Mrs. W. Sandle
 District Lions Club
 "To see or not to see" was very definitely the question at the Lions meeting on Feb. 19th at the Community Hall. The subject of the guest speaker, Dr. E. John Wylie was "Driver's Vision", and concerned the motorist and what he can or cannot see under different circumstances.

As a graduate of the Ontario College of Optometry and chairman of the Motorists Vision Committee of the Optometric Assoc. for the last four years, Dr. Wylie was very well qualified in his subject and gave a most interesting and informative talk. The interest of the members was evinced by a barrage of questions which continued over into the refreshment time. After the end of the meeting, Lion Carl Walker introduced Dr. Wylie and Lion Harvey Collard thanked him appropriately.

Another excellent evening is scheduled for the meeting on March 5th, when Mr. George McCague, a well-known local man, will be the guest speaker, at the Agricultural Night in his capacity as chairman of the Ontario Products Marketing Board.

The 2nd York Central Land Rangers, 1st Gormley Guide Company and 1st Gormley Brownie Pack held their Thinking Day programme on Thursday evening at the Melville United Church.

four lighted candles representing the four corners of the earth. The Rangers then read a short story to the Brownies and had them follow the stepping stones to the woods, where they found Brown Owl with the new toadstool and a lovely green mat which the Rangers made for them to put under the toadstool. The Brownies carried the mat and toadstool in and placed them inside the fairy-ring. Their programme continued with the lighting of two more candles, one in memory of Lord Baden-Powell, the other to celebrate the birthday of our World Guide. They sang "Happy Birthday" and passed a ribbon around the circle tying a knot when the ends met. This was to encompass all Brownies all over the world, then they repeated the Brownie promise. To close their part of the ceremony the Brownies laid a circle of pennies around the globe. These pennies go to the World Friendship Fund.

The Guides and Rangers then took over and formed a horseshoe. In the centre of the shoe was a large map of the world, with red ribbons running from Canada, Sweden, Finland, Argentina, Norway, Germany, Austria, Haiti, Belgium, Italy and Luxembourg to the outside edges of the map where eleven large white candles stood.

The Guide ceremony started with the colour party unfurling the flag and the singing of "God Save the Queen" then the Lord's Prayer and Guide Prayer. One of the Guides then lit the candle for Canada, and everyone repeated the Guide promise while thinking of Guides throughout the world. Mrs. Hornby, 1st. Lieut. of the Guides gave a short narration of what Thinking Day, (Feb. 22) stands for.

AROUND TOWN

Cold, bare floors around your house? Well you can start walking on air, because Thurston's have taken advantage of a manufacturer's clearance of carpeting and have some terrific bargains to offer... odd sizes in viscose or all wool broadloom in a deep selection of colors, all specially priced. For example, a deep-pile twist 12' x 8 1/2' in a lovely cinnamon-brown is priced at only $94.00! How's that for a bargain? You just can't afford to be without rugs at that price. I also saw some beautifully patterned Axminster hall or stair carpeting at a real bargain price. And in case you didn't know, Thurston's Store now have a fine stock of quality broadloom for wall-to-wall or rug-size floor covering and offer complete installation service by their rug expert. You'll be pleased with their selection — and their service!

That friendly voice "Avon Calling" when we answer the doorbell is familiar to us all. I've just found out there's a new representative for Avon cosmetics in Stouffville — Mrs. Else Bevan, and she's one of the friendliest persons I've ever met. I'm sure you'll be glad to have her show you the complete line of Avon products. I especially recommend the Moisture Cream make-up base, the Cream Sachet Perfume and the Cologne Mist, all done up in beautiful jewel-top jars perfect for gifts. Avon's Hi-Light Shampoo comes in a plastic squeeze bottle which regulates the amount applied for a thorough cleansing of the hair — real economy packaging. A favorite Avon scent used in all your make-up gives such a feeling of daintiness — no conflicting perfumes which can be overpowering. So all you ladies in the West End — look for Else to come calling, and in case you are running low in any beauty aid, give her a call any evening at 640-1443.

Dropped into Hendricks Hardware again this week to see how the transformation progresses... it does... and to pick up another can of spray paint... you know the bomb that requires only a touch of a finger to produce a complete paint job. Around our house practically everything old and tired-looking falls prey to the spray. Rusted metal waste baskets, spraved inside and out become gilded decorative additions to the bedrooms; odd saucers and chipped bowls, now copper-toned, proudly hold plants in any room; brown paper bags become gold or silver gift wrap... just with a couple of swishes of spray paint. A coating of red or blue sprayed on toys and trivets, garden tools and outdoor furniture, or pastels on baby's crib or playpen, makes them new looking in a matter of minutes. Why not nick up a can or two at Hendricks Hardware to brighten up the scene at your house?

The big news this week is the parade of spring and summer fashions from the Village Shop. To be modelled tomorrow evening at the Anglican Church Hall. Eleven gorgeous gals will show us what's new in the fashion world with everything from splashy natio' shifts to tailored Pantline street suits of pure silk; cool and crisp casuals and high style resort and beach wear... more than thirty costumes with saucy hats, soft or perky scarves and costume jewellery accessories... from the new stock at the Village Shop. I've had a preview of some of the beautiful new styles, vivid colors and patterns, and would urge you to visit the Village Shop bright and early on Saturday to get a close-up inspection of the Fashion Show features. They're fabulous! Added attractions will be a presentation by Mrs. Jackson of some of her rare collectors' items at the Stouffville Antique House, and a musical interlude provided by Miss Lynda Nolan and Mrs. Joyce Bramham.

All those lovely models you'll see at the Fashion Show will have their hair styled at Ise's Beauty Salon. Be sure to notice the individual styling, emphasizing the good features and personalities of each of the eleven models, and the up-to-the-minute fashions of the "Spring" look. You too can make a date with beauty, for at Ise's Salon you don't just "have your hair done" you can have personalized styling with attractive and manageable cutting, and a soft permanent to give body needed for spring's hair fashions. Just give them a call by dialling 640-2932 and have a qualified beautician advise you on the hair style which suits your own personality... a youthful cap cut, a modified bouffant, a classic french roll... then you too, can become a "model" of fashion.

A special attraction at tomorrow's Fashion Show will be a presentation by Ev Jackson of some of her treasured antiques, and she has a story to tell about each piece... a gorgeous Mary Gregory rose bowl (1890), a few pieces of signed Copeland statuary, a rare pair of German bisau dolls treasured 81 years ago by two little girls, are a few of her collection we shall hear about. Then when you visit Stouffville Antique House you'll find a veritable gold mine of lovely old treasures... traditional patterned glass, lamps from the past, glazed copper pieces, delicate china and durable silver, brass and wooden utensils from pioneer homes... antiques by the hundreds... and Mrs. Jackson is always so happy to share her knowledge of this historic heritage of the Ontario settlers, with folks who drop in.
