daughter of Mr and Mrs Rodney J. Nelson of Ringwood. The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Clarence R. Sturdy, Richmond Hill. —Cadieux Studio.

STURDY—NELSON
Stouffville United Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Muriel Diane Nelson, daughter of Mr and Mrs Rodney J. Nelson of Ringwood and Lawrence Roy Sturdy, son of Mr and Mrs Clarence R. Sturdy, 214 Lawrence Ave., Richmond Hill, Ont. Rev. G. Cruikshank officiated at the double ring candlelight service on Saturday, Nov. 24, 1962 at seven o'clock. Red and white mums and candelabras decorated the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace over ivory brocade taffeta, featuring a round neckline edged with daisy trim, each flowerette centered with a pearl. The long pointed sleeves had a matching edging. The back skirt formed a slight train effect beneath the alternate tiers of lace and tulle. A coronet of crystal beads held her shoulder length veil. She carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of white roses, with streamers knotted with fern and tiny rosebuds.

Mrs Ross Hastings of Midland, Matron of Honour, and bridesmaids, Miss Gail Nelson, sister of the bride, of Ringwood, Misses Sharon and Gail Sturdy, of Richmond Hill, sisters of the groom, were dressed alike in red velvet street length dresses carrying red muffs with white maribou trim and white rose buds. Their head pieces were of white maribou and tulle veiling.

Assisting the groom was the best man, Mr Douglas Stewart of Markham and ushers, Tom Ingram of Richmond Hill and George Corlett of Thornhill, a cousin of the bride.

Miss Lynda Nolan accompanied by her mother, Mrs Chas. Nolan, at the organ, sang the wedding prayer and the wedding hymn. At the buffet supper which was held in the church basement, the cake was cut with the same knife the bride's grandmother and grandfather Snider used to cut their wedding cake, fifty years ago.

For receiving her guests, the bride's mother chose a French gold brocade with green accessories and a corsage of bronze and yellow mums. The groom's mother wore a blue double knit suit with white and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations.

For a honeymoon spent in Florida, the bride chose a red wool sheath, black coat and corsage of white roses. On their return they will reside at 165 Colbourne Ave., Richmond Hill.

Guests were present at the wedding from Midland, Willowdale, Woodstock, Weston, Belleville, Downsview, Chicago, Toronto, Thornhill, Keswick, Milton and Richmond Hill.

CAT-NAP BECOMES A NIGHTMARE

Every morning, "Fluffy", a pet Persian cat is let out the front door at the home of Mr and Mrs Charles Boss, Second St., Stouffville and every morning, for some unknown reason, it would climb up on the rear axle of the owner's 1958 model station wagon for a few winks of extra sleep. Usually, it jumps off before the auto has gone only a short distance. One day, it retained its precarious perch all the way to Markham.

On Wednesday morning of last week it was Mr Boss' turn to drive to his work at the Ontario Hydro offices in Willowdale, a distance of 23 miles. A few hours after his arrival, he went out to check his car and there, large as life, sat "Fluffy".

Office girls on the Hydro staff gave him a royal reception and rewarded the pet with a late breakfast of bread and milk. That afternoon, "Fluffy" was returned home but this time it rode on the rear seat and not on the rear axle.

Mr Boss is unable to explain how the cat managed to hang on over the twenty-three mile distance. "It wasn't even equipped with safety belts," he joked.
