GRAHAM-GAYMAN

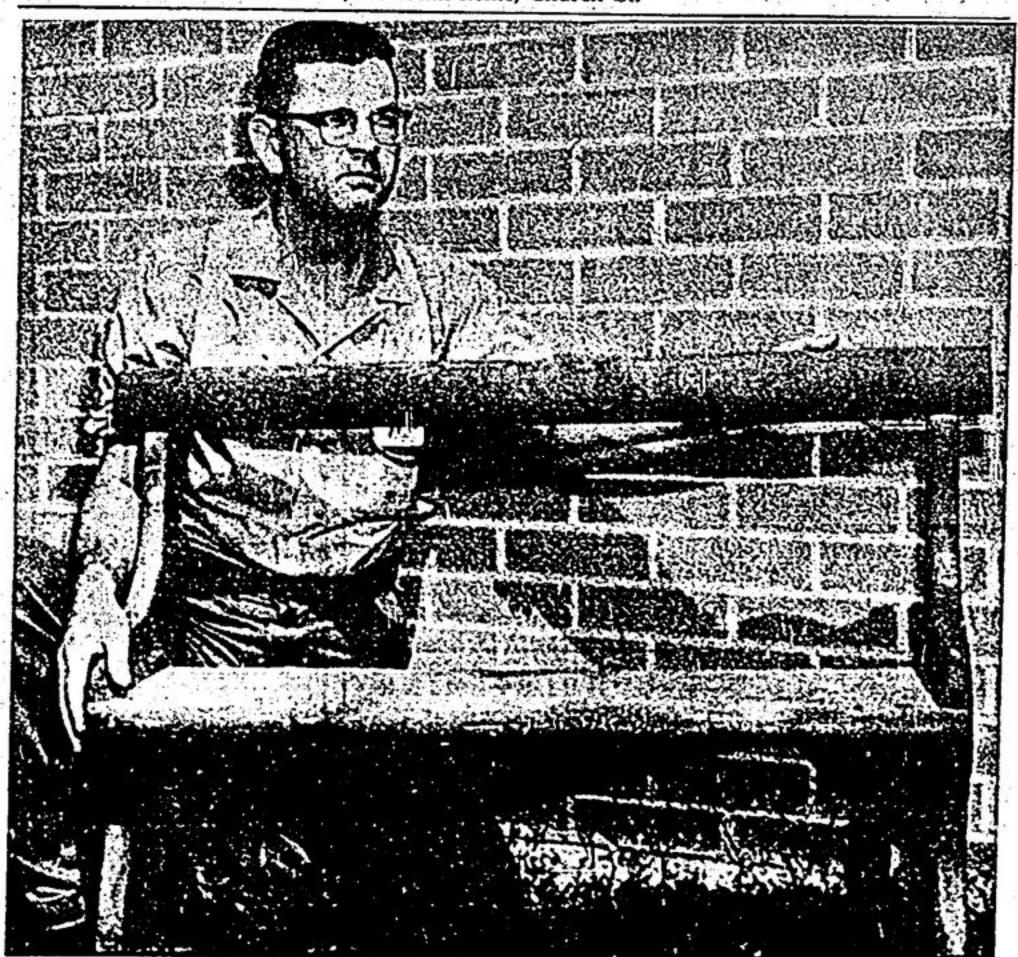

Baskets of white and yellow spider mums decorated Central United Church, Unionville, on Saturday, July 21st, at 4 o'clock, when Frances Marie, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ben Gayman was married to Mr Ronald William Austin Graham, son of Mr and Mrs Howard Graham, Markham. The wedding music was played by the church organist, Miss Marion Warne. She also assisted the soloist, Miss Lynda Everest, who sang The Lord's Prayer and The Wedding Prayer. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Roscoe Chapin of Unionville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of white silk organza over taffeta with an elongated bodice and full skirt which fell into a chapel train from tiny pleats at the bustle. The bodice featured bateau neckline with yoke and sleeves of lace. Her fingertip veil was held by a coronet of pearls and white organza roses. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and stephanotis. Attending the bride was the maid of honour, Miss Dianne Bradley and bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Graham, sister of the groom, Miss Pat Valliere, cousin of the bride and Mrs Gail Gayman. The maid of honour and bridesmaids were gowned alike in sea green peau de soie sheaths featuring bell shaped overskirts held at the chose a beige lace dress with waist with small bows. The bodice featured wide neckline and short sleeves. They wore matching whimsies of peau de sole roses, and carried cascades of white and yellow spider
