Saturday, this gleaming 1931 caught the judge's eye in the

At the Speed-Sport '63 Ford Touring Model "A" 4- antique class. He was presentshow held at the Queen Eliza- door deluxe sedan owned by ed with this beautiful trophy beth Building, Toronto, on Harvey Bunker of Goodwood by Miss Canada of 1961.

-Staff Photo.

$50 Doll night) some lucky ticket - draw will be part of the local program to mark Minor

Hockey Week in Stouffville.

ed in fifty $1.00 bills. The Cemetery.

Few Changes Made In

Whitchurch Assessment

-Staff Photo. | night, Feb. 7th.

Rural Organizations Divided On Pickering Assessment Dispute

ests between two rural farm ster of Health, Hon. M. B. Dyorganizations in the Twp of mond and Minister of Munici-Pickering was widened this pal Affairs, Hon. J. Wilfred week with the announcement Spooner have agreed to be presthat no representative of the ent. Pickering Farmer's Committee Executive would attend a pub-Pickering Twp. Rural Ratepayer's Association.

The Farmer's Committee is headed by Mr. Joe Tran. The Rural Ratepayers are promoted by Prof. Eugene LaBrie and Robt, G. Roy. In a statement of policy submitted to The Tribune by Mr. Tran, it was pointed out that his committee wished in no way to malign the character or posi-tion of anyone in township of Markham Sells fice. "The firing of Mr. Goslin (Assessment Commissioner) and the upsetting of the present Council will, in no way, help To Yield 51/2 % help our present situation and in no way, change our assessments," said Mr. Tran.

Mr. Elliott Harrington, Pres day at a price of 98.359 to ident of the parent Scarboro yield 51/2% for twenty years. and Associated Township Farm Greenshields Incorporated and ers said that the organization the Canadian Imperial Bank of did not wish to engage in a Commerce took the entire issue. personal attack against anyone. The debentures were for a local The policy stand is published on Improvement program for watpage 9 of this issue. Call For Dismissal Prof. La Brie and Mr. Roy. on the other hand, have called for the dismissal of Mr. Goslin from office. In addition, in a published pamphlet, Mr. Roy Lions Club Farmers' Night has also criticized some mem-banquet on Monday. Dr. Abell municipal leaders.

A suggested division of inter in Brougham next week. Mini Speaking in regard to the meeting, Mr. Harrington said lic meeting in Brougham on that the Pickering Farmer's Wednesday, Feb. 6th. The gath-Committee could decide for ering has been arranged by the themselves if they wished to attend. Mr. Tran told The Tribune that he definitely would not be there. He said that the organization had already made their wishes known to Premier Robarts at a special meeting at Queen's Park on Feb. 23rd and had also explained their assessment problems to Dr. Dymond and Mr. Spooner.

Debentures

Markham Township disposed of approximately $150,000 in waterworks debentures on Moner lines in two west side sub-

Dr. Helen Abell was the guest speaker at the annual bers of council and former who has performed world-wide service ... for . Government and Mr. Roy has arranged for United Nations Departments, is two Ontario Cabinet Ministers a Stouffville girl, daughter of to attend the public gatherine Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Abell.

Cows "Climatized" To Loafing Barn System

cows have become "climatized" had stricken several of the Robt. Kennedy. to the open air freedom of a stock with pneumonia. He noted Jos. Feder of Toronto, was implements and operated with loafing barn system put into too, that since the change-over, allowed a rebate on tax on a hired help. He said that in the practice on the farm of Mr. he had only one cow with property which he claimed was summer he was able to spend Gordon Cox, conc. 9, Markham. "hardware" in its stomach. vacant for a portion of the many hours on the farm. Even the sub-zero temperatures Such operations had been quite year. Miss Audrey Leary had of the past week had no adverse common before. He said that disposed of 14 acres of her 118effect on the hardy Holsteins since he had adopted the loaf- acre farm to the Highways that continue to produce a half ing barn system, many new im. Department, and the Judge incan of milk per cow per day.

major change-over after a dis- vised that anyone contemplat. Mr. and Mrs. T. Trent had the astrous fire levelled his historic ing such a move would be assessment on a Musselman's "round barn" on May 9, 1959. He visited many farm premises before finalizing his decision to for better results," he said. The to winterizing. adopt the present plan now in milk is picked up by Taylor use. "I was a little sceptical at first," admitted the owner, "but if I had to do it over again, I would do the same thing." He pointed out that the expense involved in tearing down an old barn, moving it to the desired site, re-building it on a new foundation and installing the necessary services would have cost may thousands of dollars. At milking time, the cows line up like so many soldiers and walk into four separate stalls where they are milked, fed and then released through an automatic auger this sum- dismissed by Judge Weaver. a runway exit. It takes about

No Sick Cows He noted that before, exposures | cows have no complaints.

