score. Garry Geer made it 5-2 before Barry McLean split the Uxbridge defenses for the "Clippers" final effort.

Stouffville pulled out all the stops in the last minutes of play when two Uxbridge players, Keith Stewart and Garry Jackson were whisked off to the cooler. With Glenn Jackson on the sidelines in favour of a 6th attacker, the Clippers swarmed around the Uxbridge end zone but couldn't hit the target. Mike Gray continued to pose as Uxbridge's most potent scoring threat. The free-wheeling forward was held to one tally but assisted on Geer's goal. Barry McLean was best for Stouffville.

Plan New Entry

Dickson's Hill plans to file a football entry in the Claremont Community League this summer. It is possible that some of the games may be played under the lights in the Stouffville park. In previous years, they have been played either at Claremont or Brougham. If all of last season's clubs return and with the addition of Dickson's Hill, the group would return to an 8-team league. Other entries are likely from Altona, Claremont, Greenwood, Brougham, Ballantrae and Pickering. An organization meeting will be held early in the Spring.

GAME CANCELLED

There will be no O.R.E.A. playoff game in the Brooklin Arena on Thursday night as previously advertised. The second game of a series between Greenwood-Mt. Zion and Sunderland was played in the Uxbridge Arena on Wednesday night. In the series opener on Tuesday, played at Cannington, Sunderland chalked up a 7-4 victory. The Greenwood-Mt. Zion entry performed minus the services of Neil Pascoe and Grant Jones.

UXBRIDGE WINS

Uxbridge Bantams have swept their first round in the OMHA playoffs, beating Alliston in two straight games, 7-1 and 8-1.

High School News

A word of congratulation to the G.A.A. on their very successful athletic night. The Junior Girls basketball squad had to come from behind to tie the Midget Boys at 17 all in the opener. The Senior Girls lost a close decision to the Junior boys who clowned around in globe-trotter fashion. The highlight of the evening was an excellent display by five of Canada's best Junior trampolinists. Two hours of dancing, featuring the bone-jolting "Twist" brought the evening to a close.

Woodbridge Wins
Woodbridge captured the Senior Girls' title by edging Stouffville 3-21. Betty Ann Slack led the locals with 10 points while Marion Byer netted 9. The Juniors defeated Woodbridge by a healthy margin to complete their season.

The boys concluded their action on the basketball courts last week. The Juniors ended up with 8 wins and 4 losses while the Seniors boasted a 7 and 4 record to grab second place in their league.

Jim Hill led the scorers with 167 points during the season while John Smithson was close behind with 166. Both of these highpoint men played one or more games in both Jr. and Sr. groups. The next half dozen highest were Brian Wilkes—133, Mike Paul 116, Eric Button 78, Jim Miller 54, Warren Hendricks 53 and Robert Mole 47.

Easter Exams
With Easter Exams starting March 15, all students are hitting the books extra hard in the last remaining week. Many senior students are taking time out to write the annual Mathematics Contest. Each year Stouffville High's rank has risen in the contest written by several thousand, and a good result is expected this year.

PEEWEE TEAM STILL IN OMHA PLAYOFFS

The Stouffville Peeewe team is the lone entry still active in OMHA playoff competition. On Tuesday night, they defeated Unionville 6-4 on Unionville ice to earn the right to advance into the Central Ontario Finals. They will journey to Parry Sound on Saturday, March 10th and play back in Stouffville on Monday, March 19th.

Peter Turner and Jody Holden were top goal-getters in Tuesday's tilt, each with two. Jimmy Wilkins and Bruce Mehaffey counted singles.

The winner of the Stouffville-Parry Sound round will advance into the All-Ontario Championship finals. This opposition will likely come from the east. The current series is two games, goals to count. The Management is anxious that as large a contingent of fans as possible should accompany the team to Parry Sound on Saturday for this all-important first contest.

