

Valedictorian

Grade 13 graduate, Wayne Hamilton delivered a very impressive valedictory address at the annual Commencement Exercises in the auditorium of the Stouffville Dist. High School on Friday night. Wayne is presently enrolled at Western University in London, Ont.

—Staff Photo.

GORDON CROWDERS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

An estimated one hundred and fifty friends, neighbours and relatives met at the Masonic Hall on Sunday afternoon and evening, to honour Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crowder of Albert St. on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary. Mrs. Crowder was the former Rose Andrews of East Gwillimbury, near Holt and Mr. Crowder was from Bellhaven. After their marriage they lived in the Queensville and Sharon district until coming to this district around 30 years ago. Twenty-two years have been spent in Stouffville. The couple have one daughter Edna (Mrs. Roy Davis) of Willowdale and three sons, Earl of Stouffville, Lorne of Richmond Hill, also 11 grandchildren and three great grandchildren. A buffet supper for the immediate family was held at the home of their son Earl and Mrs. Crowder, Baker Ave. Many beautiful cards, gifts and well wishes were received including a telegram from Governor-General Vanier.

Helen Busato, an honour grade 13 graduate of the Stouffville Dist. High School and the recipient of a $100 Provincial Scholarship was pleased to receive a long-distance telephone call of congratulations from Miss Kay Sharpe, a former student companion and now living in Sini Valley, California.

An offering of $66.17 was received at the Remembrance Day Service in the Veterans Memorial Hall, Stouffville on Sunday afternoon. The collection will be placed in the Poppy Fund along with returns from poppy sales on Saturday.

Teacher's Conference
An estimated 130 public school teachers from the District of York 2 will attend the Teachers' Professional Development Conference on Friday, Nov. 22nd in the All Saints Anglican Church, King City, Orchard Park and Summitview schools in Stouffville will be represented by teachers, Gary Grundy and Will Morley, both members of the executive.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children are sponsoring a Treasure Sale and Bake Tea at the Morgan in the Markham Shopping Centre on Saturday, Nov. 23, 1963. Donations of baking, knitting or sewing will be appreciated. Anyone interested in helping please phone Dot Schell, 640-3274 for pick-up or further arrangements.

Another lively evening was enjoyed by the Ringwood Ladies Euchre Club at the home of Mrs. D. Harman on Monday, Nov. 11. Mrs. J. Foley took home the first prize and Mrs. H. Sproxtion the second. Mrs. D. Whiteman, the booby after cutting for it with Mrs. E. Paisley. Mrs. J. Northover was the winner of the travelling prize.

Ladies Curling Club Unionville
For the Ladies section of the Unionville Curling everyone is anxious to get into the game again and what could be better than an opening tag curling day with a buffet luncheon such as was enjoyed on Nov. 5th.

The new members were introduced by their big sisters. There was a lot of activity around the bulletin board, each one signing up for the various activities — bonspiels — instruction — orbit curling etc. On Nov. 19th will be Leads and Seconds Bonspiel and on the 25th Conlin Motors Bonspiel.

BIRTHS

CONNOR — Ed and Donna (nee Lehman) are pleased to announce the arrival of their daughter (Susanne Marie) on Monday, Nov. 11th, 1963 at Newmarket Hospital. Special thanks to Dr. Mitchell.

WELTON — Ernest and Bernice wish to announce the birth of baby boy, Gary William, 6 lbs. 3 1/2 oz. at Scarborough General Hospital, Ont., on Oct. 6th, 1963. A brother for Michael.

Local And Personal Happenings

The Girl Guides are holding a bake sale at the Sales Arena on Saturday, Nov. 16.

Give the gift that lasts all year — give a subscription to The Stouffville Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Vogan, Glenn and Erent of Rexdale had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Gord Wagg, Gayle and Wendy on Sunday.

Mrs. Vera Woodward and Mrs. Katie Langmaid of Oshawa were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Byers, Maytree Ave. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stouffer and Mary of Minden were guests on Sunday with Miss Bertha Stouffer.

Mrs. Elva Brennan of Ajax and Mr. Myrle Raymer of Simcoe were weekend visitors with their sister, Mrs. Frank Burkholder and Frank.

