Many Gormley Residents at Special Edgely Church Services

(Mrs. C. Milsted). A number of residents in the Gormley community attended a special service in the Old Mennonite Church at Edgely on Sunday afternoon. The church is about 140 years old and has not been in use for several years. The people of this area had asked that it be re-opened for this occasion. The worship service was conducted as closely as possible in a method similar to Mennonite practices of earlier days.

Bishop and Mrs. Alvin Wingler, their daughter and one son and their families gathered on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Liebeck of Stayner to celebrate Mr. Wingler's 80th birthday.
