

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Degeer, Main St., Are Married Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Degeer

On Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Degeer, Main St., Stouffville, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. More than eighty friends and family relatives called at their home and on Saturday the occasion was extended to include 48 more, many from distant centres.

Mr. and Mrs. Degeer were married in Stouffville in 1913. The groom, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elias Degeer, grove into town from his home near Musselman's Lake by horse and buggy and their honeymoon trip consisted of a three-day visit with his parents at Bloomington.

Mrs. Degeer, the former Elizabeth Bailey was born in England. She attended public school up to the age of nine years and then went out to work. Prior to her marriage, she lived at the home of the late Jake Wideman, Mongolia.

In 1919, the couple moved to Michigan where Mr. Degeer worked on the Grand Trunk Railway. They returned to Stouffville in 1960. Mr. Degeer is still an ardent hunter and fisherman. They attend the Stouffville United Missionary Church regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. Degeer had four children. A daughter, Mrs. Elsie Sitzer resides in Flint, Michigan and a son, Edward lives at St. John's Michigan. Two other sons, Douglas and Dennis are deceased. They have 17 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. Mrs. Degeer has one sister, Mrs. Pave Winters of Durand, Michigan. Mr. Degeer has a brother, Morgan at Mount Albert.

The couple received close to 100 cards including one from New Zealand and another from California. Mr. Degeer gave his wife a beautiful silver tea service. Both enjoy good health and many friends wish them many more years of happiness together.

Patrick-Roberts Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Patrick of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Roberts of Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Patrick also of Stouffville.

Stouffville United Church was decorated with white glads and mums for the wedding on Saturday, Sept. 28, 1963 at 4 p.m. when Denise Audrey Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Roberts of Stouffville and Kenneth Neil Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Patrick, also of Stouffville, were united in marriage.

Rev. D. Davis assisted by Rev. A. Borland officiated at the ceremony.

The marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional white gown, with lace bodice, full skirt of nylon organza over satin and a shoulder length veil. She carried white roses, carnations and white feathered shasta mums.

Matron of honour, Joni Watts and bridesmaids Beverly Roberts, sister of the bride and Sharon Cleary, cousin of the bride, were dressed in coral pea de soie satin with matching shoes and white accessories. They carried white glads and tiny yellow mums. The soloist Miss Hilda Sinclair of Don Mills sang "Love Divine" and the Twenty-third Psalm. Mrs. Chas. Nolan was the organist. Ernie Abraham Jr. was the best man and Ron Patrick and Dave Watts the ushers.

For the reception at Watt's Restaurant, Lawrence and Markham Rds., the bride's mother chose a beige brocade jacket dress, cranberry red hat and black accessories. The groom's mother chose a beige wool suit dress, black hat and accessories.

For the honeymoon to be spent in the south-western United States, the bride wore a royal blue wool suit, white leather hat and gloves, and black accessories. On their return they will reside in Stouffville.

Guests were present from Toronto, Ottawa, Camp Borden, Seaforth, Montreal and Hamilton.

A most inspirational worship service was conducted by five members of Mrs. Crouch's Unit No. 4; the theme - Approaching God in prayer through the five senses of perception. Mrs. Keith Hutchinson assisted, singing verses from several hymns.

The offering was dedicated by Mrs. Sisco and was followed by a solo by Mrs. Hutchinson.

Mrs. Norman Baker, a former teacher of Rev. George Peck made a warm, personal introduction of the guest speaker, Rev. Peck had the wrap attention of the large audience as he told of the work that he and his wife are doing among the Cree Indians at Fort Albany on James Bay and he illustrated their work and living conditions by the use of coloured slides.

In a few carefully chosen words, Mrs. Roy Downswell expressed the sincere gratitude of the members of the U.C.W. to all who had contributed to an outstanding program and presented Rev. George Peck with an envelope, the contents of which were to help along his most worthwhile work, that of Christian Witness and bringing the Gospel to these people who live one thousand miles north of Stouffville.

Rev. Borland pronounced the Benediction.

Following the service the members of Mrs. Mercer's Unit No. 2 served lunch from a table beautifully decorated, in keeping with Thanksgiving.

WEDDING

One of the oldest and best known sales in Canada, starts at Houston's Rexall Drug Store Stouffville, on Thursday, Oct. 17th, 1963. For over half a century, Rexall Sales have offered medicines, fine toiletries, household goods, personal needs and gifts, all with one article sold at regular price and a second identical one sold for an additional penny.

Though copied by many organizations, the Rexall One-Cent Sale, originated by a Canadian, but now famous throughout this continent, has never been equaled in value or performance. It remains at its always consistent high level of quality; quality of goods on sale, as well as quality of service.

"It takes careful planning to prepare for our One-Cent Sale," said Mr. Houston. "We stock hundreds of nationally advertised, freshly ordered Rexall products especially for this ten day period. Many of our customers, looking forward to the sale, order from our Advance Order Form in order to take full advantage of the savings that are offered."

"The 1c Sale also provides its own shopping list taken right from handbills that we distribute. Items may be checked off and the handbill left at the store. On or after opening day of the 1c Sale, orders are filled and held for pick-up. While saving nearly 50% on such purchases, our customers also save shopping time."

"A Rexall druggist," said Mr. Houston, "is a partner with over 1,500 other independent Rexall franchised druggists across Canada, all of whom welcome old and new customers during this very special sale. It starts Thursday, Oct. 17, and continues for ten full days." Phone 640-2222.
