DICKSON HILL

Construction has commenced on the erection of additional class rooms at the local school, and progress will be noted with interest.

Mr. Anthony Hoover is able to make occasional visits to members of his family, and on Sunday visited the Lorne Tindall's of Goodwood, who now occupy their new home.

News of the tragic death of Merlin Grove, missionary to Somalia, was received with shock and regret. He was highly regarded in his church and community, and hosts of friends were present at the Wideman Mennonite Church for the impressive memorial service last Wednesday. His family here and overseas have the sympathy of the community.

The local boys who attended Trail of the Pines camp at Stayner enjoyed this week of holiday.

Mrs. A. Battler of Kitchener, a guest of the Bishop-Mallett wedding, remained to spend a week with the bride's parents.

Elmore Barceys of Ballantrae, Maurice Eby and Roy Moyers recently visited Pioneer Village. A great deal of planning and labour of assembling various old buildings and furnishing them, has created a fine picture of the history of early settlers.

The young people's meeting took the form of a corn roast at the Clarence McDowell home, and furnished an opportunity for Pastor Sloss and the young folks of his two congregations to become better acquainted.

The congregation was happy to welcome home Mrs. Des Rosiers, who spent a couple of months with relatives and friends in Vancouver and other points.

Miss Helen Johnson of Claremont, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Willard Moyer.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Mrs. W. Sandie
Baseball
The Victoria Square team lost one game and won one game last week. The semifinals begin this week. It is Headford vs. Buttonville and Gormley vs. Victoria Square. They are being played on Tuesday and Thursday evening this week.

Church News
Sunday, August 5, is Holiday Sunday in the church, therefore, there will be no Sunday School or church service. There will be one church service during August, on Sunday 19th at 11:30 a.m. when Rev. Douglas Davis of Stouffville will be in charge.

Dedication Service
On Sunday, July 29, Mr and Mrs Cecil Nichols, Miss Faye Nichols, Mrs. Nelson Buchanan, Mr. Louis Nichols, Miss Vera Nichols, Mr and Mrs Douglas Gee, Misses Audrey and Lois Gee attended the Dedication service in Calvary Baptist church, Toronto for David Bruce Meed, infant son of Mr and Mrs Desmond Meed, (Lillian Nichols). Mr and Mrs Meed have accepted a call with the Sudan Mission and expect to go to a field in Africa within a year.

Mr and Mrs Norman Bell have returned after spending the past two weeks in Western Canada.

Master Donald Orr of King is visiting his cousin Master Ronald Orr.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Binnington will be on vacation during August, and Dr. Binnington will return to Brown's Corners United Church to preach on Sept. 2.

During August Rev. Gerald Fitzpatrick will be in charge of services, and will continue to serve on the charge through September.

On Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Binnington entertained Vacation School staff members when they held their final meeting of the season. Present from Brown's Corners church were Mrs. A. W. Miller, Miss Joy Fuller and Mrs. F. H. Leaf.

RINGWOOD

Mr Henry Miller and Mrs. John Fraser and daughter Norrene of Ahmic Lake called on Mr George Gower and Mr and Mrs Fred Steckley on Saturday night. Mr Frank Breuls of Toronto also called the same evening.

About five hundred attended the Memorial Service in the Mennonite Church for the late Merlin Grove, a missionary in Africa, last Wednesday afternoon.

The "Excelsior Class" group met at the home of Mrs. Fred Jemmett on Thursday evening. Mrs. Atkinson was in charge of a very interesting program, "Patriotic Responsibility." This was followed by a social hour.

Mrs. Bartlett of Kent, England visited her nephew Fred and Mrs. Jemmett for a few days.

Mr and Mrs Walter Vague and boys visited Mrs. Vague's parents Mr and Mrs R. J. Filyer near Cannington. Mr Filyer's health is about as usual.

BUTTONVILLE

W. I. Activities
Buttonville W. I. members are taking a vacation from formal meetings this summer, and last week their get-together was a visit to Mrs. Alice Gardner at the Gardners' summer home in Sutton, with members of the Elmgrove W. I. as special guests. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Adam Brown, Mrs. George Kelly conducted a brief business meeting, and from there on the afternoon was devoted to fun.

Some dates to remember were noted. On August 11 and September 22 the group will cater for weddings, and already three dinners have been booked—two in November for the Lions and Junior Farmers, and one in December for the Markham Fair Board. The Autumn Euchre series will begin October 19 and will continue until November 30, at Buttonville W. I. Hall, and on December 14 the annual benefit for the Canadian Cancer Society will be held.

Mrs. A. Robinson was the hostess.

Local Y.P.U. members were at Picton Sand Banks recently where they held a picnic and barbecue supper.

Mrs. George Felgate's vacation was interrupted recently when she suffered a heart attack. Mr Felgate was allowed to bring her home, but she will be under the doctor's care for some time to come.

George Felgate, Jr., and his family have moved to the former Sisler residence.

Mrs. A. W. Miller left Malton last Sunday morning to fly to Monte Vista, Colorado, for a visit with Dr and Mrs Donald Otis and her new granddaughter Rebecca Otis.
