

Prize Calf Under Cover

Rain coats and rubber boots were the popular apparel at Markham Fair on Friday when a steady downpour transformed the grounds into a sea of mud. Sixteen year old Bonnie Kennedy, conc. 7, Markham, shelters her prize jersey calf from the rain. All judging on Friday was held indoors. —Staff Photo.

Miss Vera Tarr had dinner on Sunday with Mrs John Lehman.

On Tuesday, Mr and Mrs Cliff Winn of Toronto were visitors with the Winn family, North Church St.

Mr Ross Lee of New York City has been spending the past month renewing acquaintances with relatives and friends here and in Goodwood.

Mr and Mrs Stewart Stouffer spent last Sunday in Brockville with their daughter Joanne and Janis Osterdahl.

After several months absence, Mrs Alma Johnson, Mill St. has resumed her position at the medical centre.

Mrs John Lehman, Baker Ave. entertained a number of cousins at a surprise tea last Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs B. E. Wiancko's 75th birthday.

Weekend visitors with Mr and Mrs Jack Beach and family were Bill Kane of Oshawa, Mr and Mrs Herb Beach and family of Snowball.

Mr Ted Cadieux has donated a sitting—your choice of any one of six poses—to the person submitting the best entry in the entire Photo Contest. Get your entry in before Oct. 20th.

Mr Anthony Hoover of Dickson Hill was a visitor on Sunday with his son Earl and Mrs Hoover, O'Brien Ave. Mr and Mrs Dave Stouffer and Mr Levi Forsyth were also guests with the Hoovers.

Misses Eva Hoover and Bertha Winn were the recipients of diplomas, on Sunday. These were given in appreciation of many years service in Sunday School work at the United Church.

Mrs John Lehman, Baker Ave. has sold her home and is moving to an apartment on Edward St.

Mr and Mrs Eldon Lehman and daughter Merla of Islington called on Mrs John Lehman, Baker Ave., on Sunday.

Dine out on Thanksgiving Monday, Oct. 8th at Houston's Coffee Shoppe, the Rexal Drug Store, Phone 229 Stouffville. Bring the whole family and enjoy a Turkey, Beef, Ham or Sausage dinner with choice of desserts, tea coffee or milk; children's orders, special price. Open from 1 to 8 p.m.

Mr and Mrs Reford A Wiancko and family, of Don Mills had a family dinner party on Wednesday evening, Mrs B. E. Wiancko, Hawthorne Ave., Stouffville being the guest of honour. Mr and Mrs Wm. A. Barnes (formerly Margaret Wiancko) of Bliss, New York, came over for the occasion also Eldon of Stouffville. Mrs John Lehman, Mrs Wiancko's sister was also a guest. Mrs Wiancko was presented with a wrist watch by her family.

The Ladies of the Evening Guild Christ Church Anglican, are holding their Fall Rummage Sale, Saturday, Oct. 13th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. They hope all patrons will attend this sale being held in the Church Hall, Sunset Blvd., next to Orchard Park Public School.

Refreshments will be available; also free babysitting. Anyone having rummage to donate please call Mrs Lewis 239 for a pick-up service or leave it at the Parish Hall, Mon, Tues- or Wednesday evening. See you Saturday, Oct. 13th!

BIRTHS

GRAY—Mr and Mrs Robert Gray, R.R.2, Stouffville are pleased to announce the arrival of their son, 12 lbs. 9 oz., at the Briarbrush Hospital on Tuesday, Sept. 25, 1962. Special thanks to Dr. Donald Smith, Mrs Reed and her staff, specially Mrs Middlemiss and Mrs Burkholder.

ROBINSON—Mr and Mrs Gary Robinson, Stouffville, R.R.2, wish to announce the birth of a daughter, 7 lbs. 8 oz., at Briarbrush Hospital on Monday Sept. 24, 1962. Thanks to Dr. Donald Smith.

SMITH—Harvey and Dorothy (Marshall) are grateful for the gift of a son, Michael David, Sept. 19, 1962; York County Hospital. "Children are an heritage of the Lord."

RINGWOOD

Mr. R. J. Filyer of Cannington is much improved following a severe heart attack. Several ladies from here were at Cherry Hill Farm to hear Miss Corrie TenBoom, renowned speaker, author and missionary. The Excelsior Class ladies held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Jos. Fockler on Thursday, Mrs. Bass of Stouffville was the guest speaker. Mrs. Almer Fockler is spending several days this week with her son Dean in Toronto.

