

Bicycles Given Safety Check

Each of the estimated 200 bicycles handled by both organized program conducted in the Stouffville Park on Saturday morning. Shown individual safety checks in an here — P. C. Harry Heather-

On Saturday morning, an estimated 200 girls and boys took part in Stouffville's new child safety program in the Memorial Park. The response exceeded all expectations and local promoters are encouraged by the enthusiasm shown towards the project. Pictured here — P. C. Van-Koughnet directs 9 years old Shelly Thomson, Glad Park Ave. along a marked route to test her sense of bicycle balance. — Staff Photo.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong are pictured here following their recent marriage. The bride is the former Elizabeth (Betty) Ann Swain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Swain, Stouffville R.R.3, at Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Armstrong, Markham, R.R.1

ganist with Mrs James Oldham of Stouffville and Mr Stewart McGillivray of Port Elgin as soloists. Mrs Oldham sang "A Wedding Prayer". Mr McGillivray sang "How Great Thou Art", during the signing of the register.

The bride given in marriage by her parents wore a floor-length gown of white delustered satin, clusters of lace flowers decorated the full skirt. She wore an elbow-length veil caught up by a cluster of roses, and carried a white Bible with a red rose corsage and white and gold streamers.

Miss Elizabeth MacLean, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honour. Miss Peggy MacLean, cousin of the bride and Miss Judy Crittenden, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Bonnie Flewell, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The Matron of Honour and Junior bridesmaid were gowned alike in green lace over taffeta. The bridesmaids wore the same style dresses in gold lace over taffeta. They wore chapel veils topped with roses to match their dresses. They carried a cascade of rust and white mums.

The bestman was Ronald Underwood, of Markham, and ushers were Ralph Almond of Markham and William Sanders of Stouffville.

For the reception, held at the Masonic Temple, Stouffville, the bride's mother chose a green and gold satin dress with rust accessories and a rust and white corsage. The groom's mother, chose a pale green two piece dress with beige accessories and wore a yellow and white corsage.

For their honeymoon to the Eastern Provinces and Prince Edward Island the bride chose a brown suit with beige accessories and wore a pink corsage.

Guests included relatives from Mount Albert, Markham, Scarborough, Port Elgin, Paisley, Simcoe, Sutton, Ballantrae, and St. Catharines.

HALL — REAMAN

Emanuel Church, Toronto was decorated with baskets of mums and gladioli in fall colours, when Joan Marie, daughter of Mr and Mrs John Ora Reaman, 19 Thornton Ave, and Walter A. Hall, son of Mr and Mrs Douglas Hall, 196 Lansdown Ave, both of Toronto were united in marriage by Rev. M. R. Sanderson. The ceremony took place at 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 13, 1962.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length, white peau de soie gown with lace applique and finger tip veil and carried white baby mums and stephanotis. Matron of honour was Mrs Gloria Elliott and the bridesmaids were Mrs Dianne Garde and Mrs Patricia Cox, cousins of the bride.

They wore silk organza over rust taffeta, street length dresses and carried yellow and bronze mums. They also wore the bride's gift, pearl necklaces and matching ear rings.

Marie Gourley soloist chanted "The Lord's Prayer" and sang "My Devotion" during the signing of the register. Mrs Kenny was the organist, and Kenneth Sumpter of Toronto, the best man. Ushers were Barry Sumpter and Morgan McKay.

Bronze and yellow mums decorated the tables for the reception which was held in the surf room at the Dutch Sisters, Lakeshore Blvd.

For receiving her guests, the bride's mother wore a royal blue peau de soie costume with matching hat and shoes and a corsage of pink roses and white mums.

The groom's mother wore a mink brown crepe dress with matching coat, beige accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

For travelling to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania to Honeymoon Lodge, the bride wore a green wool suit with black accessories and white beaver hat and gloves.

On their return they will reside at 24 Tyndall Ave, Toronto.

