AUDLEY
Mrs. Fred Fickria
The Rev. K. Heron of Pickering Presbyterian Church was the guest speaker at the Sunday School Anniversary Service on Sunday afternoon. A children's choir of 30 voices sang two numbers, with Mrs. Arch Bell at the organ. Joyce Smith and Joy Astley received the offering.
Beginning this Sunday, and continuing throughout the summer, church services will be at 9:45 a.m. with Sunday School following at 10:45. Mr. Philip Simpson will be in charge of the church service this Sunday, June 3.
The C.G.I.T. is sponsoring a ladies and girls banquet at the church this Friday evening June 1 at 6 o'clock.
The community club will meet at the home of Mr. and

Neighbourhood Notes—
Barry and Carol McWhirter are the proud parents of a 7 lb. 7 oz. baby girl born May 24 on her father's birthday at Branson Hospital. Colleen Elizabeth is the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, Hughson Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. McWhirter, Gormley.
The Russell family is in a whirl these days, what with a new baby and Sandra's wedding in the offing. On Saturday, June 9, Sandra will be married to Freddy Brown, of Unionville. In the Brown's Corners United Church, and her grandparents will arrive from Nova Scotia, June 5. On June 4 Mr. Russell's brother and his family are coming from the west to attend the wedding; and on June 11 Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sr. will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

Reesor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reesor.
Next Sunday at Brown's Corners Church there will be the annual Decoration and Memorial Service, and old friends are invited to attend.
More Brown's Corners United Church News: Margaret Patterson led the meeting Sunday evening when the Y.P.U. met at Victoria Square Church. The Christian Education Committees of the charge met last week, and it was agreed to form two C.G.I.T. groups for teenage girls next September. One will meet in Brown's Corners Church and the other at Victoria Square. Last year two Explorer groups were formed. A shortage of Sunday School teachers is also a problem, and the committees will pay particular attention to finding youth group leadership.

Isabel Hood, Sgt. Bob Hood also Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller Local Girls Escape Injury
Three local girls were involved Friday afternoon when a portion of the GEM Store roof caved in, but none were injured. Margaret Patterson, Janet Craig and Sandra Burr were in the store at the time. The girls offered their services as St. John ambulance helpers.
DURANT—PALMER
A wedding day, a Lake Pacific honeymoon and graduation at Queen's University, made this month a memorable one for a happy couple married in the Brown's Corners Church.
The bride, Donna Mae Palmer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Palmer, Langstaff, and the groom is David Geo. Durant, son of Mrs. Levis Durant and the late Mr. Durant of Markham.

day, the services were held in the Mennonite Church.

Last Sunday was a busy day at the A. W. Miller farm home, where a family re-union took place. More than 75 members of the Miller clan gathered — some from as far away as Saskatchewan and B. C.
Local people were interested in political activities last week — at King, where John Addison held a reception for Hon. Lester B. Pearson, some of those attending were Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Kelly, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fuller, Mr. Jack Rodick and Miss Mary Rodick, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Walton. At the Don Mills reception for the Prime Minister and his wife, Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Wilfred Dean poured at the coffee table, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay (Rena Miller) were in the reception line. Mr. and Mrs. Adam Brown and Mr. Charles Hooper were among those present, also Reeve W. R. Dean.
Dr. George Kelly, Jr., of Newmarket injured his right arm in a fall, last Saturday, which will interrupt his dental practice for some time, unfortunately.

On Friday night, the men of the church are asked to gather for a clean-up of the cemetery. This Wednesday will be the first Father and Son Banquet of the Sigma C and Tyro groups. First Graduation
Saturday the Brown's Corners Messengers met for their first graduation service. Linda Jones and Irene Craigie were welcomed to the Explorer class. Frazer McTavish, Tyro leader welcomed Paul Steffler, Paul Craigie and Danny Tooley to Tyro. Miss Evelyn Turner who is on vacation from the mission hospital at Hazelton, B.C. gave pictures of the work there. It was the final meeting until September.
Miss Ezzard Honoured
Former students of Miss Ezzard, teacher at Richmond Hill High School met Saturday to honour her after 32 years as an English teacher. Among the local folks attending were, Mrs. John Brumwell, Mrs. Don Reesor, Mrs. George Hooper, Miss Arrangements of pink and of white spring flowers made the setting for the ceremony at which Rev. A. F. Binnington officiated. Mrs. D. Reesor played the wedding music and the soloist was Mrs. Harold Dixon of Oakville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white parchment peau de sole. The fitted bodice featured a dropped waist-line and the pleats of the skirt fell in a chapel train. She carried white carnations, rosebuds and stephanotis.
The matron-of-honour was Mrs. Edward Baker of Toronto and the bridesmaids were the Misses Jill Walker, Markham, and June Hetherington, Richmond Hill. Norman Maynard of Toronto was best man. The ushers were Gerald Rose and Bruce Palmer.
A reception was held at the Summitview Gardens where the guests were received by Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Durant.
For travelling the bride chose an apple green wool suit with matching straw hat, black purse and shoes and a white corsage. They will make their home in Don Mills.

There will be a Vacation Church School Workshop at Wesley-Vandorf United Church on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week, June 4 and 5. Miss Sylvia South, with the assistance of several local people, will conduct the leadership programme and all V.C.S. workers are urged to attend these valuable sessions.
Buttonville W. I. members catered on Friday evening at Buttonville W. I. Community Hall (when a bowling group from Victoria Square and Richmond Hill held their closing banquet. At the dance which followed, Councillor Allan Sumner was the caller.
Friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. John Brown is at home again, after spending a month in Scarborough Hospital due to a heart ailment.
Art Storey returned home recently after completing his first year at Mount Allison University where he is taking Theology. Last Sunday he conducted the service at Victoria Square church.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Neal Henry Clark Brumwell (Darlene Fay Kennedy, of Unionville) who were married quietly at the manse, Victoria Square, with Dr. A. F. Binnington officiating, on Saturday evening, May 19.
At a recent baptismal service conducted in Brown's Corners United Church, children christened were Brian Edward Stiver and David Wayne Stiver, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stiver; Suzanne Marie Parton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parton, Hughson Dr., and Gerald Winford
