WEDDING

HARWOOD—HISEY

On Friday, April 20, 1962, Second Markham Baptist Church, simply decorated with Easter lilies, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Mary Joan Harwood and Paul Thomas Hisey, exchanged marriage vows. Rev. Bruce Hisey, father of the groom, performed the ceremony.

The bride, given away by her father, Frederick William Harwood, was radiant in her white chantilly lace dress with its bouffant floor-length skirt; its softly rounded neckline accented with pearls and sequins and long sleeves tapering to a point over each hand. Her fingertip veil flowed from a crystal studded crown. Beside her bouquet of red carnations and white hyacinths she carried a New Testament which had belonged to the groom's late grandfather.

Mrs. Robt. Stover, matron of honour for her sister; Mary Lou Ratcliff and Patricia Ann Harwood, bridesmaids, were gowned alike in blue pure silk jacquard sheath dresses with matching jackets. Their tiny hats complimented the suit dresses, with gloves and shoes contrasting in white. Red carnation and white hyacinth bouquets completed the outfit.

The soloist, Mrs. Keith Hutchinson, during the ceremony sang "The King of Love my Shepherd is" and "O Perfect Love," and her sister, Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff was the organist.

The bride's mother dressed in navy blue lace with white accessories, and the groom's mother in a candy-beige sheath with matching striped jacket and beige accessories received the guests at the reception held in the Parkside Christian Youth Centre.

David Hisey was best man for his brother and Robert Stover and John Hisey were ushers.

Guests at the wedding came from Streetsville, Tillsonburg, Barrie, Eden, Toronto and Stouffville area.

The happy couple will reside in Stouffville on their return from a trip through the U.S.A.

W.M.S. Thank-Offering

The Auxiliary of St. James Presbyterian W.M.S. held their Easter Thank Offering meeting in the church on Wednesday, April 11, at 2:30 p.m.

The special speaker was Miss Hazel MacDonald, recently returned missionary from Formosa, who reviewed some of the work being done there among the Koreans. An hour of colored slides brought into sharp contrast the comparison of our way of living. The great physical and spiritual needs of those underprivileged people are evident. Miss MacDonald said, "Education is not enough." A handmade, richly embroidered, black-satin dress given to her by the women among whom she worked, was one of the interesting items displayed.

Mrs. K. C. Thomas of Markham sang a beautiful solo that was especially enjoyed and appreciated. Fellowship with visitors from Markham and other local churches followed the meeting, at which time the oldest member, Mrs. A. Battisby, assisted by Mrs. E. Ferguson, poured tea at a table decorated with a bouquet of spring flowers.

Mr. John Assinck left by jet on Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Assinck of 178 Beltrum Gld., Holland. On May 16th, the Assincks will be celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary. Anton Assinck of Markham will leave on May 3rd also to attend the celebration. They will both return later in May.