WEDDINGS

ARMSTRONG—SWAIN

Rev. Douglas Davis of Stouffville, officiated, at his home, at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth (Betty) Ann Swain, daughter of Mr and Mrs Harvey Swain, R.R. 3 Stouffville, to Mr James Carson Armstrong, son of Mr and Mrs Carson Armstrong, R.R.1, Markham, Ont.

The bride wore a street length gown of white nylon over net with lace bolero, and beaded head dress with medallion-trimmed net shoulder veil. She carried a cascade of red sweet-heart roses and wore a pearl necklace and ear rings, the gift of the groom.

Mrs Dian Hayes, cousin of the bride, was her attendant wearing a yellow two piece ensemble and carried a cascade of white carnations.

Mr William Swain, brother of the bride attended the groom.

At the reception held at the home of the bride's parents and attended by approximately 60 guests, the bride's mother received wearing a costume of toast beige with cocoa brown accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. The groom's mother was gowned in olive green with black accessories, and yellow mums.

For the wedding trip to Sault Ste. Marie and other points north, the bride wore a three piece beige suit with green accessories and yellow carnations.

On their return the happy couple will live in their new home on 10th Concession, Markham Township.

The guests at the reception were from Toronto, Coldwater, Cannington, Mt. Albert, Uxbridge, Markham and Stouffville.

CRITTENDEN—MACLEAN

White and yellow gladioli decorated Ballantrae United Church on Saturday, September 22, 1962, for the marriage of Helen Sandra, daughter of Mr and Mrs Bruce MacLean, R.R.2, Stouffville to Dennis Maurice, son of Mr and Mrs Maurice Crittenden, Sutton. Rev. James Davies of Sutton officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mr Grose of Ballantrae assisting. Mr Claron Baker of Stouffville was or-

Mr and Mrs Dennis Maurice Crittenden are pictured here following their recent marriage in the Ballantrae United Church. The bride is the former Helen Sandra MacLean, daughter of Mr and Mrs Bruce MacLean, Stouffville R.R.2

Local and Personal Happenings

Mrs Archie Reid of Ringwood is visiting with her daughter, Mrs Larry Hodgins in Saskatoon.

Mr and Mrs Joe Symes and daughter, Church St. were weekend visitors with their daughter, Mrs Bambrugh and family in Toronto.

Mr M. T. Brownsberger of Timmins, Ont., visited last week with his brother, Ed. Brownsberger of Ringwood, also with other relatives and friends in the Scarborough area.

Arrangements have been made for the Guides to meet at the Parish Hall from 6:45 to 8:15 p.m. every Wednesday.

The first Ladies Auxiliary meeting of the season was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs Gwendolyn Gresham. The new executive for 1962 was elected — President, Mrs Kay Jennings; Secretary, Mrs Fran Spence; Treasurer, Mrs Joyce Heatherington. Several projects are being planned for the year. All Guide and Brownie mothers are cordially invited to the next meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs Heatherington, 346 Glad Park on Thursday, November 8th.

W. C. Barnes, local manager for the Bell Telephone Company said this week that extra copies of the new telephone directory would be available to telephone subscribers who do not receive their copy in the mail.

"Our payment agencies in Markham, Unionville and Stouffville will be glad to give any customer a copy of the new directory if he fails to receive one by mail," he said.

Markham's agency is J. A. Grier Drug Store, 134 Main St. Unionville's agency is Billingsley Drug Store, on Highway No. 7.

Stouffville's payment agency is Houston's Drug Store, 1 Main St., West.

A meeting of the Auxiliary will be held Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 8:30 p.m. at the Thornhaven School, 317 Centre St. E., Richmond Hill. This is to be membership night. Anyone who would be interested in joining our group to assist in the varied and interesting means of fundraising will be welcomed. It is not quite a year since this Auxiliary was formed. With this small nucleus of women, our various undertakings have been most successful. The Auxiliary was able to subsidize 14 children from Thornhaven, to attend Camp Bellwood and Camp Richlidaea. This is a worthy objective.

The ladies also had a booth at the Markham Fair, Sept. 28-29th. A draw was held on many fine articles and in spite of the worst weather of the Fall season, this event was considered a success.

