PATTENDEN — TAUN
Baskets of delphinium, orange blossoms and peonies decorated Bethesda United Church on Saturday, June 23, 1962, at 2:30 o'clock when Audrey Mildred, daughter of Mrs. Taun and the late Bert Taun, 115 Main St., was united in marriage to Elwood Murray Pattenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pattenden, Gormley, Rev. George Davison was the officiating clergyman.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She entered the church wearing a cocktail length dress of white silk organza with taffeta, styled with a bell skirt and lily-point sleeves. Her shoulder length veil was held by a coronet of white orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of deep red roses with stephanotis, and variegated ivy.

Given in marriage by her brother, Glen Taun, the bride was attired in white nylon lace over taffeta and carried Red Roses. Mrs. Doris Walls was matron of honour for her sister. She wore an orange ice nylon sheer dress over taffeta, and Miss Mary Pattenden, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore aqua, nylon sheer over taffeta. They both carried yellow roses, white carnations and lily of the valley. The best man was Mr. Howard Pattenden, brother of the groom.

The matron of honour, Mrs. Jean Thomas and the bridesmaid Sheryl McKean were dressed alike in cocktail length turquoise blue silk organza over taffeta styled with round necklines, and pleated fold-over skirts. Their turquoise blue headaddresses were bows of silk organza with shoes of the same shade. Both girls carried bouquets of pink and white carnations with stephanotis.

Mrs. James Oldham sang "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied by the organ by Howard Burkholder of Bethesda. The ushers were Mr. W. Walls and Mr. A. Thompson.

The flower girls Colleen McKean and Ginger Hutton were dressed alike in pink dimity over taffeta with short full skirts styled with small round collar, pleated front, puff sleeves and a taffeta sash held at the back with a butterfly bow. Their headaddresses were matching bows and each carried a basket of coloured flowers.

For the reception held at the bride's home, the bride's mother received her guests in a navy dress and the groom's mother in gold crepe, both with matching accessories.

The groomsmen were dressed alike in white tuxedos with white accessories and a corsage of "hot pink" carnations. On their return the couple will make their home in Stouffville.

For a honeymoon to be spent in Eastern Ontario, the bride chose a beige figured, silk, two-piece dress with matching accessories. On their return, they will make their home in Stouffville.

Kenneth Waud of Willowdale was best man and Jim Thomas the usher. Mrs. C. H. Nolan was organist. Receiving guests at the Parkside Youth Centre, the bride's mother wore a sheath of shrimp silk organza over taffeta with matching hat and white accessories and a corsage of Tallman roses. The groom's mother was in a mauve brocade sheath and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Alan, wore a gown of white peau de soie with fitted bodice embroidered with heavy lace applique, boat neckline, bell shaped skirt falling in chapel train. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was caught with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried baby pink roses fastened to and trailing from a white Bible. Her attendants were Patricia Dix, maid of honour, Helen Gayman, Karen Chadwick, bridesmaids, gowned alike in pink-peau-de-soie, full skirts with box and inverted pleats, pill box hats trimmed with nylon tulle. They carried red roses and pink carnations on white Bibles, gifts of the bride.

Leaving for a honeymoon to points north, the bride donned a navy and white suit with white accessories and a corsage of "hot pink" carnations. On their return the couple will make their home in Stouffville.

The flower girl was Carol Anne Clarke, dressed in white peau de soie and carrying a nosegay of pink carnations. The ring bearer was Robert Hunt, Miss Lynda Nolan of Stouffville was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. E. G. Clark at the organ.

Out-of-town friends and relatives attended from Hamilton, Toronto, Newmarket, Greenbank, Richmond Hill, Bancroft and Bowmanville.

The guests were treated to a sumptuous supper, catered to by the members of the family. On their departure the Valliere's were wished many more years of health and happiness.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Prouse, formerly of Clarendon and more recently of Fairview Lodge, Whitby, will regret to learn that she suffered a fractured hip in a fall and is presently confined to the Oshawa General Hospital.

The bride wore a dress of blue chiffon over printed silk with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother wore a beige dress and accessories and a corsage of orange carnations.

Miss Elaine Clendenning was successful in obtaining 1st class honours in Grade II Conservatory Piano Examination. She is a pupil of Mrs. Floyd Ratcliff. Miss Janice Ratcliff was successful in Grade VIII piano examination with honours.

For the trip to Florida the bride wore a turquoise suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. On their return they will live at Unionville.