Mrs. Stan Waite of North Bay was a visitor over the weekend with Mrs. A. V. Nolan, Rupert St. Mrs. Waite and Mrs. Nolan are first cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brillinger of Gormley have moved into their new home, the former Jack Hodgins house, corner Main St. and Orchard Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Holden and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ridout visited their sister, Mrs. Zella Gillian at her home in Bobcaygeon on Sunday.

Mrs. Truman Grove and Mrs. Will Connor accompanied Mrs. Stewart Stouffer one day last week to visit their cousin, Mrs. Menno Grove in Scarborough.

A group of ten hunters, including Tommy Farr and Walt Smith have returned home from a camp on Trout Creek near North Bay. They bagged a total of six deer and one bear.

E. A. Grubin, R.O. Optometrist, will be in Stouffville at the James McCreeght residence, 58 Main St. E., on Monday afternoon and evening and Tuesday, Nov. 18th and 19th.

A Business Ladies Curling League is being formed at Rolling Hills for Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Those interested contact Mrs. May at 886-5678 or 886-5776 as soon as possible.

Miss Betty Woodland and Mr. Vince Wagg, Lloyd Ave. were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Caulfield at Oakville. Mrs. Wagg who had been spending a week with her daughter Eunice and wee son, returned home with them.

Mrs. Hazel Free-visited her sister and brother-in-law last weekend at West Hill, also Mr. and Mrs. Grant Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Major and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gellay and attended a travelogue at the Eaton Auditorium.

A group of hunters, Dawson Hare, Art and Ed Wideman, Walter and Joe Ward, Arlan Galloway and Jim Reesor, returned on the weekend from a camp near Ardbeg. Although they saw a number of deer, Daws was the marksman for the one shot.

The Stouffville Ladies Lawn Bowling Club held their annual meeting in the club house on Nov. 6, bringing to a close a successful year. The officers elected were Pres. Mabel Watts, 1st vice, Doris Farthing, 2nd vice, M. Farthing, secretary, L. Lemon, treasurer, E. Brammer.

Prior to last Friday night's Stouffville High School Commencement Exercises, Mr. and Mrs. Cpc. Hendricks, acted as gracious hosts for a graduation supper at their home. Included in the group of students entertained were all the members of last year's Grade 13 Class.

All holders of tickets on the Stouffville Lions Club $10 car draw are reminded that the buffet and dance will go on as scheduled this Saturday night in the Lions Club Hall at Richmond Hill. All you need for admission is your draw ticket.

Former Bell Telephone operators met one evening last week for a social evening and reunion at the home of Mrs. Bud Nichols, Baker Ave. Those present were, Mrs. Laura Miller, Miss Geraldine Stouffer, Mrs. Edna O'Boyle, Miss Olive Hutchinson, Miss Mildred Barkey, Miss Marjorie Cowan, Miss Anne Lehman, Miss Florence Hoover, Mrs. Marjorie Truman, Mrs. Marnie Neal, Mrs. Bonnie Curr, Miss Kathie Smith, Mrs. Gladys Ford, Mrs. Eric Baker, Miss Elaine Forsyth, Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Grace Bielby. Miss Marjorie Cowan entertained the group with pictures taken while on a trip to California.

A question of cutting down the old pine tree or perhaps just trimming it a little around the edges was brought before the town council at a regular meeting last week. It seems that a blue spruce on Baker Avenue has created a "blind spot" at the entrance to the home of Ira Russell. It is not known if the tree is on the road allowance or on the property of a next door neighbour but the council members appeared hesitant to have it removed regardless of its location. Dep.-Reeve Ken Laushway and councillor Ken Betz checked the source of the complaint but will permit the two property owners to work out a solution to the problem.

Mrs. W. Bird of London is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Norton, Glad Park Ave.

Mr. John Foulds arrived home with two deer last week. He bagged them in the Ottawa Valley region near Renfrew.

Mrs. Archie Campbell of Peterborough was in town last Thursday and Friday calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ramer of Colborne were visitors on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Stouffer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Newman and Jim of Brantford were weekend visitors with her sister, Mrs. Harry Stover and family.