The following is a list of the donors to Stouffville's first Amateur Photo Contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion Branch 459.

Cadieux's Studio: A sitting — your choice of one of six poses. Charles Abel Photo-Finishing of Toronto: $25.00. Aiken's Pharmacy: $10.00. Can. Legion Branch 459: $10.00.

Houston's Drug Store: One doz. black and white film (127 or 620).

Canadian Kodak of Toronto: 2 Koda Chrome No. II, High Speed Film.

John Labatt, Toronto, A Kodak Twin Twenty Camera and film.

The Ladies' Auxiliary has also donated $25.00 for prizes.

The Stouffville Women's Institute held the October meeting on Wednesday 10th at 2:15 in the Library basement. The president, Mrs Bruce Davidson opened the meeting with the singing of the Opening Ode. The roll call — a verse with Thanksgiving in it, — was well responded to by 25 members. There were 4 visitors. The meeting was turned over to the program convenor, Mrs Walter Smith. The motto was taken by Mrs A. King and the current events by Mrs F. Yeamans, both were very interesting. Mrs R. Fleury favoured with a humorous recitation, which caused considerable comment and laughter. Mrs W. Smith gave a brief review of the endeavours of the Institute for 1962-'63. Mrs H. McKay of Richmond Hill district president, brought greetings from Richmond Hill branch, congratulated us on being a very ambitious and energetic organization. Mrs Dorothy Reesor, district secretary-treasurer, also spoke a few congratulatory words. Mrs W. Watson, president of Agincourt W. I. gave a demonstration of decorating and icing cakes. Mrs G. Middleton moved a vote of thanks to Mrs Watson and presented her with a gift. Mrs W. Smith auctioned the cakes to help buyers. Tea hostesses Mrs A. Burgin and Mrs W. Sanderson.

Mr and Mrs Orvan Downer of Scarborough and Mr and Mrs Charles Tindall were visitors with Mr and Mrs Bert Tindall of Mount Albert on Saturday.

Beginning Thursday, Oct. 18 the Village shop will be serving a cup of coffee and homemade Danish pastry to their customers.

Mr and Mrs Clarence Jones, Stouffer St. moved on Saturday to Peterboro where he is presently employed.

Mrs Luella Lemon has taken a position with Mr Wm. G. Parsons, one of our local lawyers, since being retired from the York County Health Unit.

The winner of the recent Super Plenamlin Pill Guessing Contest sponsored by Houston's Rexall Drug Store is Mrs James Taylor of Claremont. Mrs Taylor was awarded a beautiful Transistor Radio valued at $69.95. Her guess of 2,065 pills was very close to the correct total of 2,081.

A meeting of the Horticultural Society will be held on Monday, October 22 at 8 p.m. in the Presbyterian basement, Main St. when the prize money will be paid for the flower shows. Pictures of local interest will be shown and music on the accordion will be given by Mrs Garth Good.

The annual meeting and Pot Luck supper will be on Friday, November 16.

If you haven't had that film processed yet, there is still time to do so, and to get your entries in the Ladies' Auxiliary Photo Contest. The contest deadline of October 20th has been extended till Nov. 3rd. Pictures taken during 1961 and '62 will be accepted. Pick up your entry blanks at Hals' Snack Bar; Aiken's Pharmacy; Houston's Drug Store, or Ted's Camera Shop.

An afternoon tea, by a group of United Church women was held at the home of Mrs Norman Baker, Rose Ave. on Thursday afternoon. This was a farewell gathering in honour of Mrs Archie Campbell a faithful member for a number of years, who along with Mr Campbell, have taken up residence in Peterborough recently. Mrs R. J. Fleury entertained with a humorous reading, Mrs Ross Winterstein read, an address and Mrs Topham made the presentation to Mrs Campbell of an Austrian Cut Vase, as a parting gift.

Rexall 1 Cent Sale "Now In Full Swing" See Back Page — Houston's, "The Rexall Drug Store."

