LEMONVILLE NEWS

The Lemonville and Ballantyne United Churches completed an eight day Fall Rally on Sunday evening, Oct. 14th, which was held to stimulate every department of their work.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. McCombe of the New York Conference of the Methodist church were invited to direct the effort with Dr. McCombe preaching each night.

Each service held a direct approach to the message of the church for to-day's living, with a varied program of music illustrating the Sermon Topics.

On Saturday night, Dr. and Mrs. S. Stuart Crouch of Cedar Springs planned a delightful Camp Fire Service from 7:00 to 9:00. About 60 guests assembled singing around the fire. Dr. and Mrs. McCombe and the pastor Mr. Allen Grosse brought brief messages, after which the Sunday School officers served delicious refreshments.

At the closing service held, Sunday evening at Lemonville, Dr. McCombe preached a powerful sermon on the claims of the Christ of the Cross, using as his text — Hebrews 2, verse 3 "How shall we escape if we neglect so great Salvation" and assisted by the use of an eight feet snow-white Cross, Dr. and Mrs. McCombe sang an old hymn "Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow" and Mrs. Allen Grosse dramatized with them "I am coming to the Cross."

During the week Mrs. John McCombe was a guest of the Stouffville Ladies Reading Club; the United Church of Lemonville Women's Society; and the Bethesda Women's Institute.

Also Sunday, the 14th the Stouffville Youth for Christ heard Dr. and Mrs. McCombe in duets, and also brief messages and greetings from New York Methodist Conference, of which they have been members for many years.

Dr. Stuart Crouch is a younger brother of Mrs. McCombe who was born in Toronto. Dr. McCombe is a native of Belfast, Ireland. They have two children, a son and a daughter, also in New York Conference.

marriage will take place quietly on Nov. 30, 1962.