Local and Personal Happenings

Miss Marilyn Beach of Cornerbrook, Newfoundland returned home on Wednesday after spending the past year as a hairdresser in that town.

Mr and Mrs Cliff Lemon entertained to dinner on Wednesday, some friends from Bloomington. They were Mr and Mrs Will Fockler, Mr and Mrs Robert Johnson and Mr Earl Davis.

Mr and Mrs Gord Wagg, Gayle and Wendy called on Mr and Mrs John Hamilton of Agincourt on Sunday to see the new arrival, Kenneth Percy.

Local police authorities are concerned over an attempt on three separate occasions of an attempted pick-up of a nine year old Ringwood girl. Fortunately, the girl refused to accept a ride. Police have a good description of the vehicle.

A planned outdoor safety program in the Stouffville Park on Saturday morning had to be cancelled due to wet grounds. A number of safety instruction classes have been conducted in the schools and the pupils are very interested in the project. The Reeve is assisting local police with the program.

Seventeen year old Carol Morris, a member of the Markham Dairy 4-H Club had her helper entry judged the champion of the Ayrshire class in a York County competition at Markham Fair on Friday. Carol, a teller at the Bank of Nova Scotia has been showing at the Fair for the past three years. There were seven entries in the field.

A special student's competition in the Ladies' Auxiliary Photo Contest is expected to draw a large number of entries. Pictures may be entered in black and white, or colour slides. If you are sixteen years of age or under, and have a picture that would fit under the caption of "Animals or Birds" or "General Interest", send it to Box 587 Stouffville, before Oct. 20th. A lovely Kodak "Twin Twenty" camera, valued around $15.00—the gift from John Labatts—will go to the lucky student entering the best picture.

No injuries resulted on Friday night when an east-bound car, driven by Mr F. Foldvary, a teacher on the staff of the Stouffville Dist. High School was in collision with a pick-up truck driven by Arnold Harper of Bloomington. The front end of the auto, a Renault, was quite badly damaged. Constable Harry Heatherington investigated the accident. It occurred at the intersection of Main and Park Drive.

Mr and Mrs Everett Jones, former residents, now living at Whitby were weekend visitors with their son and family, Mr and Mrs Garfield Jones.

Rev. Arthur Walsh attended the funeral service of his mother, which was held in Montreal on Monday.

A fine portrait of Mr Geo. Armstrong, hockey captain of the Toronto Maple Leafs is displayed in the window of Cadieux Studio, Main Street. Mr and Mrs Armstrong and family were recent visitors in town.

R.T. Ed. W. and Mrs Bugar of Bangkok, Thailand and his mother, Mrs C. H. Bugar of Toronto spent Tuesday with his aunt, Mr and Mrs Cliff Lemon, Rupert Ave. The Burgars have been in Thailand for the past two years and after a six weeks holiday, they have returned for another two years.

A twenty year old motorist, 19th Ave., R.R.1, Unionville, miraculously escaped serious injury on Friday morning when his small car went out of control on conc. 6, Markham and flipped over on its roof. John Cornelius, the driver, told police that another motorist forced his vehicle off the road. P. C. Dennis Davies was summoned to the scene. The accident was turned over to Markham Twp. police.

Robert Barnes R.C.N., son of Mr and Mrs Murray Barnes, Bloomington, was aboard the H.M.C.S. Bonaventure, when she was dispatched to assist in rescue operations of a U.S. plane which crashed 500 miles off the coast of Ireland. Crew and passengers numbered 76. They rescued 21 survivors, while many were taken aboard other rescue ships.

Local marksmen, Gordon Munro, Allan Wideman and Fred Gibson captured a number of the main prizes at a shoot near Minden, recently.

Mr and Mrs George Bartholomew have returned home after visiting with Mr and Mrs Ed. McRobbie and Mr and Mrs Ed. Fockler in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Lynn Kerr, an employee at the Bank of Commerce left Malton by plane on Saturday to spend two weeks with her family at Yellow Knife, North West Territory.

Mr and Mrs Sherman Arnold, William St., accompanied by Mrs Arnold's sister, Mrs Doan of Newmarket left on Monday by car for Virginia for a two-week vacation.

The new house under construction on the Ninth Line St. will be the future home of Mr and Mrs K. Steckley and family now living on O'Brien Ave.

