IN MEMORIAM

COWIE — In loving memory of William E. Cowie, who passed away suddenly Sept. 26, 1946. God sends us new hope, new wisdom and strength. Like a soft healing rain from above.
We know that though death took you out of our sight, Nothing changes the meaning of love.
Lovingly remembered by wife and family.

BAKER — In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Phyllis Baker, who passed away Sept. 29, 1958.
Lovingly remembered by Mother, Charlie & Cathy.

BAKER — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Phyllis Baker, who passed away Sept. 29, 1958.
Ever remembered by husband Gordon & family.

DeRUSHA — In loving memory of Corporal Ross E. DeRusha of the 116th Batt., formerly of the 11th Batt., killed somewhere in France, Sept. 27th, 1918.
He bade no one a last farewell, He said goodbye to none, The heavenly gates were open wide,
A loving voice said come, We often sit and think of you, Things you used to say and do, We wonder why you had to die Without a chance to say goodbye.
So dearly loved and so sadly missed
To never be forgotten.
Sadly missed by sister Doyle.

HOLMAN — In memory of Robert (Bob) Holman who passed away Sept. 24, 1961. He is gone but not forgotten, As it dawns another year, In our lonely hours of thinking Thoughts of him are always near.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Many think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow That lies in the heart concealed.
Lovingly remembered, wife Mae, sons John & Ronnie.

STEWART — In memory of a dear husband, William John Stewart who passed away September 23, 1961.
I little knew when I woke that morn,
Sorrow that day would bring For the call was sudden and the shock was severe,
To part with the one I loved so dear,
While he sleeps in peaceful sleep His memory shall always keep.
We shall meet you in a better land
And never part again.
Sadly missed and remembered by wife Lillian.

DIMPLE: A bump inside out.
An accident is usually the only winner in the race against time — DRIVE SAFELY.

Opening for More Air Cadets

Stouffville Air Cadet Squadron No. 94, one of the country's longest-established Squadrons, has openings at present for additional cadets, 14 to 18 years of age. This training is both challenging and inspiring, and while the Air Force pattern is followed, the primary aim is to produce better Canadian citizens.
Scholarships are awarded as part of the training, and there is lecture instruction, trips to R.C.A.F. camps, free flying courses and other rewards.
Young men of high school age are invited to come to the Stouffville Legion Hall on Tuesday evenings at 7:15 p.m. There is nothing to pay and all equipment, including uniforms is provided. Stouffville Air Cadet Squadron is under the jurisdiction of the R.C.A.F. Station, Camp Borden.
