Buttonville News

Mrs. Jack Storey's cheerful presence is missed at the Buttonville Restaurant this week. Mrs. Storey is in the Toronto Western Hospital suffering from an ear ailment.

Mrs. Peter Walker has just completed a sojourn at Branson Hospital where her broken leg has been mending and now she is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Prentice of Unionville.

There were two Golden Wedding celebrations of interest to the community last November 5. One was for Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reesor of this community, who celebrated with an Open House for friends and relatives. The second couple were Mrs. Wilfred Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Cassis of Toronto, who also held a family celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid entertained Mr. Reid's namesake and his family from Western Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid and their daughter arrived from Saskatchewan and are visiting for a week or more.

The annual Christmas Bazaar at Brown's Corners United Church attracted many visitors last Saturday afternoon, and kept Brown's Corner's U.C.W. occupied. Mrs. A. F. Binnington opened the event, and Mrs. Harold Steffler and Mrs. A. W. Miller received. The Happy Timers were hostesses in the tearoom, and the Explorers booth attracted attention. Financial gains were substantial, according to Mrs. Norman Reid, treasurer of U.C.W.

Mr. Dick Jones was one hunter who came home with a deer for his effort.

Winter is surely approaching — the Walmos are on their way south with the birds.

The Young People's Union, York Presbyterian, service which was held at St. Matthew's, Richmond Hill, on November 17, was well attended. Mr. Idris Hamid was the guest speaker, and Miss Joy Fuller played the organ, with members of the Victoria Square Charge YPU comprising the choir. Miss Agnes Kernahan gave the prayer of invocation, and other executive members — Jim Best of Aurora, Ken Cole and Burke Dew of Queensville took part. The ushers were from St. Matthew's YPU.

Thursday evening of last week saw the second last game of the present euchre series played at Buttonville W. I. Hall. Prizes went to Mrs. Harvey Hill, Mrs.
