TIPS

ON HOW DRY COW CONDITION PAYS

The 60 days before calving is the important part of the gestation period because that's when 3/4 of the calf develops. A good Purina body-building ration helps build the body of the embryo calf... and it also builds the cow's own body so that she will give more milk after calving... and have a longer milking life.

34 old cows at Purina's Research Farm have proved that it pays to Purina condition your cows. Each went through a 60-day dry period before every calving, and each was conditioned on a Purina bodybuilding ration. Each cow produced over 100,000 pounds of milk in her lifetime. Prove to yourself that Purina cow conditioning pays off! Feed Purina D & F Chow at a rate of 1 lb. of feed for every hundred lbs. body weight. Feed this from 60 days before freshening until 30 days after freshening. If you have your own grain, mix Purina D & F Special 50-50 with oats or barley (and feed at the same rate as above).

Why not give me a call today, or drop in at our Store with the Checkerboard Sign—we'd like to tell you how Purina's Dry Cow Program can help you to strong, healthy calves, good cow condition and a long life of heavy production.

An apple oil company research experiments? At Imperial—yes. Research into how petroleum can assist Canadian farmers and fruit growers is one of many projects carried out at Imperial's laboratories—the largest petroleum research laboratories in Canada.

90% of all oil company product research in Canada is done by Imperial

At Imperial Oil's laboratories at Sarnia, Ontario, more than 200 scientists and technicians are working to improve present petroleum products—and to develop new ones. Their research covers many fields, from gasolines to household detergents.

Another 130 scientists and technicians are working at Imperial's Calgary laboratories on ways to find and produce more Canadian crude oil and natural gas. Imperial does more research than all other oil companies in Canada combined.

ALWAYS LOOK TO IMPERIAL FOR THE BEST
