IN MEMORIAM

MacDOWELL — In loving memory of our dear son and brother Arthur Carl, who was called away suddenly November 9, 1957. Please God, forgive a silent tear. A fervent wish our son was here. There are others, yes, we know. But he was ours and we loved him so. Dear God take a message To our Carl in Heaven above— Tell him how much we miss him And give him all our love. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Dad, Mom and family.

SHADLOCK — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, June E. Steckley, who left us suddenly Nov. 8, 1958. Always a thought and many a tear. For one we miss and loved so dear. The sudden way you had to die, We shall always remember and wonder why. You left behind our aching hearts That loved you most sincere. That never shall and never will Forget you, June, dear. Lovingly remembered and sadly missed, Mom, Dad and sisters Doris, Lorraine and Norma.

BROWN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, J. Percy Brown, who passed away November 10, 1962. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and sorrows are all behind you. In silence he suffered. In patience he bore. Till God called him home To suffer no more. Lovingly remembered by wife and family.

MILLER — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Ida Laura, who passed away Nov. 8, 1957. Her memory is as dear today As in the hour she passed away. Ever remembered by family.

RADFORD — In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Bob Radford, who passed away Nov. 7, 1962. His memory is as dear today As in the hour he passed away. Sadly missed by Jack, Marg, and family.

CEDAR GROVE

(Pat McLennan)
Road Supl. Please Note
Is the disgraceful example of road engineering on Steele's Ave., a hundred yards east of the tenth line, an indication of efficiency in the Roads Dept.? Fill from a ditching operation at Beare's Road was dumped on the south side of the hill at the Millroy's presumably to widen the road. The result is a quagmire of soft mud, without benefit of gravel, soft shoulder washings, caution lights, and the guard rail has been removed. School buses, high-speed gravel trucks or even an ordinary car could put a Volkswagen in the Rouge Valley in short order if passing were attempted on the hill now. Why? That is the first question. The second is, What next? Do we wait for someone to go over the edge before the job is properly completed?

The motif at Locust Hill Hall—on Pat was witchcraft... of the black variety. Grim black witches riding broomsticks, big black cats and black swinging bats and even skeletons bedecked the school room and transformed it into a weird Halloween den. The children had a wonderful party filled with games and noise and laughter. They chased apples on strings, balanced pumpkins on their heads and scrambled for peanuts. And the costumes were wonderful. Raymond Reesor, as a pirate, took first prize; Judy Cornelius won second as a flapper and Margaret Tyler, third, as a fearsome looking witch. Even some of the mothers dressed for the event and Mrs. Rutherford and Mrs. Hayes won prizes for their trouble. Both mothers and students enjoyed the party... and Mrs. Banks' beautiful cookies turned up this year at Locust Hill.

It was unbelievable how the ladies of Zion U.C.W. turned the church basement into a Christmas festival. The arrangement of the booths and their colorful wares made a bright and tempting bazaar for Christmas shoppers. All afternoon a wonderful hustle and bustle filled the church basement and at the end of the day the shoppers were happy with their purchases and the U.C.W. happy with the profits. The CGIT booth at the bazaar made over twenty dollars from the sale of delicious home made candy. CGIT meeting will be held at the church on Friday.

Euchre winners this week were: Mrs. Swain, Mrs. Sadie Tanscot and Mr. M. Lewis; Wayne Tooley, Bill Peacock and Deward Wilson. Carrying prizes went to Mrs. Ed Williams and Harvey Swain. Next Euchre will complete the current series and will be held on Monday, Nov. 18th. Stanley and Carmela Vaitkus welcomed a baby girl on Monday this week. The baby is 2½ months old and will be named this week.

BUTTONVILLE

Last week, when the Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries' Association convention was held at the Royal York Hotel, Mrs. Joe Koonson, chairman of the Buttonville Branch of York Central Hospital Auxiliary, was installed as chairman of the region of the O.H.A. which includes the area from Huntsville to Steele's Ave., and from Collingwood and Orangeville to Orlilla and Newmarket.

Congratulations to George and Joan Hooper whose fourth son arrived early last week at the Branson Hospital. Joan and the baby are fine, and were happy to have Nancy Frenka Brumwell of Victoria Sq. and her new son as roommates at the hospital. Grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper are catching their breath, this is their second grandchild within two months.

