

Buttonville Man Went to Vote on 81st Birthday

Congratulations to Mr. Alex Young who marked his 81st birthday on September 23. Mr. Young celebrated by voting, something he wasn't well enough to do on the last election. We wish him many more in good health.

Mrs. Jack Johnson left last week for a three week visit with her daughter in British Columbia.

Last week's frost killed many hopes for Markham Fair contestants. The flowers and vegetable crops suffered quite severe damage in most gardens, and the Praleets, who are famous for their fine Fair displays are finding their supply limited.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller brought Christopher Paul home from the hospital last Saturday and introduced him to his new family.

Euchre enthusiasts have a date with Buttonville W.I. Hall at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 11. This is the starting date of the autumn series of Euchre sponsored by Buttonville W.I. Plays will continue every second week until Dec. 6 or 20.

Mrs. A.W. Miller will be hostess at her 3rd concession home just north of No. 7 hwy., Friday morning of this week for the Buttonville Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary meeting, from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Joe Robinson, vice-president for Region No. 7, Ontario Hosp. Aux., accompanied by Mrs. George Kelly, attended the regional conference at Midland on Monday of last week.

Victoria Sq. charge Young People's Union members were among 50 campers at Camp Weseneaskin, Kinnmount, recently when the YPU of York Presbytery held a camping week-end.

Reverend Frank Shuttleworth from Calvary United Church, Newmarket, was the inspirational speaker and young people attended from Newmarket, Aurora, Queensville, Mount Albert, Richmond Hill, Cedar Grove and Keswick. From Victoria Square and Brown's Corners there were Janet Craig, Marcella Storey, Joan Smitz, Joy Fuller, Margaret Patterson and Reg and John Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sherman are very happy about their newest grandson, Ronald Wayne Sherman, who is the first to carry on the family name. The baby is the son of Douglas and June Sherman and was born at Erasmus Hospital on Sept. 17.

Jimmy Jones, who has been in traction at the Scarborough General Hospital since he was struck down by a car last August is doing nicely and should be set free sometime this week. His family is looking forward to having him home again.

Mrs. John Craig was guest of honour at a baby shower Friday evening of last week, when friends in the neighbourhood were entertained at the home of Mrs. S.R. Patterson. Baby Joy Michelle was not present to receive her gifts but if the array was any indication, she will be surrounded by cosy reminders of new friends for months to come. Jeanette's mother is here from Nova Scotia and was able to be present at the shower.

Among the guests at the Winterfield Allen wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper and Charles, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Robb, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brumwell, the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ellis Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fuller, Miss Joy Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen. The bride, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen now live at Blackwater, lived at Buttonville as small children and the family later moved to Richmond Hill. Before her wedding Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper's home was the bride's trousseau headquarters and following the reception guests were invited to see the display of wedding articles at the Hooper home.

It was a very busy weekend for the Hooper family. After the wedding on Saturday there was a christening ceremony Sunday morning at North Runnymede United Church when Bill and Dorothy (Hooper) Robb's new son Billy was baptized and Mr. and Mrs. Hooper and Charles attended.

In September Arthur Story settled in at Mount Allison University, N.B., for his third year as a divinity student for the United Church of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Storey visited Art at his summer charge in New Brunswick early in the month, and he returned home for a brief visit here with the family.

Markham Fair Booth for YCHA York Central Hospital Auxiliary members are active again after the summer lull, and this week the Markham Unionville Branch members will have a booth at Markham Fair, Oct. 3, 4 and 5 where they will sell home-made candy and cookies. There will also be a raffle for a doll and a wardrobe. Interesting future plans for the new year include a Formal Ball to be held Saturday, April 25, 1964. The YCHA has been offered and accepted, the free use of the concourse in front of Simpson's Store in the York Plaza for this event, and a committee will be named in October to convene it.

These were 2 of the announcements made when the Auxiliary executive met recently at the Richmond Hill Public Library. The president, Mrs. R.J. Miller chaired the meeting and a guest, Miss Gatehouse, Director of Nursing for the new hospital was introduced. She told the executive that half of the required quota of nurses has been obtained and said the hospital is interested in hiring Registered nurses and Registered Nursing Assistant only.

When the York Central Hospital is opened, Auxiliary workers will have a substantial amount of money built up to assist their undertakings. The treasurer, Mrs. W. Kedell, announced that the bank balance was $5,156.72 in September and Mrs. Langton reported the Memorial Fund to date has reached $1,010.

Mr. Chas. Preston and Mr. Clare Bolender took the Saturday excursion from the Union Station to Haliburton via the steam train. The steam engine proceeded as far as Lindsay and a diesel engine completed the trip into the fall beauty of the northland.
