Rev. Edward Simmons and Mr Gordon Gooderham were the officiating clergymen.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr Alfred Belanger, wore a white peau de soie handsewn gown with train, and a lace jacket. A special tiara held her fingertip veil in place. She carried a nosegay of red roses, on a white Bible. Her maid of honour was Miss Doreen Hardman of Hamilton and her bridesmaids were Mrs Douve de Boer (Reta), Stouffville R.R.2, Mrs Milton Casemore (Ruth), Owen Sound and Miss Teresa Hardman of Toronto. They wore emerald green street length dresses, green and white head pieces and white accessories. Their flowers varied from coral to pale pink and white glads. The flower girl, Mary Anne Wideman, a niece of the groom, wore a pale green batiste dress and carried a pink nosegay. Calvin Rae, the groom's nephew was ring bearer. The best man was Garnet Rae, brother of the groom and the ushers were Donald Heldson and David Hay.

Mr Clarion Baker, R.R.2, Stouffville was the organist and Mrs J. Oldham of Ringwood, the soloist.

The wedding reception took place at the Compass Restaurant, Newmarket, where the bride's mother received her guests in a dusty rose chiffon dress and the groom's mother wore navy blue with pink accessories. For a wedding trip to the East Coast, the bride chose a white linen suit with mint green accessories. On their return, they will make their home at R.R.2, Stouffville.

Model Agency Holds Open House

On Wednesday, Sept. 5th, Walter Thornton Personal Improvement and Model Agency held "Open House" at the Masonic Hall Second Street. Miss Irene Monte, Director at the Agency opened the evening with an interesting talk entitled "Have You Taken A Look At Yourself?" She stressed the point that "women should be honest with themselves and try not to overlook their assets when totting up their defects." She continued that "many a plain woman has earned the reputation of being a beauty, by simply getting to know herself and learning the tricks that make a woman look and feel wonderful." Miss Monte presented a "Before and After Revelation" by means of a complete make-up demonstration and wardrobe change assisted by Miss Simone Noir, right in front of the audience. The effect was a most successful one, and brought to light many points which will serve as beauty blueprints in the future to those who attended.

It was also pointed out that it is never too late to learn. The teenager who is just learning to be beautiful, the girl or young matron who has never tried or has stopped trying to come closer to her ideal, the woman in the golden years who "never had the time." It is the starting point that is difficult... once you get started, your confidence will soar.