Mr Tom Wedseloft, O'Brien Ave. brought a brand new $1.00 bill into The Tribune last week. It was dated 1954 but signed by the present Governor of the Bank of Canada, Louis Raminisky. We are told that an attempt is being made to withdraw the bills from circulation.

Harry Wood living with his grandson Jack Palmer and his wife Betty at Musselman's Lake was among the 150 veterans and their wives who made the trip to Dieppe, France on the anniversary of the raid made by the Royal Regiment of Canada. They were well received and remembered by the Dieppe citizens. All but 5% of the Canadian forces were killed.

Mr and Mrs Ross McKay and family have taken up permanent residence in the former Archie Campbell residence Charles St. The McKay farm, conc. 5, Markham has been sold to Ron Ross of Glasgow. It has been in the McKay family name for 4 generations. Mr Harold McKay, a son, is presently residing here. A former student of the Stouffville High School, he is now an Instructor on National Survival Training with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps and has travelled from coast to coast.

Mr Percy Brown, Albert St. is presently in Newmarket Hospital.

Mr and Mrs Vincent Wagg accompanied Mr and Mrs Fred Woodland and Jimmie of Uxbridge on a trip to Gooderham, Haliburton and the lift locks at Kirkfield on Sunday.

Miss Beulah Heise from Fairview Home at Preston is spending a week with Mr and Mrs Joe Sider, west of town.

Mr and Mrs Fred Timbers are in Northern Ontario this week, where he is judging plowing matches in the Algoma District.

Mr and Mrs Elroy Schneider and Elizabeth of Bloomington were weekend visitors with her parents, Mr and Mrs Fred Pugh, conc. 10.

Atom, Squirt, Peewee and Bantam hockey players are reminded that pre-season registration will be held in the Stouffville Municipal Building on Saturday, Oct. 6 and 13 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Registration fees must be paid at this time.

Mrs Carl Boardway and her sister, Mrs Roberts of Toronto left by train for Houston, Texas to visit their sister, Mrs J. E. Hunter for three or four weeks. It is 43 years since Mrs Boardway and Mrs Hunter have seen one another.

Mrs R. Stevens, O'Brien Ave. returned on Wednesday from a delightful six weeks holiday spent at Banff, Vancouver and Victoria. When in West Vancouver she had dinner at the home of Mr and Mrs Leonard Kinck. At Winnipeg she visited with an aunt.

Twenty-eight members of the Fairles family were entertained by Mr and Mrs Russell Jordan of Springfield, Illinois at the chicken barbecue at Manchester, recently. Later the Jordans were feted in honour of their 49th wedding anniversary at home of Mr and Mrs Gerald Brillinger, Orchard Park Blvd. Mrs Jordan was the former Della Fairles and they have been renewing acquaintances with relatives and friends while staying with Mr and Mrs Floyd Fairles the past two weeks.

WEDDING

McATEER — RAE

White and pink gladiol decorated the Stouffville Baptist church for the marriage of Elizabeth Rae, daughter of Rev. and Mrs Wm. Frame Rae, O'Brien Ave. and Dr. Frank Michael McAteer of Toronto, son of Mr and Mrs F. M. McAteer, formerly of Sudbury, now of Guatemala City, Central America. The bride was given in marriage by her father at the ceremony performed by Rev. Douglas Moffatt on Saturday, Sept. 15, 1962 at 2:30 p.m. The bride wore a gown of white silk peau de soie with short train and finger tip veil of nylon net and carried pink roses.

Powder blue peau de soie gowns with white nylon net headpieces was chosen by her matron of honour, Phyllis Piny of Toronto and bridesmaids Mary Rae, Stouffville, sisters of the bride and Joan McAteer, sister of the groom. Their flowers were white and blue baby mums.

The groom had chosen Dr. Alexander McMann of Toronto as his best man and ushers were Mr Ron Rothwell of Kitchener and Mr Fred Row of Toronto. Mr Larry Clements, L.R. S.M. of Toronto was the organist.

The reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents on O'Brien Ave., the tables being decorated with white and blue delphiniums.

The bride's mother received her guests wearing a champagne beige silk brocade dress with matching accessories and the groom's mother in navy overlaid nylon lace on silk with matching accessories. For a short honeymoon to be spent on Manitoulin Island, the bride travelled in a light weight brown tweed suit with matching shoes, handbag and bone beige hat and gloves.

On their return they will reside in Toronto while Dr. McAteer interns at St. Michael's Hospital.

