CEDAR GROVE

The hobbies and interests of Cedar Groves are many and varied. We build, grow collect, polish, quilt, arrange, forge - name it, someone in Cedar Grove is an expert. One of Sim Reesor's favourite pastimes is the carving of Sumac Owls - an interest fostered by lessons in wood carving when Alfred Perry taught at Madsen's. Sim's owls are whimsical and wise and sit in wide-eyed wonder on a Sumac crotch. The wood selection and carving of these owls suggested a film to Chris Chapman.

Into the cast came some young potential owl carvers and Chris found able performers in Artie and Gordie Milroy, Paul Reesor and Ronnie Dean.

Much to the surprise of everyone but Chris, the filming took weeks. A long slow process of getting the boys and Sim and the weather together and shooting the end before the beginning before the middle.

Then, the filming completed, more and more hours of taping a sound track, clipping and splicing, adding and deleting until Chris had edited several hundred feet of film into a compact, interesting twelve minutes.

The result is a fine film and will be shown on CBC TV, Sunday, June 2nd on the Time of Your Life show at 2 p.m. It will introduce Sim and the boys and the owls to a lot of people but will be of special interest to Cedar Grove where the stars are known.

Community Club meeting was held Monday evening at Mike and Lillian Dean's and a picnic was planned for early July.

We were sorry to hear of the death recently of Robert Ellsworth Dimma and extend heartfelt sympathy to his brothers Frank and Les. Mr. Dimma was well known in this area, but since his marriage has lived in Peterborough.

went to Mrs. Emma Clodd and Gordon Dimma.

church, 8 p.m. Mrs. Eldon Comfort will give an illustrated talk on her stay in Africa. Memorial service will be held at Zion Church on Sunday, June 2nd at 11:45 a.m.
