Ronald Clarke, 33, of Green-wood, was convicted last week of stealing a lawn mower, tires and a Go-Kart.

"I've given your case considerable attention," Magistrate Harry W. Jermyn said, "because you have a wife and five children." "I want you to keep away from liquor," His Worship stated further, "and make every reasonable effort to work and support your family." He also ordered the accused to make restitution for a tire which was stolen and never recovered and to report once a month to the probation officer. In addition he ordered Clarke to turn over all the money he earned to his wife for management. Ronald Harris, Palmerston avenue. Pickering, who was closely allied with the abovementioned accused in the thefts, was sentenced to the Ontario reformatory for 12 months and three month indefinite. Harris had been convicted on two charges of possession of stolen goods.

"In view of your record," His Worship stated, "the court is powerless to do anything about your case."

He was sentenced to 12 months on the charge of theft over $50 and 12 concurrent for theft under $50.

Climbs to 130

The influx of 5 senior students from the Atha section and 4 from Mt. Zion plus residential growth within the Greenwood-Kinsale district has boosted the attendance at the Greenwood Public School in Area No. 3 to 130 pupils. In September, 1962, there were 103 children on the roll.

The staff of four teachers is headed by the Principal, Wm. Boyd. He is in charge of grades 7 and 8 with 31 students. Mrs. Walter Bordeaux has 30 pupils in grades 5 and 6 and Mrs. Carol Malcolm instructs 38 in grades 3 and 4. Miss Irene Watters has the primary classes of grades 1 and 2 with 31. To date, 19 beginners have enrolled. There are 12 in grade 8.

The new structure, opened only this year, has five rooms although only four are in use week for the Second Annual History in Action Day to be held this Saturday at the Museum Grounds in Brougham. · Mrs. Kay Fallis who is coordinating the household craft demonstrations reported that many women have volunteered to re-create the arts and crafts common to the pioneer settlers of this area. Mrs. Jack Mansell of Claremont, will demonstrate the ancient art of spinning while Mrs. H. J. Warner from King City will weave the yarn into material of the type used in early Ontario homes. Mrs. A. N. McKenzie will display many of the herbs used by the early settlers in cooking and meal preparation. Back this year wili be Mrs. Tom Wheeler of Locust Hill and Mrs. Merv. Annis of Brougham to demonstrate the hooking of chair seats and rugs. Women from the Greenwood United Church and the Altona Women's Institute will set up their frames and carry on an old time quilting bee. Mrs. Hugh Miller and Mrs. Howard Malcolm of Brougham will be there to demonstrate the method of butter making as it was done in pioneer farm homes. In addition to the many demonstrations, several new displays have been set up in the old brick schoolhouse. Mr. Robt.
