AROUND TOWN with Win Packer

Sewing machines are humming in many homes these days and after looking over the lovely new spring prints at Thurston's, I've got some ideas. Something usually hard to find is colored flannelette so you'll be glad to know Thurston's have some beautiful bright solid shades of pink, yellow and several shades of blue including turquoise, and the most heavenly sky blue at only 59c a yard. There are polished cotton prints that would be ideal for summer skirts or even bedspreads and drapes — easily stitched on the machine if you remember to put the glazed side down — and the glaze remains after many launderings if the material is washed with mild soap flakes — detergents remove the glaze. Then what really caught my eye was the stock of new printed poplins — just the right thing for summer shorts and tops. Of course you can get your complete line of findings too - matching threads, zippers, patterns and a new lining of light weight woven Veriform to give that professional "body" where stiffening is required . . . all at Thurston's.

Do you have the mid-winter blues? Do you feel you look like something left over from a rummage sale? Are you wondering just how to express your love to your special Valentine? Will it be with a cards, with flowers, of with the ultimate symbol of lovers everywhere - a diamond ring? Of course, if you are planning a wedding in June, an engagement ring given and received on Valentine's will always have a special sentimental value. Perhaps, though, you have been married for years but have never managed to present your love with the ring you'd really like her to have. Then why not make this Valentine's day a memorable one for you both, by choosing a re-engagement ring . . . or by having a new setting to replace the modest stone of her original ring? Then the place to visit is Wagg's Jewellery Store. You'll be delighted with all their beautiful diamond rings - and with their very reasonable prices too. Perhaps you'd prefer to select a piece of jewellery, or a watch from their wide selection. Whatever is your choice, this year make it a Valentine she'll always treasure - from Wagg's Jewellery.

It's a wise and thrifty homemaker who plans her meals around a supply of meat in the freezer, and it's an appreciative family who enjoys the meals she prepares when that freezer is stocked with a quarter of beef from Schell's Food Market, for they expertly cut, package and quick freeze their own prime beef - and as you will agree. Schell's beef is always choice quality and tender eating. And here's a tip from an expert - ask Schell's to cut your steaks at least an inch thick, then broil them (cut into four inch servings) for eight minutes a side, and you'll enjoy the best steaks you ever tasted, brown and sizzling with tender juiciness inside. And it you want to thaw your meat in a hurry, a fan speeds the thawing. You know, of course that roasts can be cooked quite successfully without pre-thawing, although they take a little longer.

If you have a blanket that's too small, stitch a strip of heavy cotton, or a piece of old blanket to the bottom. This can be tucked in under the mattress, out of sight, anchoring that wandering blanket where it will do most good on a chilly night, and with the blanket tucked around a new Serta Perfect Sleeper mattress you'll sleep like a baby for the famous Serta mattresses provide perfect sleeping comfort. From the precise workmanship of the spring construction with the sag-proof V-Spring edge, to the beautiful damask covering, quilted to polyfoam filler, there's quality throughout. In Herb Kring's upstairs showroom, there's a complete display of all sizes of Serta box springs and mattresses with special price tags while the stock lasts - the regular $59.95 line reduced to $39.95, or $75.00 a pair - the $69.95 line for only $19.95 -, real guarantees of a "good-night and sweet dreams".

The installation of the 1963 officers for York Presbyterial U.C.W. was taken by Rev. R. J. McNaught of Queensville.

> In the afternoon session, eight groups participated in one hour conferences led by competent personnel. The guest speaker, Miss Ruth McLeod, missionary from Formosa, gave a concise account of Christian development among the Chinese in this small tropical mountainous island, which is 250 miles long and 85 miles wide. How every month a church is built by the people themselves either on the plains or in the mountainous areas. A poster illustrating a worship-centred family; the part taken by the women in U.M.S. work, and the fact that a number of the women are elders in their churches, all showed a part only of the work done by Christian leaders and teachers such as Miss McLeod.

There are to be three workshops to be conducted in Feb. at Maple. Queensville and Mt. Albert. The next executive meeting is to be at Richmond Hill in March.

Mrs. G. N. Fish wrote and coached a playlet "U.C.W. Flashback" with several Aurora ladies acting out a part. This playlet showed how fellowship, Bible Study, money making activities and harmony were achieved throughout the U.C.W. meetings

The closing worship by Mrs H. Sanders of Sutton revealed that Basic Truths are still fundamental and that to seek Peace and Understanding we must go to the Bible for study and help to follow Jesus, our pattern of a life of compassionate love.