The excavations have been completed for five new houses to fill in the lots on Elm Road in the west end of town. Doug McHarg of Markham is the Contractor.

The home of Miss Jane Burkett at the rear of Smith's Radio has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong of Malvern. Also the William Kreen property on Loretta Cresc. has been sold to Mr. Andrew Hutchinson of Queensville. The sales were completed by the Thos. N. Shea, Real Estate.

A surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkholder on Saturday night, in honour of her sister, Mrs. Elva Brennan of Ajax. Among the friends and relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hodgkins of Leaskdale, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoover and Miss Hazel Hoover of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams of Oshawa, Mr. Myrle Raymer of Simcoe, Mr. Gerald Brennan and Miss Lynda Duncan of Ajax, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Comfort and Mr. and Mrs. Don Raymer of Markham. Progressive crokinole was played during the evening. Afters lunch all enjoyed an old fashion sing-song.

Mrs. Norman Wilson, Russell Ave. spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Norman Burton of Brougham.

Thos. N. Shea Ltd. Realtors are pleased to announce the appointment of Claude Kerr as a sales representative for the Stouffville and District Area. Mr. Kerr is a well known local resident and will be working from the Main Street office in Stouffville Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Houck and family of Cashel have moved into their new home on Maytree Ave.

Police Chief Orland Keating left this week on a deer-hunting trip into the Parry Sound district of Northern Ontario.

Stouffville nominations will be held on Thursday evening, Nov. 21st in the Veterans Memorial Hall. Elections are scheduled for Monday, Dec. 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brillinger left last week for Arizona where they will be enjoying a warmer climate for a few weeks.

Miss Margery Mertens accompanied Mrs. Fletcher Goudie to Islington on Friday to visit Mrs. Don Davis and boys.

The fall meeting of the Federated Women Teachers Association of Ontario of York 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 will be held at the Summit View Restaurant on Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 6 o'clock.

Former Stouffville police constable, W. S. "Casey" Hillard is presently connected with the Identification Bureau of the O.P.P. with his office at General Headquarters in Toronto.

S. Allen Shirk, on furlough from his missionary assignment in the Bihar province of India, will speak at Wideman Memorial Church on Nov. 19 at 8:00 p.m. The Shirks have served in India since 1951 under auspices of the Menonite Board of Missions and Charities, whose offices are at Elkhart, Indiana.

Seven local and district hunters including Harold, Gordon, Donald, Del and Arthur Forsyth, Vince England and Tom Leach returned on Thursday night from a deer-hunting trip into the Bracebridge area of Northern Ontario. The group bagged a total of five deer, including three does and two bucks.

A Euchre was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Jagger on Wednesday, Nov. 6th, to assist the Girls' Hockey Team. Prize winners were Ladies, Vi Boniface, Claremont; Grace Nesbitt, Ballantrae, Men's, Lena Ogden, Glasgow; Norrine Hill, Claremont. Hockey sticks were purchased with the proceeds from the previous euchre. A special thanks is given Mrs. L. E. O'Neill and Mrs. K. N. Wagg for their contributions.

Out-of-town relatives attending the Crowder Golden Wedding on Sunday were her brothers, Wesley Andrews of Keswick, Tommy Andrews of Holt, and her sister, Mrs. W. Wrightman of Newmarket and a cousin, Mrs. Norm. Kilpatrick of Toronto also Mr. Crowder's sister, Mrs. Keetch of Newmarket.

Horticultural Annual Meeting and Pot Luck Supper
Friday, Nov. 15 is the Annual Meeting and Pot Luck supper to be held in the United Church basement. Supper begins at 6:15 and is followed by a program when Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer of Toronto will show slides and tell of their trip to the British Isles and the Continent this past summer. The Hisey Quartette will provide music. Election of Officers will take place.

Councillor Bud Spang left on Friday to spend a few days in the north country deer hunting.

Brian Hall, sports announcer with radio station CHUM in Toronto is a grandson of a former Stouffville Reeve, Mr. Robt. Coulson.

Mr. Noel Avery, his son Glen and Marvin Betz went deer hunting for 3 days, to Pickering River, and were successful in shooting two bucks.

