FOUR CAN BE CROWDED.

Yes, in a small apartment, a family of four can be crowded. That's why this family decided to build a home of their own. And this father has already made one wise decision. He has told his Sun Life agent that he wants to take out a Sun Life Mortgage Protection Policy. In that way, the house will really belong to his family if he should die prematurely.

Your home is one of your most important possessions. Let me help you safeguard it for your family.