Among the 135 guests who attended the wedding were Mrs E. Blake of Toronto, widow of the late Sir Edward Blake and Mr Earnest Button of Stouffville. Other guests were from Montreal, Picton, New York, Rochester, Niagara Falls, London, Guelph, Galt and Sudbury.

Mrs Robt. Gordon and Miss Elsie Drewe, both of Toronto, Mrs Weston Neely of Markham and Miss Marguerite Simons of Stouffville poured tea while a number of local high school girls served.

OBITUARIES

Rev. Carl Lehman

Word has reached Stouffville of the passing of Rev. Carl Lehman on Sep. 17th in Calgary, Alberta. Mr Lehman was the youngest son of the late Rev. and Mrs Flavius Lehman, who once resided near Altona. He married Miss Lila Swalm of Alberta and became a minister of the United Missionary Church in Ontario Conference. Later he and his wife and family went to India as missionaries, serving with the World-wide Evangelization Crusade for a number of years. Less than a year ago he was invalided home from India because of serious illness, and has lived since then in Alberta.

He leaves his wife and four children, brothers and sisters, besides many friends and relatives in and around Stouffville. He was a nephew of the late Mr John Lehman of Stouffville. Funeral service was held Sept. 19th in the United Missionary Church, Didsbury, Alberta, with burial in Didsbury cemetery.

Former Western Farmer Passes in 91st Year.

Mr George Albert Hughes, 61 Lloyd St., Stouffville passed away at the Brierbush Hospital, in his 91st year, on Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1962 after a brief illness. He was born in Cookstown, Ont., and in 1912 married Annie Elizabeth Boothby, who survives him along with a daughter Edith (Mrs L. J. Ewen) of Toronto and a son Robert of Grand Prairie, Alta. Mr Hughes left Ontario in 1882 and with his parents settled at Goodlands, Manitoba, where later he took up a homestead and also one at Duval, Sask. He was a true western pioneer, an active member of the United Church and Sunday School Superintendent in the

BAPTISMAL SERVICE AT UNITED CHURCH

Nine children were baptized at a special service in the Stouffville United Church on Sunday morning. The Pastor Reverend Gordon Cruikshank was in charge. The children included—Jill Elinor Thomson, daughter of Mr and Mrs Geo. A. Thomson, Glad Park Ave., Michael John Hamilton, son of Mr and Mrs Belfry Hamilton, Harold St., Nancy Jean Hammond, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robt. Hammond, O'Brien Ave., Lori Anne Barry, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robt. Barry, R.R.2, Stouffville, Michelle Loise Plaskitt, daughter of Mr and Mrs Robt. Plaskitt, Burkholder St., Kimberley, Ellen Evans, daughter of Mr and Mrs Glen Evans, Church St., Mary-Joe Sutherland, daughter of Mr and Mrs Keith Sutherland, Albert St.N., Susan Lorry Smith, daughter of Mr and Mrs Denton Smith, Charles St., Robt. Stanley Thornhill, son of Mr and Mrs Aubrey Willard Thornhill, Loreta Cresc.

Show us a pipe smoker and we'll show you a man with a messy coat pocket.

West for many years. He resided in Toronto from 1915 to 1928, then returned to the West where he farmed at Watson, Sask., until 1949 when he retired to Stouffville.

The funeral service was from the chapel of the L. E. O'Neill Funeral Home, Stouffville on Friday, Sept. 28 at 2 p.m. with Rev. D. Davis and Rev. Martin Jenkinson, King, Ont., in charge of the service. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Lloyd Turner, Wm. Malloy, Percy Tarr and Morley Symes. Interment was in Stouffville Cemetery.

'63 COMET is the Mercury other compacts envy

You'd be envious too...if you were a compact without Comet's new range of twelve models—sedans, wagons and two new convertibles. And what if you couldn't offer these other Mercury quality features. Major chassis lubrications 36,000 miles apart. Minor body lubes every 12,000 miles. Brakes that adjust themselves automatically. Oil changes 6,000 miles apart. All this and Comet still only looks expensive. No wonder other compacts envy Comet. Be the envy of your block! Drive a Comet! See your Mercury dealer now.

First with the 12,000 mile/12 month warranty, Ford of Canada 1963 products are WARRANTED FOR 24,000 MILES OR 2 YEARS, whichever comes first. Certain features mentioned or illustrated are optional at extra cost. Mileage figures quoted are based on normal driving.

Today at your Mercury dealer!

COFFEY AND BARTLEY MOTORS LIMITED

Stouffville Phone 549 or 550