Forty-two head of milch to drafts in the warm stable Assessment Commissioner provements had been perfected structed that she be relieved of better to do a complete job. Lake cottage reduced by $100. "One should go all the way It had been increased $500 due Bros. Transport at Markham and shipped to Markham Dairy. Room For 60 Cows

The buildings are so constructed on the Cox farm that the cattle are provided with an adequate wind-break. At night, there is room for 60 cows to take cover in a well-strawed enclosure. A feed trough is located in the centre of the yard and two water bowls are electrically heated. At the present time, brewer's grains are carted to the troughs by wheelmer. The animals "sleeping Veterinary calls have been . There has been quite a trans- of Revision, the owner said he the Christmas examinations reduced to almost nil on, the formation on this Markham had ambitions to make his fifty held just prior to the Christ-Cox farm. Udder accidents that Township farm in the past acres, a "push-button farm." mas vacation period. plague many farmers who four years. The owner is satis- Mr. Posnikon had originally Helen Busato came first in a keep their cattle in permanent fied with the results of his farmed in Vaughan, but had class of 42. Her average was enclosures have also been cut. venture and the high-level pro-sold out and purchased fifty 82.9 per cent. Gerald Dawson we hardly ever have a sick duction figures on the milk acres in Whitchurch. He estable was second with an average of cow anymore," said Mr. Cox. chart would indicate that the ished an electronic firm in New- 81 per cent. Joy Wooller was

The appeal of Morris and David Vanek on Wilcox Lake the court his farm on the 3rd pressure he had failed to appeal | mity of the dump, which he the assessment last year. He said, devalued his property by said that the property had been $20,000. appeals before on this property purchased the property. Crawford that the list revealed find no grounds for appeal and appeals had been made each dismissed the case. barrow but Mr. Cox may install year. Over an hour was spent on the case which was finally

11/2 hours to milk the Cox herd. a year with a tractor and power koff created considerable interest since at the township Court obtained honour standing on market of which he was presi- third with an average of 80.7%

Judge Weaver sitting at | dent and general manager. As Whitchurch Twp. Council the owner of the farm is en-Chambers on Monday to hear gaged in a business outside the several appeals against the farm, the house on the place township assessment, made few was assessed as a separate changes in the figures set up by unit from the land.

> Mr. Posnikoff stated he had 50 head of cattle, a full line of Mr. Lucas said that Whitchurch had a large number of "gentleman farmers." Judge Weaver stated that in such cases he always considered Mr. Cox embarked on the in labour-saving devices. He ad the assessment on this portion. as to whether the land was bought for speculation. He said that in this appeal this was not the case and he instructed the residence and land be assessed as one property. Mr. R. P. Leggett who told property which they valued at concession near the Buchanan $35,000, was rejected. Vanek dump, had cost him $40,000, stated that due to business appealed because of the proxi-offered for sale but there had Mr. Leggett admitted to Mr. been no blds. Solicitor Lucas Lucas that he knew the dump asked if there had ever been was located there before he and was advised by Clerk Jack Judge Weaver said he could

Honour Students

Three students of grade 13

The Stouffville Tribune

THE TRIBUNE, STOUFFVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1963 Vol. 74. No. 34.

Town Police Acting To Break Wage "Freeze"

Leslie Rowbotham Was

Resident Here 58 Yrs.

here and in his 85th year, W. Leslie Rowbotham died sudden-seizure. Mr. Rowbotham whose wife, Nettie Reesor of Altona Army Band

Stouffville Police Department are taking action to attempt to break the municipal council's wage "freeze" which was agreed upon at the last council meeting. Council members took the stand this year that there should be no increases in salary in any department. in any department.

The three policemen are asking for an annual salary equal to that being paid officers in Markham Township. It is understood that they are not permitted to become members of a union, but may seek to have their wage grievances arbitrat-

The policemen have engaged legal counsel locally and their case is expected to come before council at the first regular meeting in February. Council members met in committee to discuss the subject last week but took no action to reverse their earlier decision that wages in 1963 should be maintained at the '62 level.

Fifty-eight years a resident ly Monday night following a predeceased him by 20 years, is survived by a son, Donald R. and a brother Frank.

Born at Victoria Square and growing up in his father's wheelwright shop and cousin's adjoining blacksmith shop, Mr.

