Descendant of Pioneer Visits Brougham Farm

Mrs. Harold Kellerman of Alexandria, Virginia, a recent visitor in Ontario on vacation, called at the farm home of Mrs. E. P. Soden, a landmark site in the Twp. of Pickering, Mrs. Kellerman's great grandmother was born on the property. She is the great granddaughter of the late Mr. Howell who owned 1,000 acres of land on which he built a store, a distillery and the first Brougham Post Office which was erected in 1832. Mrs. Kellerman viewed the cairn that was built last year by Mrs. Soden to mark the site of the original Post Office. She walked along the stream that gave the property its name "Spring Creek." It is now known as Meadow Brook Farm. Mrs. Soden was pleased to meet and visit with a descendant of the pioneer family.