Stouffville's junior "Clippers" defeated the Sutton-Cannington "Combs" 7-3 on Thursday night in an exhibition game played in the Cannington arena.

Bill Corner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Corner, is a cadet on the staff of the Metro Toronto Police Dept. He hopes to join the Junior "Clippers" hockey club again this season and play whenever his shift permits.

This year be wise, do your Christmas shopping early. Your home should come first. Order now, make certain of delivery. Hundreds of items to choose from. A small deposit will hold any item till Christmas. Herb Kring Furniture and Appliances, 23 Main St. W., phone 640-2092.

Four resident ministers, Rev. Bass, Rev. Borland, Rev. Gooderham and Rev. Walsh will meet with members of the Stouffville Council on Tuesday evening, Nov. 26th at 8 p.m. to distribute the earnings of the Williamson Trust Fund among the needy of the town. About $2,700 is available for distribution this year.

The I.O.O.F. held their first euchre of the season last week in the Masonic Hall. Winners were, Ladies, Mrs. Art Wood, 1st; Mrs. Jean Reesor, 2nd. Consolation, Mrs. Harvey Swain, Men, Jim Gibson, 1st; Gus Almstedt, 2nd. Consolation Allan Jefferson. Prizes were donated by Houston's Drug Store. Proceeds will be donated to the cancer, polio and tuberculosis societies.

Fifteen ladies from North York Liberal Ladies Association attended the National Federation Convention held at the Chateau Laurier in Ottawa recently. Mrs. Ray Norton, Mrs. Les. Wilson, Mrs. George Kelly, Buttonville and Mrs. Ella Brown of Markham were the local representatives. The group were welcomed by Mayor Charlotte Whitton and had dinner at the Parliament Buildings as guests of Mr. John Addison, M.P., York North.

Renovations in the senior citizens quarters above the fire hall are nearing completion. Councillor Wm. Parsons reported on Thursday night that new furnishings are badly needed to accommodate the many persons who use the facilities daily. The room will also be available in the evenings for other local organizations, including the Drama Club. Describing the afternoon entertainment, deputy-revee Ken Laushway said — "It's quite a sight — you can't hear for arguments and you can't see for smoke but don't think they're not having a good time." It is not uncommon for 20 to 30 men to gather in the building for games of euchre.

WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Smith accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Smith of Toronto were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winterstein, Second St.

Jack and Bill Nigh, 7th con. Markham were assisted on Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nigh, Edward St. and Mrs. N. O'Boyle, Harold Ave., Stouffville in the making of a kettle of apple butter which netted 16 gallons.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children invite you to attend their Yuletide Treasure Sale, Saturday, Nov. 23, 1963, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Morgan Hall in the Markham Shopping Centre, on the No. 7 Hwy.

We have various articles for sale: sewing, knitted goods, Christmas decorations, doll clothes, toys, white elephants and crafts. Homemade baking will also be sold.

Come and enjoy an informal cup of tea while you shop. This is an opportunity to help a most worthwhile cause.

DEATHS

Miss Turner Dies
In 95th Year
Former Stouffville resident Miss Florence Christine Turner, died at the Church Home for the Aged, 87 Bellevue St. Toronto on Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1963 in her 95th year. She had made her home for a number of years on Albert St. with her sisters, Mrs. Alice Cheeseman and Miss Katie Turner, who predeceased her, also two brothers Fred and Phillip.

After resting at the O'Neill Funeral Home, the service was from Christ Church Anglican, Stouffville on Thursday at 2 p.m. in charge of Rev. Ball and Rev. Miller. Interment was in Stouffville Cemetery.

Mr. Harold Boyce died at Brampton on Saturday, Nov. 9. Funeral service was on Tuesday at the Anderson Funeral Home, Tottenham with interment in Laurel Hills Cemetery, Bolton. Mr. Boyce was a brother to Mrs. Douglas Davis of Stouffville.

