CARDS OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends, neighbors and relatives for the lovely cards, flowers and gifts I received while in Cottage Hospital. A special thanks to Dr. MacIntyre and Dr. Button, also nurses and staff for all their care and kindness to me. It was all very much appreciated.
 Mrs. John Symes Sr.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the Fire Departments, South West Pickering, Claremont and Brougham, who answered the call to the fire at my shop; also to the many men who came to clean up the building after the fire.
 Robert A. Miller.

I would like to thank all my friends, relatives and neighbors for their kind deeds of cards, baskets of fruit and visits to my husband during his long stay in the hospital. I am sure I will never be able to repay all this. A special thanks to those who so willingly took me to the hospital while he was in Toronto, and to the men who so capably helped with the fall work in getting it done, and a very special thank you to my many Christian friends for their prayers which gave me strength to go on over this long term of sickness. To one and all may God abundantly reward you.
 Mrs. Ivan McLaughlin.

CEDAR GROVE

It is no wonder the children in Cedar Grove look forward with such joyous and mischievous anticipation to Halloween. Halloween is second only to Christmas. Last Wednesday afternoon the traditional party was given by the children of S.S. 20 for their parents and friends. The school was gay with witches and cats along the top of the blackboards and underneath a neat display of arithmetic showed the mothers that other things beside parties were also considered.

A wonderful array of jack-o-lanterns bedecked the window sills, some with smiling faces, some looking grim or sad and one looked startled by the event. Into this eerie atmosphere paraded a host of unidentifiable tramps, ghosts, witches, a thing from the Twilight Zone, flowers with small beaming faces, Indians, one complete with papoose, pirates, sweet old ladies and frivolous young girls. Even Yogi Bear was in the parade and there were a pair of dice.

Before prizes could be given for the best costumes, it was necessary for the judges (Blodwen Davies, Margaret Yeaman and Aljean Chapman) to ask that the boys and girls be separated. It was impossible to tell them apart. An Indian Squaw, who was Marion Reesor, a flower, who was Mary Crichton and a walking die who was Donna Tyler won the girl's prizes and a very, very fat fellow, a tramp and a pirate, who were Ricky Lapp, Simon Davis and Raymond Reesor won the boy's. The pre-schoolers, dressed

Over 800 Attend Bell "At Home"

H. C. Barnes, Bell Telephone Company manager for this region termed the Open House, held last Thursday and Friday at the new dial exchange building a "huge success."
 "Most of the thanks goes to the any visitors we had from the Stouffville area," he said. "Without them the open house wouldn't have been possible."
 The manager said that attendance totaled 836, with Friday night having the larger turnout. A number of town officials visited the exchange on Thursday. Children swelled the groups of touring citizens on Friday.

Visitors saw how a "test panel" works, and how the actual crossbar switching equipment functions. At the rear of the central office a number of Bell vehicles including a digger and two cars equipped with mobile telephones were on display. Special trained guides from the Bell conducted the tour.

Continuing on to the Masonic Hall visitors found a number of displays illustrating Direct Distance Dialing, and telephones of tomorrow and yesteryear. Light refreshments were served.
 Mr. Barnes pointed out that the Bell has a complete program bureau at the disposal of customers. Speakers for both men's and women's groups, tours of Bell buildings and a number of entertaining films are all available.

"If any group feels they would like to see more of how Bell handles DDD calls and billing they can arrange a tour of our Asquith Ave. building in Toronto by calling 929-6805 in Toronto and reversing the charges," he said.
 "Similarly by calling this number you can arrange for a speaker to talk to your group or a film to be shown on a suitable topic."

The afternoon closed after the children, perfect hosts, served lunch which included Mrs. Bank's artistic cookies — to go to eat.
 Wednesday night the goblins gobbled all over the village filling their bags and baskets with shell-outs and their UNICEF boxes with change. There seemed to be a lot of youngsters this year and they all had a marvellous time between the guessing-who under disguises and the heavy bags of candy, cookies and apples.

The Bowlers took advantage of Halloween coming on Bowling night and turned the usual session into a masquerade. The children were hustled through their rounds so parents could don their own disguises and join their fellow bowlers.
 Still on the subject of Halloween... Jean Allan and her class were pictured on Metro news in the middle of their ghostly festivities.

The United Church Women took the service at Zion church on Sunday morning providing an interesting and feminine morning. Mrs. Austin Reesor played the organ and the very sweet voices of the CGIT, under the direction of Evelyn Whitmore, provided the music with a recent visitor to the Holy Land, Dr. Nancy Edwards, as the guest speaker.
 Sorry to hear Gwen Allchurch was in hospital but she is home again now.
 Ruby and Mabel Reesor have an order for 3,000 cookies for the Bell Telephone Open House this week.
