Buttonville News

Anyone interested in chairs with a history, should know that Brown's Corners United Church has decided to sell the old choir and Sunday School chairs. Some of these are brown-stained elm straight backed, and others are yellow painted with curved backs. A few are from the old Methodist Church at Buttonville. At present they are stored either at the church or at Mr. Douglas Hood's home. Enquiry is welcomed.

Mrs. Dick Jones attended the Branksome Hall graduation ceremony on Wednesday, last week when her niece graduated from the Primary School.

Mrs. Russell Boyington and Mrs. George Kelly were co-hostesses at Mrs. Boyington's home when the Richmond Hill Presbyterian W.M.S. met for a meeting and presentation of articles for the sale.

Congratulations to Lyn Arnott who received a scholarship for General Proficiency when she completed the second year of her three year Radio and TV Arts course at the Ryerson Institute of Technology. Lynn is employed by The Robert Simpson Co. this summer.

Mrs. S. J. English was pleased to learn she is grand-aunt to twin baby girls. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gray of Calgary, and the little girls are the first grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Gray.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Boyington who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last weekend.

Mrs. Al Martin will be hostess on Tuesday evening, next week, when Unit No. 1 of the United Church Women meet at her home. There is a well-planned meeting in store, under the co-sponsorship of Mrs. George Hooper, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Alan Strike, Mrs. Richard Carr and Mrs. Cormack. New members are welcomed.

Jamie Miller said his first communion on Sunday morning and following the service there was a family breakfast at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller.

The Stots home is gradually getting back to normal. Mr. Ken Stots has not been well for several weeks, and Mr. Alex Young spent some time in the Scarboro General Hospital. Now however, Mr. Stots is getting about again and Mr. Young is home and making good progress.

Bob and Mary-Lou Miller moved from Guelph to their new home in Scarboro Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill were guests at the McNabb-Clark wedding in St. Philip's Anglican Church, Unionville, last weekend.

On Monday evening of last week Mrs. Elmore Hill and Mrs. John Donaldson were hostesses at Mrs. Hill's home for a shower for Beryl Clark. Neighbours and friends in the community were guests.

Joy Fuller has completed her course at Toronto Teachers' College and has been employed by School Area No. 3, Markham Township. Her school is not yet decided, but it will be either No. 4 or No. 7.

Miss Beryl Clark, whose marriage to John McNabb took place on Saturday, was guest of honour at several parties. Mrs. R. H. Clark, Jr., and Mrs. W.R. Clark gave miscellaneous showers as did Mrs. Elmore Hill and Mrs. Donaldson. Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Port Credit entertained at an afternoon tea and shower gifts were presented. Miss Jean Morley was hostess at a linen shower, and Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Gordon Fisher held a shower and tea. Former office associates honoured the bride at a supper party held at the home of Miss Sarah Fullon.

Mrs. Jack Storey took a brief vacation from "Buttonville" last week, and visited the Ottawa area. Mrs. Yvonne Mathieu spent another week in hospital again recently, but is home now. Traffic Lights Needed

The accident late in April which involved cars driven by Kenneth Hooper of Buttonville and Mrs. Gordon Spring, Thornhill, is still not finalized. Mrs. Spring and Kenny Vollett, a passenger in the Hooper car, were both released from hospital some time ago, and Metro Police have investigated.

On Tuesday of last week, painters not being easy to come by, Buttonville W.L. members undertook to clean the W. L. Community Hall. It is hoped the hall will be completely decorated by autumn.

Jimmie Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Jones, Hughson Drive, was six years old last week, and he entertained several friends on Wednesday afternoon.

Sandra Russell was guest of honour at a shower in Brown's Corners United Church Thursday evening. Sandra will be married to Freddy Brown of Unionville this coming Saturday.

Another bride next Saturday will be Miss Beryl Clarke, Hughson Drive, whose marriage to John McNabb of Barrie takes place in St. Philip's Anglican Church at Unionville.

Recent guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stephenson of Saskatchewan.

Dick Jones returned from Wallaceburg and a visit with his son Bruce and his family, to find his brother from California was paying a visit here.

Rev. and Mrs. Morrison Seller of Brantford were guests at the Rodick farm last week.

To Represent York Co. — Sandra Burr has been chosen to represent York County at the week-long Provincial 4-H Homemaking Club Conference at Guelph the last week in June.

On Saturday, May 26, at the Vandorf Community Park, the York County Junior Farmers held their first Field Day. The Unionville Club won the shield for high club, and Janet Craig was awarded a trophy for high girl. Runners-up for this award were Beverley and Sandra Burr.

The day was brought to a successful close with a dance in the Vandorf Hall. Chairing events of the day of fun was Beverley Burr.

Congratulations to Russell Tooley and his bride, Marguerite Clark, who were married on Saturday, June 2, at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tooley.

Miss Joy Fuller was organist at the Brown's Corners United Church on Sunday, when Mrs. Donald Reesor was absent.

Allan Binnington received his degree at U. of T. graduation services last week. We offer congratulations. Allan intends to enter Law School this autumn.

MARKHAM 4-H CALF CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY JUDGING

Markham 4-H Calf Club members met at the Master Feeds Farm recently, for their May meeting, which stressed the judging of Dairy Cattle. Leader Allan Orr pointed out dairy qualities of the milking cow to the first-year members, after which he showed them how to properly judge a class of milking heifers.

Leader Lester Weatherill was in charge of the senior club members, and gave them a fine class of mature Holsteins to judge. Later, the leader gave the official judging credits. At the next meeting, June 20, the club will study Feeding and Management. (place to be announced).