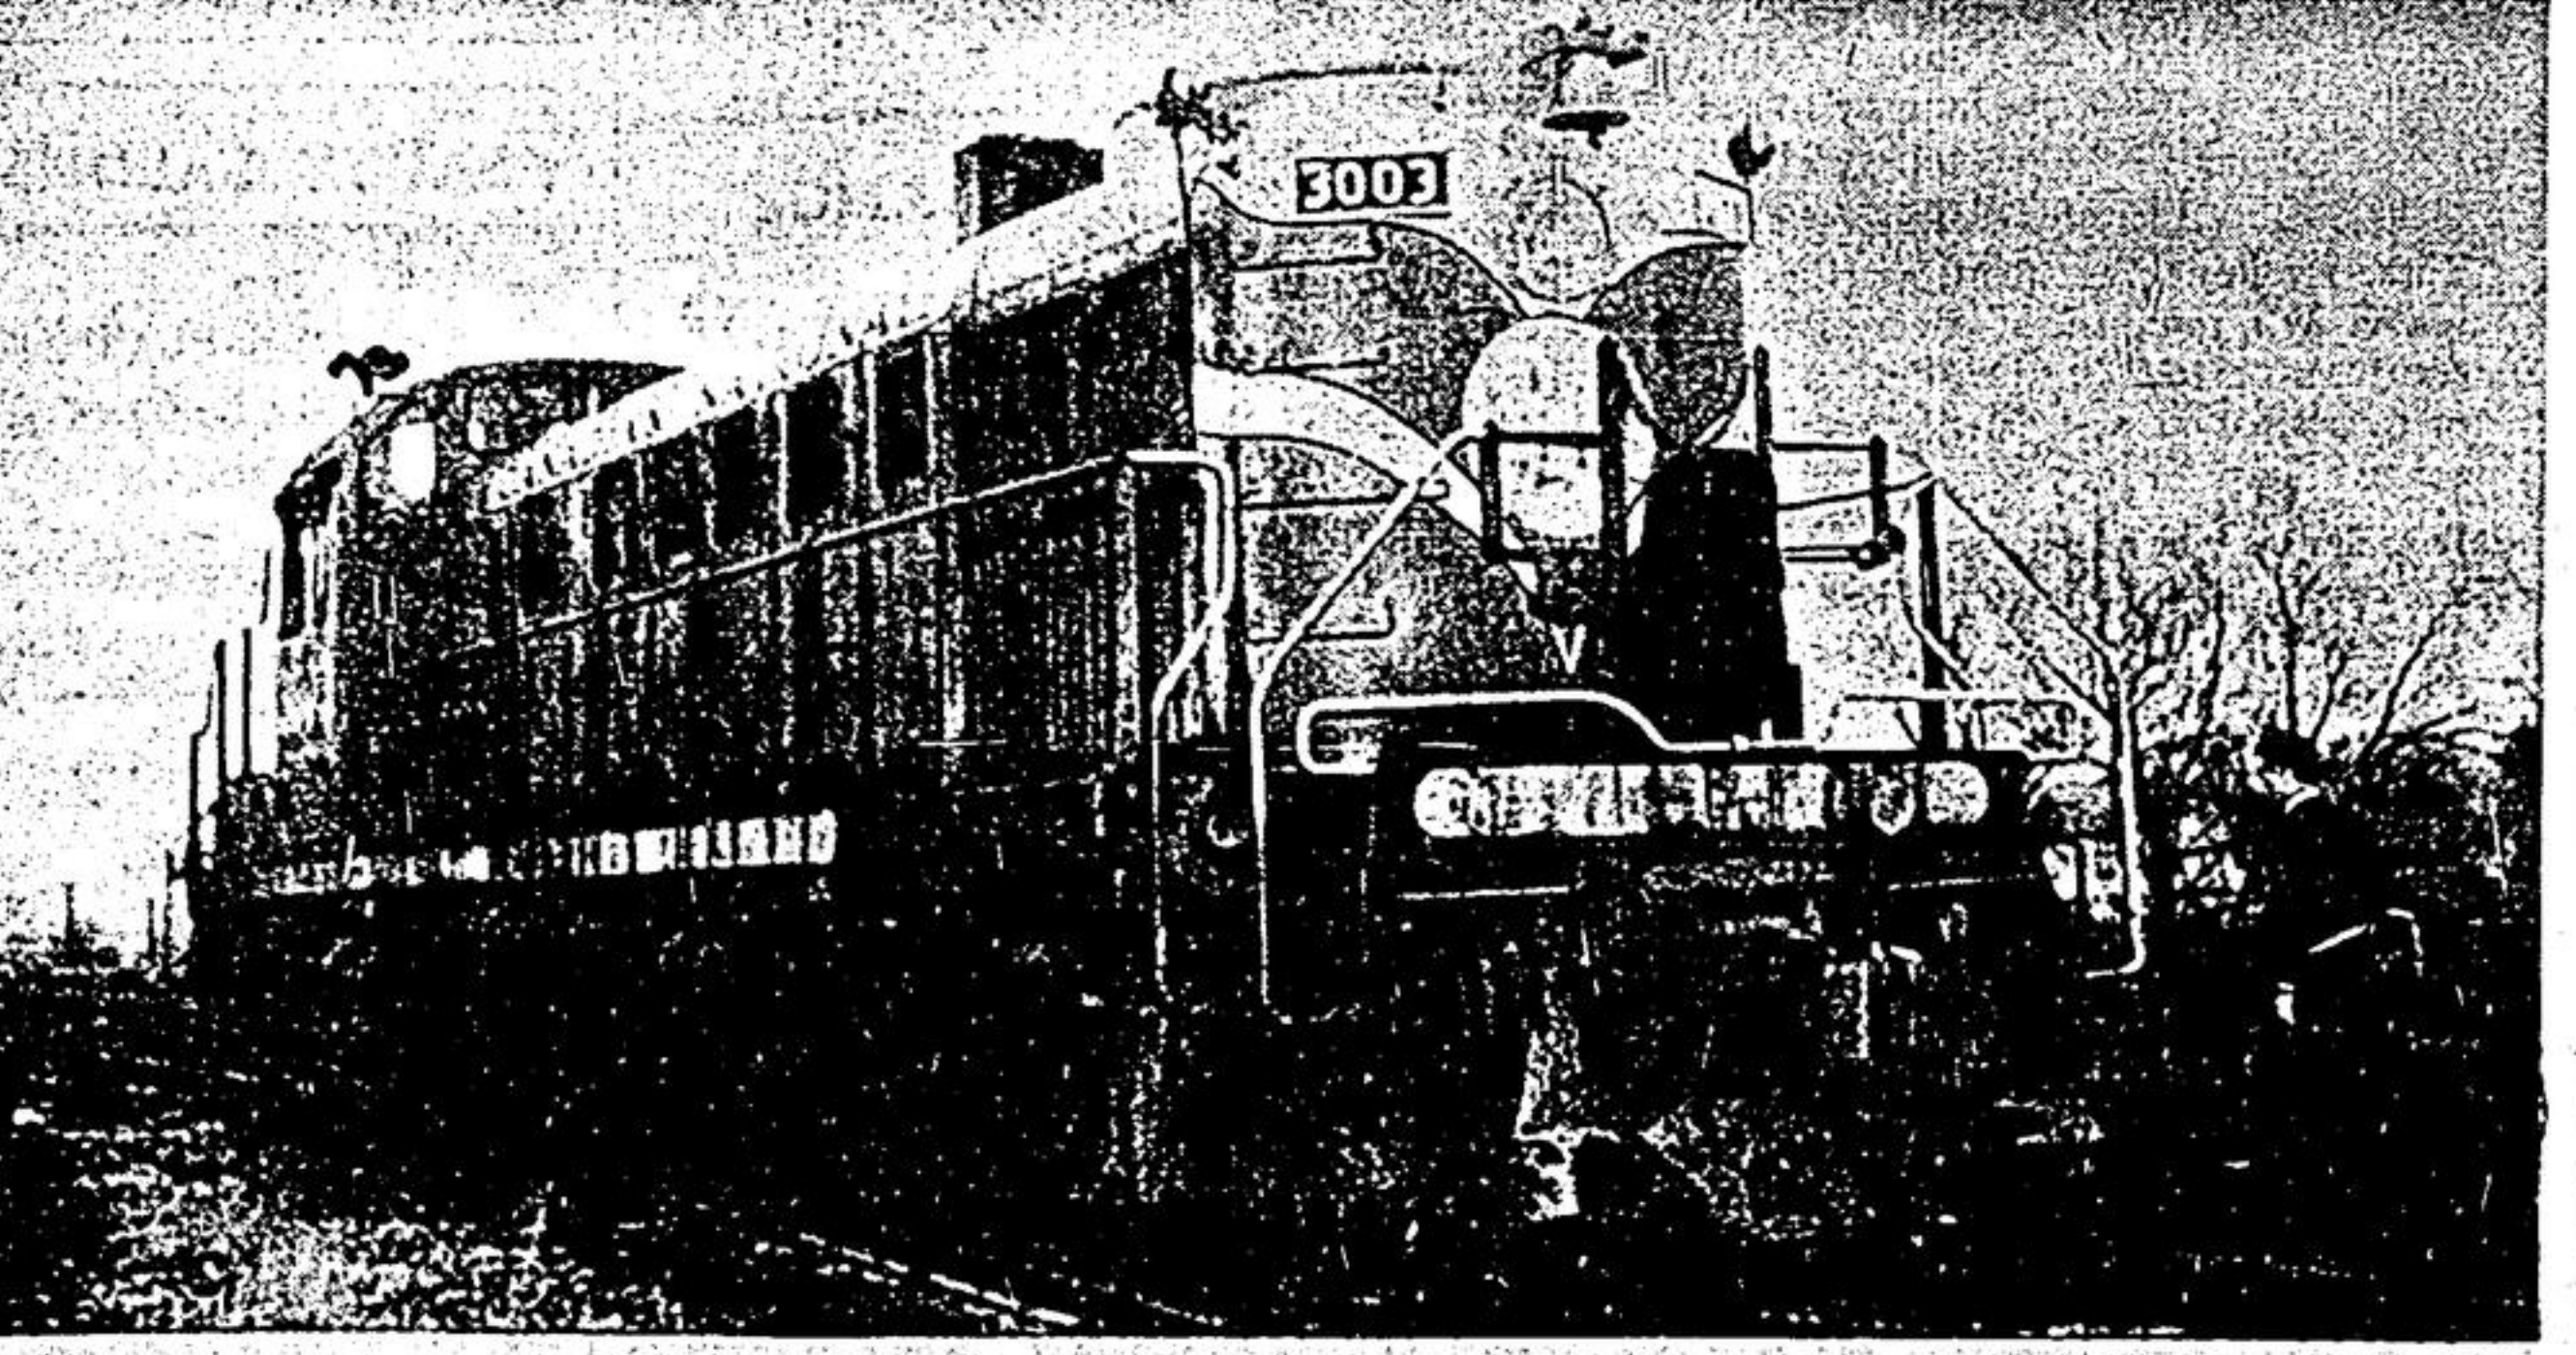

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Doner and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wozz were visitors on Saturday with Miss Beulah Jones of Gormley.

Mr. Alvin Harper, Albert St. has been confined to the Uxbridge Cottage Hospital for over the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Rummenie are pictured here following their recent marriage in the Goodwood Baptist Church. The bride is the former Lorna Grace Maye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Maye of Goodwood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rummenie, Uxbridge, RR 4. —Cadioux Studio.

Mr. Hamish McLean has joined the staff of Carload Groceries and will be in charge of the meat department.

Marooned Monster

Completely helpless, this multi-tonned C.N.R. diesel locomotive spent the night on solid ground near the Stouffville station last week after it hit an open switch on a rail siding. Every wheel on the engine jumped the track but it took only a matter of minutes for two other diesels to tow it back on the line with the assistance of wooden blocks. —Staff Photo.

FREE Photographs of Your Children
SAT., NOV. 16 — 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Bring Your Children to:

HOUSTON'S
"THE REXALL DRUG STORE"
PHONE 640-2222 — TWENTY-TWO — TWENTY-TWO

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHERS from

Chas Abel
DEALER

10 A.M. TO 5 P.M. SAT. NOV. 16

will take a photograph of your child. You receive a FREE 4" x 6" enlargement and a FREE negative from Chas Abel.

DON'T MISS THIS OUTSTANDING OFFER!

IT'S A FREE GIFT NO COUPONS. NOTHING TO BUY.

1 MAIN ST. W. — STOUFFVILLE