

Four Candidates Contest N. York Riding

Their History and Views on Major Election Issues

C. A. Cathers

Conservative

"Tiny" Cathers was raised on a farm in East York. He attended Jarvis Collegiate and the University of Toronto and since 1936 has farmed 450 acres in King Township. He has a family of four, two sons and two daughters.

He was first president of York Simcoe Guernsey Breeders' Association and first chairman of King Township Federation of Agriculture.

In 1926 he entered the financial business with a Toronto company and later formed the Brawley, Cathers & Co. In 1942 he became financial director of Central Aircraft at London and subsequently director of other companies and of farm, hospital and community organizations.

One of his companies, Standard Prestressed Structures Ltd., at Maple, now employs more than 100 men.

In 1952 Mr. Cathers was a Canadian delegate to the Inter-American Conference of Commerce and Production at Lima, Peru.

In the House of Commons he has been chairman of the Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce for the past five years and also served on five other committees.

C. A. (Tiny) Cathers, P.C. says, "The real issue in this election is our PC record of achievement in many fields, but it is important for this riding to have an experienced businessman, who has worked in the community for years, as our representative in Ottawa."

John Addison

Liberal

John Addison, born in Toronto in 1929, attended Sunnylea Public School, Pickering College and the University of Toronto, where he graduated in arts.

While still in college, he went into the livestock feed business to pay his way.

In 1954 he started Addison Leasing Service, handling cars and trucks, when the lease business was new in Canada. In 1956 he bought a car dealership and in 1960 the large British and American Motors, which he still operates.

Mr. Addison is on the advisory Council of Toronto Argonauts and in the campaign he plans a drive for votes like he used for getting goals when playing hockey with U. of T. Blues.

Mr. Addison was raised in King Township, studied nursing at Wellesley Hospital, and graduated as a nurse in 1957.

They have a son, and a daughter, and live in an early Canadian log house at Oak Ridge.

John Addison, Liberal, says, "Canada's Conservative Government for more than four years has adopted one misguided economic and fiscal policy after another. We have become an economic weakling while those areas we used to think of as tired and decayed are booming."

"The present Government has cost us 300,000 jobs and 14,000,000 in lost production. The confidence which investors had in Canada and which Canadians had in themselves must be restored."

Stan Hall

New Democrat

Stanley Hall, of Newmarket, was educated in Chinguacousy Township rural schools and the Brampton High School. While still a student he helped his brother operate a farm at Sutton.

Starting as a laborer with Canada Packers in 1949, he worked his way up to a supervisory position in the superintendent's office.

He joined the CCF in 1954 and when the NDP was formed became a member of the NDP riding executive.

He is serving a second term as president of Canada Packers' Credit Union, is a member of the Canadian Institute of Public Affairs, Ontario Welfare Council and the African Students' Foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall have an 18-month-old son.

Stanley Hall, NDP says, "There are only two major issues—unemployment and establishment of a national health plan."

"We can give full employment and as far as a national health plan is concerned, just let me be elected."

J. Alex Ford

Social Credit

John A. (Alex) Ford, of Blake Manor Blvd., Scarborough, teacher for eight years in a township school, only entered the race last week.

Born in Kent County, he attended St. Thomas Collegiate and London Teachers' College.

He is interested in the Boy Scout movement, and is sponsoring establishment of a Scout centre. He and Mrs. Ford have one son and a daughter.

J. (Alex) Ford, S.C. says, "Social Credit, the free enterprise way of life, will strengthen every home in the nation. A cut in taxes is as good as a raise in pay. Loans to the municipalities at cost of administration only through the Municipal Loan Bank will mean savings to municipal governments across Canada. These savings can be used to meet the rising crisis in school accommodation or to lower the local mill rate."

"Youth must be served. When was there ever a time in our history when more young people had to be served in our schools and colleges?"

MENTAL HOSPITALS

by Mat. B. Dymond, M.D., Health Minister form Ontario

Perhaps we in the Ontario Department of Health or our Doctors and other staff in the Hospitals for the mentally disordered are at fault in some measure at least for the lack of knowledge concerning the Ontario Hospitals so evident in many of our folk. I recall not so long ago a mother saying to me she would rather see her son sent to the penitentiary than to a mental hospital. Her son was really ill and a visit to the hospital and a chat with one of the doctors did far more for that mother than all the explanations I could have given her. Her son was admitted, responded well to treatment and was discharged to home and job, just as usually happens in the case of most illnesses. And in addition, his mother, once so fearful of "mental hospitals" is a very active and dedicated volunteer worker in one of the groups regularly visiting our hospitals.

I said perhaps we doctors may be partly at fault. Why? Because we don't talk very much about what we are trying to do and what we are doing. At least until recent years we didn't say much about our work and results. Of course we didn't have too much to talk about then—the whole field was rather hopeless. We would have occasional successes but, in the main, little hope appeared to lighten the darkness that surrounded mental disorders. Mind you, progress in other fields of medicine and surgery are "relatively recent" too. Pneumonia was a "killer" disease until about 1937 when the "sulpha drugs" made their debut. The same may be said of many infections. Too many of us vividly recall the devastation, death and crippling caused by polio till Salk and Sabin developed their vaccines. Just 40 years ago Insulin appeared here as a result of the efforts of Ontario doctors, and stopped premature deaths from Diabetes. Many other examples will come to mind.

So for the mentally ill there have appeared in the past decade a whole "new family" of drugs to bring new hope of successful treatment to many for whom little hope previously existed. But even more striking and dramatic changes have come about—these will appear in other articles from your Ontario Department of Health.

At the close of the luncheon Wallwork called on Forester Managhan to say a few words about the tour. He said that all cutting this year, had been by contract, the company making the purchase bought standing timber. The contract was quite good for the government, as it saved the hiring of temporary help but he did not expect it would be repeated as the company found the cost much higher than anticipated.

The headquarters buildings are being enlarged and equipment is kept up to date. This was shown to be necessary with the fire danger so great in May this year and some ten acres destroyed not far from headquarters.
