Mrs. W. Sandle

U.C.W.

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Barber on Wednesday evening of last week with a large attendance. It was preceded by a Buffet supper, prepared and served by the October group. For the meeting, Mrs. F. Donnelly was in charge of the service. Mrs. H. Barber read the scripture lesson. Miss Mabel Sanderson gave a very inspiring topic on "Thankfulness" which was very much enjoyed by all.

Reports were given by Mrs. E. Empringham, Mrs. H. McCague and Mrs. L. Mumberson of the U.C.W. Rally held at Unionville on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

The president, Mrs. L. Mumberson took charge of the business. Final plans were made for the Turkey Dinner, on Nov. 6.

Open House
Mr. and Mrs. Zoli Berta held Open House from Wednesday to Saturday of last week, when their new restaurant and service-station were opened. The opening ceremonies were conducted by the Reeve of Markham Township, Mr. Charles Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Berta are to be congratulated for their new beautiful building they now have. It is an ultra-modern service station, eating establishment and permanent residence.

There were 15 tables of players at the Hall on Friday evening of last week. This was the beginning of a series. Prize winners were: Ladies, 1. Mrs. J. Dewsbury; 2. Mrs. Robert Boyd, Consolation, Mrs. G. Draper. Men: 1. Fraser Gee, 2. Bill Sandle, Consolation, Alvin Saseley. Most Lone Hands: Ladies, Mrs. Roy Glover; Men, George Brands. Lucky Draw for a box of groceries was won by Wes. Clark.

The next Euchre in the series will be on Friday, Nov. 1. Everyone welcome.

On Saturday, Miss Judy Hart, assistant leader of the Explorer group took the following members, Susan Hibbard, Joanne Kugler, Muriel Morton, Anita Orr and Mardi Tyndall on a hike. They returned to Berta's Restaurant for supper, and then to Hart's for a few games before returning home. The girls report having a wonderful time.