Mrs Kathleen Maunder, the former Kathleen Freal, of Toronto was with her brother, Dr. Herbert Freal while he was recuperating at his home following a recent operation in hospital.

Mr and Mrs Henry Slack have returned home after a five weeks motor trip to the West Coast. The couple covered approximately 8,000 miles in the trip.

REXALL 1-CENT SALE "Now In Full Swing" SEE BACK PAGE HOUSTON'S "The Rexall Drug Store"

Mr Keith Cambden from King City, president of the York Presbyterian Laymen, was the special speaker at the Stouffville United Church on Sunday morning to mark Layman's Sunday. He took as his subject, "What on Earth are you doing, for Heaven's Sake."

Mr Albert Yakeley of Oshawa, Mr and Mrs Norman Yakeley of Whitby, Gordon and Elva Yakeley, Stouffville R.R. visited their mother, Mrs Chris Yakeley at the home of Mr and Mrs Herb Yakeley on Sunday evening.

Stouffville P.U.C. has received two tender prices for the installation of a new fence at the Commission property, Blake and Main Sts. However, members of the Commission agreed at the regular meeting last week that the property should be surveyed before action is taken on the fence.

The annual meeting of the Stouffville Figure Skating Club was held last week in the Municipal Building. The President for the '62-'63 season will be Mrs Dixie Sellers. The Treasurer is Mr Ian Chapman. Mrs Stapley has been returned as the Secretary. The executive includes—Aurelia Smith, Barbara Thomas, Don Huxtable and Jim Couse.

Stouffville Planning Board met for the regular October meeting on Thursday evening and approved the proposal and plan of a small addition to the east side of the Memorial Christian Church. The addition planned will improve the Sunday School entrance, give additional accommodation and it is hoped, alleviate the spring water problem which has caused considerable damage from time to time.

Mrs Erma (Burkholder) Paterson of Brantford has recently been hospitalized and is now convalescing at home.

The Liberal Ladies Association Convention held in the Royal York Hotel in Toronto was attended by a number of local ladies.

To keep your new telephone numbers handy get a desk list finder at The Stouffville Tribune — priced from $1.95 up.

Miss Jane Burkett has returned from spending a week with her niece, Mrs Don Fraser, Don and Joanne at St. Catharines.

For classified and display ad service call The Tribune after Oct. 21, at Stouffville 640-2100 or 640-2101.

Mrs Stork and daughter Penny and Mr and Mrs Clarence Wilnot of Toronto were recent guests with Mrs Will Birkett, Main St. W.

The United Missionary Church Young People enjoyed a tractor hayride on Friday evening after which nearly forty had lunch (hot chocolate and doughnuts) around a bon fire at the Harry Stover home.

The six-team Stouffville Community Hockey League swings into action on Friday night. Entries have been filed by Ringwood, Markham, Stouffville, Greenwood, Ballantrae and Uxbridge.

Stouffville P.U.C. has agreed that following the success of last year's Sunshine Special sale on electric dryers, the same "deal" should be repeated this year, and merchants are encouraged to participate.

A new instrumental music course has been opened for grade 9 students at the Stouffville Dist. High School under the direction of staff teacher, Mr H. J. Waite. One period per week is set aside for practice and when sufficient progress is made, the students will join the regular school orchestra. The instruments are supplied by the Board.

Mouth-to-mouth respiration applied by P. C. Dennis Davies, Fairview Ave., has been credited with saving the life of a 2 month old baby girl. The child was unconscious but rallied quickly. Further treatment was provided by Dr. John Button prior to admittance to hospital. The baby is now home and making good progress.

Do you know Mr. F. W. Todd?

There's a good chance that you do. He lives and works right here. He gets around quite a lot and he knows this town very well. That's part of his job.

He's the manager of your local branch of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce. And he's a good man to know. For help with financial matters or for sound advice, on anything to do with banking, he's the man to see.

If you haven't already met him, by all means call in soon. He'll be glad to see you.

CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE Over 1260 branches to serve you