Mrs. George Kelly represented the Markham Township Women's Liberal Association at Ottawa last week, when the National Federation of Liberal Women met there in convention. During her three-days' visit Mrs. Kelly attended a dinner given for the delegates from York North by John Addison, member for York North. Mrs. S. J. English dined with friends at the Guild Inn last Sunday.

After Nov. 17, according to a recent Bell Telephone announcement, telephone service in this community will be much more convenient, and Thornhill Agincourt, Unionville and Gormley customers will have a much closer link. It will mean a great deal in church and school affairs, as well as to other organizations.

Recently we dropped into Brown's Corners United church C.E.T. was in session. Agnes and Sylvia Kernahan have as fine a group of girls as could be found anywhere. Snorgashord Successful Tuesday of last week, when the Brown's Corners United Church held its fourth Smorgashord Dinner. The weather was crisp and the crowds eager. The dining room was attractive with Adele's decorations, Hallowe'en arrangements, and a capable staff of waitresses took care of the guests with dispatch.

Even so, it took almost four hours for all the guests (well over 450) to be served.

The food, as always, was a gourmet's delight, and here all the women of the church contended their choicest dishes. While the guests waited in the auditorium of the church there was music—some from a Hi-Fi, but later Mrs. Donald Reesor, Miss Joy Fuller, and Mrs. English played organ and piano duets.

There were many friends present from Unionville, Headford, Victoria Sq., Toronto, and faraway points. Mrs. Harold Steffler, chairman of U.C.W., Mrs. Wm. Rodick, and Mrs. A. W. Miller were hostesses. The congregation of Brown's Corners United Church will participate in a "Partnership in the Gospel" campaign this year, and on Thursday, Nov. 14 there will be an evening get-together with coffee and dessert served at 7:30 p.m. and a short program. The aim of this project is to develop better understanding of Christian Stewardship, and to encourage people to come to church. The emphasis is not so much on commitment as on service.

Mr. Bill Hood is the chairman and last Sunday morning Mr. Hank Coleman explained the project's aim to the congregation. Leonard Stephenson passes. A former Buttonville son, Leonard F. Stephenson, died at Branson Hospital on Saturday, Oct. 26, 1963, following a lengthy illness.

Mr. Stephenson, whose home was near Richmond Hill, spent his boyhood at Buttonville, where his father, Mr. Frank Stephenson, ran the grist mill. His sister, Miss Della Stephenson, still lives here in the family home.

A funeral service was held Tuesday of last week from the Jerrett Funeral Chapel, and interment was at Highland Memory Gardens. Surviving are Mr. Stephenson's widow Maude, a daughter, Margaret (Mrs. R. J. Walter of Willowdale); Doris of Hamilton, a son, William of Victoria, B.C., and two sisters, Mrs. Russell Brillinger and Miss Della Stephenson.

News from Altona

The regular monthly meeting of the Altona Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 13th at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. F. Bielby. Mrs. M. Dunkeld, Convener of Education, will be in charge of the program. Motto—The aim of all education is to produce citizens who will be publicly educated and privately happy. Roll Call—My pet beef about education. The guest speaker will be Miss L. McNeill, public school inspector for Uxbridge Township.

Miss Kathy Giberson returned to her home in Gordonsville, N.B. on Sunday after spending the past three months with her sister, Mrs. Don Gougie and family.

Mrs. Michael Alyward and Vicki are visiting this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Greg McMahon and her sister Pamela of Port Hope.

On Saturday Mrs. Wes Baker and Diane, Judy Kennedy and Lynda Bunker spent the day at the home of Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. Graves, near Mt. Albert, where they enjoyed seeing the Eglington Hunt Club go out for a fox hunt. Nearly 40 members of the club along with 35 hounds took part.

This is your invitation to attend Rally Day at the United Missionary Church this Sunday at 10:30 a.m. The objective is $300. A special program has been planned for all ages. Try to attend. Last Tuesday two carloads of local ladies attended an afternoon tea at Pickering when Pickering Women's Institute celebrated its 35th anniversary. This week Mrs. Jim White and Mrs. Ed Wideman, the Altona delegates, are attending the W.I. Convention in the Royal York Hotel in Toronto on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Thursday a busload of ladies from Clarendon, Brougham and Altona will be attending the convention.

Don't make the mistake of waiting until cooked meat is cold before refrigerating. Refrigerate such foods as soon after the meal as possible, say food experts at the Ontario Institute. Guelph. This refrigeration is necessary as bacteria which cause food poisoning multiply quickly at room temperature.