Midgets Out
After taking the first game, Stouffville Midgets bowed out of further playoff competition when Unionville came back to win two in a row. They scored a close 3-2 victory on Stouffville ice, Monday night. Stouffville trailed 2-0 at one point in the game until Eric Neilson and Bill Payne tied it up. Unionville notched the winner in the late minutes of the third period.

Bell Telephone Discriminates Against Lower Markham Twp. March 6, 1962

The Editor, Stouffville Tribune, Dear Sir,
It seems, as in most things, one must move away from home and read someone else's newspapers, to appreciate the paper one grew up with.
I have yet to read, in my own limited travels, a newspaper having a more honest and forthright approach in editorial comment, and keeping a close coverage of local news which a small town weekly must do.

I particularly enjoy and appreciate Mr. Patrick's very straightforward approach to selling his product in your newspaper through his column. Automobiles are a product through which the public has been subjected to the most violent and misleading methods of hard-sell merchandising.
Congratulations to a very fine newspaper.

Uxbridge Takes Strangle-Hold On Junior Title; Wins In Final Seconds

Mike Gray, a fleet-footed Uxbridge leftwinger, will never win any medals for his prowess as a back-checker, but park the puck on his stick at centre ice and he's goal-bound with all the drive of a junior "Rocket" Richard. He proved this one week ago when he sank the overtime winner. He turned the trick again on Tuesday night with fifteen seconds left in regulation time. Uxbridge took a stranglehold grip on the Junior "D" group title with a thrill-packed 5-4 victory. Stouffville will be fighting to stave off elimination when the two teams hook up in the fifth game on Uxbridge ice, Friday night. A "Clipper" win would extend the series to a sixth contest on home grounds next Tuesday.

Uphill Battle

For Stouffville, the game could have been hopelessly lost in the first period. Thanks to a sizzling drive by Allan Boyd that caught the top corner of the Uxbridge cage, the local squad trailed the visitors by only 2-1 at the end of the opening twenty minutes. Gray and Gary Geer were the Uxbridge marksmen. Disorganized play continued to plague the "Clippers" throughout the second frame and they were two goals behind as the teams headed into the final period. Jack Raymond made it 4-3 and Allan Boyd, playing his best game of the current playoff series, evened the count at 17:15. As 265 fans settled back to await the excitement, Gray teamed up with his pivot playmaker, Gary Jackson to fire the winner. Grant Foreman was the other Stouffville goal-getter, his second in two games.

Worthy Winners

On the night's play, Uxbridge were the better club. Stouffville appeared to come on much stronger in the third period and could possibly have won the contest if it had gone into overtime. The "Clippers" were in trouble at both ends of the rink. The defence had difficulty in clearing the puck out of their own zone and the forwards failed to take advantage of their many scoring opportunities. Uxbridge out-shot Stouffville, 24-20. Uxbridge passing plays were working well, especially the trio of Gray, Geer and Jackson. Their rearguards gave netminder, Neil Wannamaker strong support. The Clipper defence, on the other hand was "caught with its pants down" on a number of occasions. On Gary Geer's second goal, there wasn't a Stouffville man within fifteen feet of the rightwinger when he slapped Gray's goalmouth pass into the twine. It wasn't until ten minutes had gone by that Stouffville tested Wannamaker with a single shot. Stan Feasby bounced one off his pads from the blueline.

Favor Uxbridge Ice

In this series, Stouffville has played its best games on Uxbridge ice. Their only victory was a 6-5 win in the opener. Last Friday, they performed well enough to take most contests and only some great goaltending spoiled their effort. Situated solidly behind the 8-ball, the boys are still confident that they can extend the series to a return tilt back in Stouffville on Tuesday. Uxbridge lads are just as confident that they can wrap it up this week. Game time, Friday, is 8:30 p.m.

Eye On Two Goals

A teen-age mixed curling league that operates at the Rolling Hills rink every Sunday morning, may have to cancel its playoff plans, due to approaching Easter examinations. Seventeen year old Carol-Ann Casey, pictured here, is an enthusiastic player, but like her companions, will not permit the sport to interfere with her academic progress. The league is not connected with, or promoted in any way, by the High School.