Rowbotham's early training produced a lifelong interest in a, wide variety, of skills which he has continued to enjoy as a

An expert mechanic in later years, his first trade, learned from his father, was Painting and Decorating, specializing in wood-graining which may still be seen in many well-preserved

Gormley area homes. After coming to Stouffville in 1905

Mr. Rowbotham was successful in several businesses, including

Stouffville Bakery Company which he operated in partnership with his brother Frank until latter part of World War

Confectionery stores later sold structed a residential elevator in his home and even in periods of uncertain health has continued using the equipment which

The funeral will be conducted

Church at 2:00 on Thursday holder will win this doll dress- with interment at Stouffville in less than thirty minutes.

The regular meeting of Stouffville . municipal -council will be held next Thursday

On Thursday evening (to by Rev. Bass of Stouffville stroyed by fire on Tuesday he moved to his basement.

hobby since retiring.

A coroner's inquest was conducted by Dr. John Fleming of Markham on Wednesday night into the death of three Milliken children in a tragic house fire on Sunday, Jan. 6th.

The Hearing was held in the municipal chambers at Buttonville in Markham Twp. in the blaze. The parents and two other children escaped.

Entertains

A crowded assembly hall of more than 400 students were thrilled last week with a varied and colourful fifty minute program presented by 38 members of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals from Kingston.

Their attendance at the Stouffville Dist. High School was arranged by the Principal, Mr. W.

E. Duxbury, early in the fall term. Their leader, Capt.

Student's Council.

I. He then turned to store-keep. Europe. They played at The ing, owning the Grocery and World's Fair in Seattle, Wash.

to Mr. and Mrs. Porter. Mr. Rowbotham's final enterprise Fire Destroys Repair, for which he became well-known. In 1950 he constructed a resident and large was and large well-known. In 1950 he constructed a resident and large well-known are structed as resident and large was a resident with the large was a resident was a resident with the large was a resident w

Adams, was introduced by War-

Regaled in uniforms of scarlet, the unit filled into the auditorium in precision drill and in the United States and A park workshop at the Claremont Conservation Area, conc. 7, Pickering Twp. was deonly one year ago, was levelled and fed by containers of varnish and other combustible materials, it quickly enveloped the building. A number of picnic tables, power tools and pieces of park equipment were

Firemen from Brougham were summoned to the scene.

A large water tank truck was called in from South-West Pickering but it became marooned building without injury.

The blaze started in a tractor

Investment Firm Plans to Build Neighborhood Shopping Place

The company planning the development is the Napanee Investment Corporation, and representatives told Planning Board members that they would make an early start on the project this spring if approval was granted.

ly two hundred cars. The stores, economy of the municipality.
the representatives stated, The Napanee Company has would be chiefly of a service also purchased some two dozen The inquest jury compristype, with the exception of a lots remaining in the Watson large grocery and a two thouslarge gr

the company and the major tenants believed there was ample shopping being drained away from the nearby area to provide a good market. During the discussions it was stated that the proposed type of neighborhood shopping would enhance the town, en-Clara, Judy and Cathy O'Day, family of Mr. and Scaped highway entrance with including industry, and would paved parking for approximate do little to damage the existing of the Barry property, located division as soon as weather between Patrick Motors and the permits.

Plans have been presented to Stouffville Planning Board for a seven-store neighborhood shopping place on Main Street west. The plan was approved by the Board on Thursday evening and it will now go to the municipal council for further scrutiny and final approval.

Coffey & Bartley Ford Agency. The large barn now on the property would be demolished and there would be access to the south in case of residential development in that direction. The representatives stated that the area had been intensely surveyed with the results that the company and the major The firm of M. and D. Ken-> the erection of a new addition to the Stouffville Dist. High School. The decision was finalized by the Board this week. The bid of $228,324.00 was the lowest of eight tenders received. This figure does not include architects fees or the nedy of Barrie, Ont., submitted the successful tender for

There was a difference of $36,000 between the high and the low bid.

cost of additional equipment.

The work is to be completed for the opening of the fall term in September, 1963.

