DICKSON HILL
Friends from this locality called on Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKuen of Markham on the occasion of their Golden Wedding.
During a family party at the Chas. Hoover home, birthday honours were extended to Mrs. Geo. Hoover of Markham and Mrs. Roy Moyer.
One of the most valuable antiques sold at the Ramer Sale at Altona, a couch, now adorns the old stone home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clark.
Mrs. Warren Moyer entertained at a Tupper ware party given by Mrs. Kirby and Mrs. Isobel Langdon's home was opened for a Stanley products demonstration given by Don Barkey of Markham.
All the sessions of the annual missionary convention were seasons of challenge and encouragement. The various speakers presented news from Brazil, India, Nigeria and China.
The Barkeys of Ballantrae, Elys, Hoovers and Moyers, attended the Golden Wedding celebration of their cousins. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Barkey, of Oshawa, on Saturday.
Mrs. Bob Ballantyne, John, and his twin sisters, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wideman and other members of the family, on Sunday.
The spacious home of the Risebroughs was filled with neighbours and friends of the Peaches community, last Friday evening. Mr. Jack Frisby, genial master of ceremonies, presided over a program of contests and readings, then a presentation of a coffee table and two end tables. Mr. and Mrs. Risebrough received them graciously, and thanked their friends very warmly. Since this farm has been sold the happy gatherings in this home will remain fond memories. Mr. Risebrough has been a good neighbour for twenty-four years and will be greatly missed. Best wishes accompany them as they leave to reside in Stouffville, where new names will be added to the list of old ones.

BUTTONVILLE
Neighbourhood Notes
Mrs. Reg. Champion of West Vancouver has been visiting relatives in the Toronto area recently, and Friday Mrs. William Champion entertained at a luncheon in her honour. Present were Mrs. J. H. Champion, Sr. and Mrs. Gordon Champion, Unionville; Mrs. Richard Champion, Toronto; Mrs. Joe Champion and Mrs. H. Crosby of Markham.
The last week in April was a bad one for little boys in the neighbourhood. Allan Jones was in bed with the mumps; his brother Kenny fell against the family TV set last Thursday night, causing a cut which required two stitches; and on Saturday, Joel Miller fell out of a tree and broke his leg.
Mrs. Dick Jones returned home last Wednesday after spending a few days in Wallaceburg with her son Bruce and his family.
Mrs. George Kelly entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening of last week, and Mrs. Margaret Everitt presented a Jewellery Fashion Show. Mrs. Russell Boyington and Mrs. George Kelly, Jr., of Newmarket assisted the hostess, and among the guests were friends from Newmarket, Queensville, Willowdale, Thornhill, and Unionville.
Mrs. Jean Newman of Toronto, former member of the Toronto Board of Control and Mayorality Candidate, will be guest speaker May 6, when the Markham Township Women's Liberal Association meets at the home of Mrs. William Champion.
Buttonville W.I. Members catered Tuesday evening of last week when an Agincourt Bowling group held their annual banquet and party. A turkey dinner was served to 66 guests.
The local Branch, YCHA, will meet Friday morning of this week at the home of Mrs. Fred Porter, John St., Thornhill.
Victoria Square and District Lions are collecting old spectacles, frames and lenses to be sent to Pakistan and India. If you find any of these items in your housecleaning, please call Mr. Carl Walker of Victoria Sq.
On Monday, May 6, the CGIT and Explorer groups from the Victoria Sq. Charge will entertain at their annual Mother & Daughter Banquet. This year the event will be held at Brown's Corners Church, with the executive members of UCW acting as hostesses.
Convenes Anniversary Meet
When 1500 members of the Southern Ontario Ladies Curling Assoc. met at the Park of Shunter Curling Club Thursday April 25, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Association. Dist. Director, Mrs. Elsie Hood of Buttonville convened the event.
Guests were women from points as far distant as Windsor, Kingston, Sudbury and Buffalo, and several were octogenarians.
Mrs. Hood, a former president of the Unionville Women's Curling Club, was among those receiving. Mrs. Ann Grant poured tea; Mrs. Wm. Wood assisted with correspondence, and among the 350 curlers were Mrs. Norman Reid and Mrs. F. W. Baker. Flowers for the occasion were arranged by our own Miss Adele Carruthers of Eunice Denby, Florist.
12th Church Anniversary.
Friends from far and near, and members from Headford and Victoria Sq. congregations will join with Brown's Corners United Church this Sunday, May 5, to celebrate 121 years in the community.
At 11:00 a.m. Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Howse of Rev. St. United Church, Toronto, will preach, and music will be under the leadership of Mrs. S. J. English, with Mrs. Donald Reesor at the organ.
At 7:30 p.m. Rev. G. Fitzpatrick, B.A., B.D., will be the guest speaker, and the Richmond Hill and District Choral Society, under the direction of Mr. Frank Smart, will sing.
A warm welcome is extended to anyone wishing to attend Gift Wrapping Demonstration. Well over 100 guests were present at Brown's Corners Church Thursday, when the UCW entertained at a dessert luncheon and Gift Wrapping demonstration, provided by Mrs. Dorothy Somers of Eaton's of Canada.
Hostesses were members of Miss Adele Carruthers catering
