THE CORPORATION OF THE VILLAGE OF STOUFFVILLE

The following question will be submitted to the electors of the Village of Stouffville:

"Are you in favour of acquiring land for the purpose of sites for the establishment and carrying on of industrial and industrial operations and uses incidental thereto?"

I, R. E. Corner, Clerk of the Village of Stouffville hereby certify that the above is a true copy of the question that will be submitted.

Signed R. E. Corner.

The vote on the said question shall be taken at the municipal election on December 3rd, 1962 between the hours of 10:00 A.M. in the forenoon and 8:00 P.M. in the afternoon.

The Municipal Offices shall be the place where and Monday, December 3rd, 1962 at 8:00 o'clock in the afternoon shall be the time when the Clerk of the Village of Stouffville will sum up the number of votes in the affirmative and the negative on the question.

The above question is submitted for the sole purpose of obtaining an opinion from the electors.

An affirmative vote does not authorize Council to purchase industrial sites without "submitting the question again to obtain the assent of the electors qualified to vote on money by-laws" or "by obtaining the approval of the Department of Municipal Affairs" to make such purchase.

In either case a By-Law of Council would be required stating the amount of money required for the said purpose before submitting the question to the electors; or before approval from the Department is requested.

When a by-law of a Municipality providing for the expenditure of public funds to purchase lands for industrial purposes is referred to the Department of Municipal Affairs for approval, the Department will not dictate as to the purchase price of the lands but it will carefully scrutinize any sale or lease of lands for industrial purposes, and will not approve any sale whereby the Municipality sells or leases the land at a loss to the Municipality in order to offer an inducement to an industry to locate in the Municipality. It is also contrary to the Municipal Act for a Municipality to enter into any Agreement for a fixed assessment with an industry for any period of time.

FARM REPORT

In the last few weeks, we have heard and read a great deal about the milk business. Very few of the views expressed have come from dairy farmers. Most of the talk has come from those on the other side, including leaders of consumer groups, and farm writers who have attempted to uncover the cause of the trouble in the dairy industry. Fluid milk producers have not fared very well in this publicity. Consumer groups have expressed horror at the very thought of producers supporting a price increase. Several articles have laid the surplus problem on the doorstep of the fluid men. The general thought is that fluid producers are morally obligated to cut back production and at the same time think of lower milk prices rather than making efforts to get the price higher. These points of view may sound reasonable, and are fine for any one not making his living from milking cows. But the people who are talking this way should experience their moment of truth if they were asked to accept a lower income in the interests of the national economy. The "live and let live" philosophy always sounds good, but somehow we all have a strange habit of thinking that it fits some other group better than ourselves. A dairy farmer cutting production would be in the same position as a merchant in town closing his store for a few days each week to give his competitors a better chance.

I contend that the milk business looks very different to a dairy farmer, than it does to those of us on the outside. On his farm, he is under constant pressure to provide a standard of living for his family something like that enjoyed by the rest of the country. He is in business, surrounded by those who hold free-enterprise and the profit incentive sacred. Other business men who get ahead quickly, are the most respected men in the community. How do the problems of the cost of living and surpluses look to a man who this year paid more for a new tractor, paid higher taxes, paid higher labour bills and paid more for his own family living than ever before. It's a cold hard fact that since 1959, the Canadian wholesale price index has risen 8%, average weekly earnings have gone up 12 1/2%, while milk has remained the same.

Those who criticize milk producers for their efforts to maintain and improve their lot, are free to take their stand, but they must in return be prepared to plead guilty for an element of hypocrisy in their attitude.

This, of course, doesn't solve any of the surplus problems, which are quite serious. But if the solution is to come from dairy farmers themselves, let's be realistic and not expect one group to step forward, anxious to sacrifice advantages that may be the result of many years of hard work.