Offerings Over $15,000, Second Markham Baptist meeting of Second Markham lipines. Evangelical Baptists Baptist Church was held on are now preparing to enter In-Wednesday evening, Jan. 23rd. dia and this church is looking Rev. Bruce Hisey has been pas- forward to having the privilege tor of this church for nearly of sharing in this work also. seven years and this past year Deacons of the church for has in many respects been the 1963 are Floyd Ratcliff, Keith greatest in the church's history. Hutchinson, Neil Conner, Doug- Would Keep Total offerings reached an all las Wood, Earl Brillinger and time high of $15,336.00 and Bruce Hisey. Trustees are Al- Chemicals Out mission offerings also set a new mour Clarke. Arthur, Paisley mark of well over $7,000.00.

have been very well attended Ratcliff is Church Clerk. ... even throughout the summer Missionaries, Bob and Hazel Clubine, returned to Jamaica in ren Hendricks, President of the their furlough in this district. and the Wellers will be soon services as well as in Bible be used. returning to their respective School during recent weeks. of the platform. This army band is widely travelled, having performed across Canada and

The 114th annual business | fields in Ecuador and the Phil

Floyd Ratcliff and Harry Among forward steps taken Clendenning. The General The County of Wentworth during 1962 was the commence- Treasurer is Mrs. Harry Clen- has presented a resolution to

Floyd Rodin is General Super-

$400 Damage To Car Which Hit Cow

A car and a cow collided on 17th Avenue, Markham Twp. on Monday evening and the car suffered an estimated $400 damage. The cow struggled to its feet and walked away. The auto was driven by Russell Holder, Elm Road, Stouffville. The cow was, owned by Mirth Johnson, R.R.2, Gormley.

Of Detergents

ment in July of regular Sunday denning and the Missions treas- the Provincial Government reevening gospel services. These urer is Jack Clubine. Charles questing that legislation be brought in to prohibit the use or a chemical base in the manuintendent of the Bible School facture of detergents, as it is which had an average attend- found that they have an adverse ance of 123, in five departments. effect on the treatment process the summer after spending There has been a definite up of disposal plants. It was sugswing in attendance at worship gested that a vegetable base

Markham Township Council agreed on Monday to support the resolution. 30 Families on Relief

The Welfare Officer's report for the last half of 1962 revealed that there were 30 heads of families on relief during this period. Of this number 24 were unemployable. The total number of dependents receiving assistance was 106 and there were 28 single persons.

Corner Coming Soon Whitchurch Township Coun- lities at this contentious corner

1960, would soon be completed. "The job must be finished this year," declared councillor Ivan Local Boys Leave Present holdup is the obtain On Trip Around ing of a piece of property from Mr. and Mrs. Carl Insley on the The World Congregational Christian morning. The structure, erected northeast corner. Council agreed to wait one more week for a figure from Mr. Insley on what he would agree to accept for the land: There appears to be some doubt as to the location of a number of readside trees, whether they are on township property or on Mr. Insley's deed to ten ft. additional land Harold: Manuel. both on the west and south so The three young men expect Scarboro. on a hill west of the park en- land.

A park employee, Jas. Murdock was working inside the shop when the fire started. He expropriation. was able to escape from the

There have been several fata. Australia.

cil expressed hope Monday which is a heavily-travelled night that negotiations on the truck route running east and widening of the Bloomington west and a main line to Mus-sideroad corner which began in selman's Lake north and south.

Agincourt, Terry Wise of Mark- annual meeting in Buttonville. ham and Douglas Hatch of Tor- Other members of the 1963 onto, left this week from New executive will be Harold Cowie York aboard the Holland-Ameri- and Stuart Rumble, vice-presican Liner "Ryndam", on a dents, and Walter Craig, secrehitch-hiking trip around the tary-treasurer. world. Hilyard Manuel who at- Although all of the township land. Reeve Frank Williams tended high school in Stouff- is in the provincial riding of said that the township held a ville, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. York North, the southern part that he was almost certain the to be away for two years and . Head table guests included trees would be on Whitchurch will work their passage from John Addison, M.P. and Mrs. place to place. They are headed Addison, Maurice Moreau, fed-Council agreed without mo- initially for Woking in Surrey eral candidate for York-Scartion to await Mr. Insley's final where they have a construction boro and Mrs. Moreau, and Dooffer before proceeding with an job waiting for them. They also nald Plaxton, Richmond Hill, have employment lined up in provincial candidate in the last

Don Deacon Heads Markham Twp. Liberals

Hilyard Manuel of Mussel- president of Markham Townman's Lake and presently of ship Liberal Association at its is in the federal riding of York-election, and Mrs. Plaxton.

Guard of Honour Welcomes Premier public schools in Markham, under the Elmer Safety Pro- Premier's arrival, safety pa-

Premier of Ontario, Hon. on Monday afternoon for gram, has equalled this per- trol members formed a guard John Robarts paid tribute to their seven year, accident- formance in the entire Prov- of honour at the entrance to more than 1000 students of two free record. No other school, ince. On the occasion of the Robinson school.

-Staff Photo.