Minimum Of 65¢ Dozen For Broiler Hatching Eggs!

We are expanding our hatchery at Mount Albert from 25,000 chicks to 50,000 chicks per week, and because we also operate the large broiler processing plant at Aurora, we are in a position to guarantee to take all of your hatching eggs—THIS IS THE ALL IMPORTANT FACTOR IN SUPPLYING HATCHING EGGS.

We pay a premium above 65¢ per dozen on all hatches above 75%.

We supply the breeding cockerels free, and we can work out arrangements to supply you with the ready-to-lay breeder hens, at cost, if necessary.

This provides a real opportunity for farm people in this area to add substantially to their income. If you have an empty building, or have 3,500 square feet of idle barn space, renovations can readily be made to accommodate 1,000 laying hens, and a Farm Improvement Loan is available from your banker for such purposes.

Why not investigate this money-making opportunity today by contacting Nelson Case or Charlie Cameron,

MAD HATTERS TEA TO AID HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Spring is in the air, and with it leaps the desire in every lady's heart to slough off dull winter, and burst forth in a gay and wacky hat.

The members of the Markham Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary are well aware of this phenomenon, and plan to take full advantage of it. On March 30, at Grace Anglican Church parish hall they will hold a Mad Hatter's Tea, and she who attends wearing the most original and becoming concoction, be it vegetable garden, bee-hive, what have you, will take home a prize. There is no law, either, against men competing, should they feel the yen to create a topper.

An added attraction will be the lucky draw for a hand-made lace tablecloth made by Mrs. H. Snider, formerly of Markham and now living in Richmond Hill.

Grace Anglican Church Hall is situated on Parkway Avenue, running east from Main Street, Markham, just south of the C.N.R. tracks. The tea will be from 3:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and the lucky draw will be at 5 p.m. Mrs. James Grier and Mrs. Dean Hughes will be supported by one man in the judging department, and those pouring tea will be YCHA executive members and representatives from other organizations.

Proceeds from a bake table, the tea offering and lucky draw will be for the York Central Hospital.
