BUTTONVILLE HAPPENINGS

(May 3)
Neighbourhood Notes—
Mrs. A. Shenfield and Mrs. John Wilkins have both been in hospital recently, but are now home. We wish them a rapid return to health.
Another neighbour, Mr. John Brown was taken to Scarborough Hospital last week suffering from a heart ailment. His doctor has ordered a month's rest.
George and Joan Hooper and their sons attended a party for Joan's grandfather, Mr. Joseph Monkman, who celebrated his 90th birthday last weekend. Joan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bourne of Richmond Hill entertained at a family gathering in his honour. Mr. Monkman farmed for many years in the Richmond Hill area.

Mrs. Dick Jones and Mrs. McNeish left Monday of this week for a few days in Buffalo, N.Y. Last weekend other Easter vacationers returned: Miss Beverley Burr, from Nassau; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid from Washington and Detroit, and Mrs. F. H. Leaf from Virginia Beach, Washington and the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. Joseph Fisher's sale, Saturday of last week, was quite successful, according to reports. The Fisher home on the 5th concession, north of No. 7 Hwy., has been sold to an Estonian couple, and Mr. Fisher is living with his son at Lemonville. Congratulations to Jim and Rosemary Miller, whose six little boys now have a sister, Mary Rose, born on Good Friday, April 20. Of their 10 grandchildren, this is the 2nd grand-daughter for Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller.

On Easter Sunday the lilies at Brown's Corners church altar were the gift of Mr. George Arnold Sr. Later the 14 plants were distributed among sick members and shut-ins.

Escapes Injury
Kenneth Hooper escaped injury, but his small brother-in-law, Kenneth Vollett spent two days in hospital with concussion and his new Pontiac was damaged beyond repair, when he was in collision with a second vehicle at the corner of Steele's Avenue and Don Mills Road, on Thursday.
Cars parked beside a police station would be the last anyone would expect to find robbed, but it did happen Friday evening. The W. I. held a benefit for the Canadian Cancer Society that night at Buttonville W. I. Hall and party-goers parked their cars on the tarmac beside Markham Township Municipal offices, where the Police offices are housed.

During the evening, one of the women working in the kitchen noticed a station wagon disabled on the road and saw men working on it. Later, it was discovered that two cars belonging to Mr. George Black, R. R. 1, Markham, and Mr. Jas. Rodick, R. R. 2, Gormley, both attending the church party, had been robbed. Mr. Black's car had been broken into, the back seat removed and tools taken; while the Rodick car was jacked up and a front wheel was missing. The culprits are still at large.

120th Anniversary —

It was a joyful day for the small church on No. 7 Highway, just west of Don Mills Road, on Sunday, May 6, when Brown's Corners United congregation celebrated their 120th anniversary. Numbered among the oldest in York County, this congregation began as a small Presbyterian group before the days of the Mackenzie Rebellion. Today, the enrollment is in excess of 200 members, and is growing steadily.
Rev. Kenneth Bagnell, B.A., B.D., assistant editor of The United Church Observer was guest speaker in the morning, with Rev. Dr. A. F. Binnington conducting the service, and the choir supplying the music. Two anthems were sung: "O God Our Help in Ages Past," with Mrs. Clayton Jones singing the soprano solo, and "Send Out Thy Light," with Mrs. S. J. English directing and Mrs. Donald Reesor at the organ. Mr. Jack Gough and his daughter, Mrs. Ray Grant, sang a duet.

In the evening Rev. Hugh MacDonald of Thornhill, and the choir from Thornhill United Church, under the direction of Mr. H. Martin, were guests. Both services were well attended, and many friends and former members were present. Following the evening service, special guests and friends of the congregation were entertained in the Christian Education room with members of the choir as hosts.

Hair Styling Display —
Buttonville W. I. will sponsor a hair styling demonstration at Buttonville W. I. Hall on Wednesday afternoon May 16, and invite the women of the neighbourhood to attend. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. Jean Cook and Miss Mary Rodick.

Falls from Horse —
Patricia Patterson suffered a painful foot injury on Saturday when she was thrown from her horse. She is wearing a heavy cast this week, but whether a bone was broken or a ligament torn was not clear.
